Local Issue	Air Date and News Program	Story Length	Description
Crime, Youth	10/1/14 5pm	2:28	Gibbons/Youth Violence Enough is enough. And it's time to take action against youth violence. The former Shelby County District Attorney calls for a summit to stop what have become serious criminal problems here in Memphis. Tennessee Homeland Security Commissioner Bill Gibbons is leading the charge. He and top local law enforcement will try to hammer out solutions later this month. Among those taking part: Shelby County School Superintendent Dorsey Hopson and possibly some other Shelby County School Board members. Fox 13's Senior Correspondent Les Smith spoke with Gibbons and former MPD director Larry Godwin about answers to curb the rise in violent crime here in the bluff city.
Crime, Youth	10/1/14 5pm	1:40	Night Sports Ban One idea being kicked around to stem the rising tide of youth violence in Memphis could put an end to those 'Friday Night Lights'. Memphis Mayor A.C. Wharton has suggested moving night football games to day time hours. But Shelby County School leaders say the problem is much bigger than a time shift. Fox 13's Darcy Thomas joins us live in Whitehaven. Darcy?
Weather	10/2/14 9pm	1:30	First Weather There's been an afternoon of storms in Memphis and surrounding areas. More potentially severe weather is headed to the Mid-South. No rain out there right now but it should be in the Fox 13 viewing area within the next hour. Let's go to Fox 13 Meteorologist Brian Basham for the latest. Brian?
Youth, Crime	10/2/14 9pm	1:20	Wharton on Memphis Violence Memphis Mayor A.C. Wharton is backing away from his proposal to cut nighttime activities at area schools. The mayor says it was just an idea. But the mayor says fighting a recent spike in violent crime is a top priority. Fox 13's Matt Gerien spoke with the mayor this afternoon.
Law Enforcement	10/3/14 9pm	1:30	MPD Officer Shooting A man is in critical condition tonight after being shot by police right outside 201 Poplar. It happened just before 6:00 this afternoon. Police say the man attacked the officer. Fox 13's Matt

			Gerien has been following this story all night; he joins us live from Downtown, Matt?
Youth, Education	10/3/14 9pm	1:30	Parents/Tuant Kids Parents are now being held accountable when their children don't go to school. Today the Shelby County District Attorney's office put twelve parents on notice. As Fox 13's Greg Coy reports, if their children don't go to class the parents could go to jail. Greg?
Crime	10/4/14 5pm	1:39	Gun Sales Rise With Crime Rate Gun sales in Tennessee are on the rise. Residents are getting fed up with the wave of crime, and say they need guns for protection. Fox's Alex Flores reports.

Law Enforcement	10/5/14 9pm	1:10	Body Cams Memphis Police Officers could soon be packing more than just heat. Like the county, the city wants to buy body cameras for the police force. They say it could help protect citizens and prevent false claims of excessive force. Fox 13 reporter Alex Flores has the story.
Crime, Community	10/6/14 9pm	1:28	Gang Injunction Taking back the streets. Shelby County's Multi-Agency Gang Unit cracks down on a violent street gang targeting one Memphis neighborhood. A court order handed down this afternoon says members of the "Dixie Homes Murda Gang" can't gather in public and if they do they'll be arrested. This so-called gang injunction was 10 months in the making. Fox 13's Matt Gerien is here with the details.
Health	10/6/14 9pm	2:00	Ms. Newborn Heart Screening Mississippi is the only state in the South that does not require newborns to be screened for Heart Disease and defects. The American Heart Association wants to change that. They want mandatory Pulse Oximetry screenings. That can detect heart defects and disease in infants. Fox 13 Health and Medical Correspondent Sara Bleau joins us live with this story.
Health	10/7/14 9pm	1:30	Ebola The latest numbers show 3,500 people have died from Ebola in West Africa. That includes four Sierra Leone women working for local organization "Women of Hope International." They leave behind a total of ten children. Orphans are one of the many ripple effects the organization's CEO says Ebola is causing. Fox 13 Health and Medical Correspondent Sarah Bleau spoke with the CEO after she returned from Sierra Leone.

Economy	10/7/14 9pm	2:40	MLGW Distrust Some highly charged anger at Memphis City Hall today as council members go after MLGW for piling up fees on customers. A discussion over MLGW utility fees turned nasty today as one councilman accused the Wharton Administration and the utility company of illegal practices. Councilman Joe Brown was not alone in unleashing a barrage of criticism over billing practices. Fox 13's Senior Correspondent Les Smith watched as council members turned up the heat on MLGW'S chief executive.
Health	10/8/14 5pm	1:28	Baptist Response Like the Health Department, Mid-South hospitals are taking a proactive rather than reactive approach to the threat of Ebola. Even though there are no confirmed cases of the virus in the Mid-South, they're already planning and taking precautions. Fox 13's Darcy Thomas joins us live outside of Baptist Memorial with more. Darcy?
Crime, Economy	10/8/14 9pm	2:36	Weirich and County Dollars More criminals behind bars will mean more money to hire prosecutors and staff. Shelby County District Attorney Amy Weirich delivered that message to a group of Shelby County Commissioners today. As Fox 13's Senior Correspondent Les Smith reports, crime doesn't pay but it does cost taxpayers.
Youth, Crime	10/9/14 9pm	1:45	Teen Violence Local youth leaders and organizations continue to band together, trying to reach out to teens after several violent mobs were caught on camera.
