Ford-Iroquois Retired Teachers Assoc. Meeting

The Ford-Iroquois Retired Teachers Association will begin the 2018 meeting schedule with a meeting at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 25. This meeting will take place at Cissna Park Family Restaurant, 104 N. Second, and the program will be "Computer Safety for Seniors." Presenting the program will be members Rick and Mary Delaney. President Joyce McCullough asks members who attend meetings this year to please bring school supplies, such as pencils, tissues, notebooks, tape, and such, to each meeting. April's supplies will be donated to Nettie Davis Elementary School, Watseka, as many supplies were destroyed in the recent flood. Other schools will benefit from future supply collections. All retired teachers and those about to retire are invited to meetings to learn about the association and IRTA happenings. Questions can be directed to McCullough at 815-432-3876.
