

Quarterly Issues/Program List

2nd Quarter 2019

April 1, 2019 – June 30, 2019

Immigration – Voting – Environment – Government & Politics
Crime – Aging – Education - Health

Immigration

Florida Lawmakers Jump into National Debate Over Illegal Immigration Wednesday, April 17, 2019 [All Things Considered 5:11 pm TRT = 3:16]

By NPR's Greg Allen | Florida is poised to adopt a bill banning so-called sanctuary cities. It would require local officials to cooperate with federal immigration authorities or face stiff penalties. Greg Allen reports on several Florida Lawmakers jumping into the national debate over illegal immigration.

Voting

Florida Governor Says Russia Hacked Into 2 Counties' Election Systems In 2016 Tuesday, May 14, 2019 [All Things Considered 5:19 pm TRT 3:41]

By Pam Fessler | Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis said Tuesday that the FBI told him that two Florida counties had their election systems hacked in 2016, but that there was no manipulation of data or vote changes.

'Possible' More Counties Than Now Known Were Hacked In 2016, Fla. Delegation Says

Monday, May 20, 2019 [Morning Edition 7:19 am TRT = 3:42]

By: Miles Parks | Florida lawmakers were angry Thursday when they emerged from an FBI briefing that left them with unanswered questions about the two county election offices in their state that were breached by Russian cyberattacks in 2016.

Environment

Governor DeSantis on Climate Change

Thursday, April 25, 2019 [Morning Edition 7:44 am TRT = 3:34]

By 90.7 WMFE's Amy Green | A ban in Florida on the words "climate change" appears to be ending. 90.7 environmental reporter Amy Green explains the DeSantis administration is showing new leadership where state government has been absent in the past.

As Region Waits For Hurricane Aid, Trump Holds Rally In Florida Panhandle

Thursday, May 9, 2019 [Morning Edition 7:20 am TRT = 4:51]

By: NPR's Noel King | The Florida Panhandle - that's the northwest part of the state - was devastated by Hurricane Michael seven months ago. Many of the communities along the coast are still waiting for federal disaster aid. And then last night, they had a visitor. President Trump traveled to Panama City Beach for a campaign rally. He announced $448 million in disaster recovery funds for Florida.

Government & Politics

Florida House Approves Bill That Limits Voting Rights For People Convicted Of Felonies

Monday, May 6, 2019 [All Things Considered 5:07 pm TRT = 3:35]

By NPR's Greg Allen | Florida legislators passed a bill Friday that places restrictions on which felons can regain the right to vote. Voting rights advocates say it violates the will of voters.

President Trump Rally in Orlando

Wednesday, June 19, 2019 [Morning Edition 7:44 am TRT = 3:41]

By: 90.7 WMFE's Amy Green, Abe Aboraya, Brendan Byrne and Danielle Prieur | It's official: President Donald Trump is running for re-election. He launched his campaign last night (Tuesday) in Orlando, smack in the center of the nation's most populous swing state. 90.7's reporters covered the launch from inside and outside the rally. We begin with Amy Green from the Amway Center, where Trump spoke to thousands of supporters.

Crime

Devil in the Grove 2

Tuesday, April 4, 2019 [Friends Talking Faith 6:30 pm TRT = 29:00]

By: The Three Wise Guys Reverend Fulwider, Imam Musri, Rabbi Engel | The miscarriage of justice regarding the Groveland Four is difficult to fathom. Reverend Fulwider, Imam Musri, Rabbi Engel will discuss faith and racist attitudes. It has been 70 years since the miscarriage of justice perpetrated against four young black men in 1949 in Groveland Florida. The sheriff was a murderous white supremacist, the woman who testified against the four young men perjured herself, and the attitudes and actions of dozens of Floridians at that time was shameful and horrific. We will talk about this issue from our various faith perspectives and discuss the continuing hard work of bringing justice to those who have been mistreated and harmed.

Florida Men Fail At ATM Theft

Friday, June 7, 2019 [Morning Edition 7:29 am 00:59]

By NPR's Rachel Martin | I'm Rachel Martin with some Florida man for your Friday - Florida men, actually; two of them, who must have been feeling pretty clever. Video surveillance shows the two going into the boardwalk on Okaloosa Island. The would-be burglars were carrying a crowbar and a blow torch. They identified their target - an unwitting ATM. And I say would-be burglars because it didn't quite work out for them. Instead of scoring thousands of dollars out of that ATM, the two men ended up just welding the hinges shut.

Friends Talking Pulse

Tuesday, June 11, 2019 [Friends Talking Faith 6:30 pm TRT = 29:00]

By: The Three Wise Guys Reverend Fulwider, Imam Musri, Rabbi Engel | Reverend Fulwider, Imam Musri, Rabbi Engel will discuss faith, the PULSE tragedy, and where we are now as a community. It was three years ago on June 12th that the Central Florida community woke to the terrible news of a shooting at the PULSE nightclub in downtown Orlando. It would take some time as reports came in throughout the morning before we knew that 49 – mostly young people – had been murdered by a domestic terrorist.

Pulse Survivors Talk About Arming Themselves

Wednesday, June 12, 2019 [Morning Edition 7:35 am TRT = 3:46]

By: 90.7 WMFE's Abe Aboraya | Some survivors of the Pulse nightclub shooting have been advocating for more restrictions on guns during the last three years. But some in the LGBTQ community want to arm themselves in self-defense. 90.7's Abe Aboraya spoke with the founder of an organization that connects the LGBTQ community with volunteer gun instructors.

Aging

Art Helps Aging Process

Wednesday, April 17, 2019 [Growing Bolder 9:00 am TRT 11:00]

By: Staff | Being an artist really is in our DNA. Best of all, being artistic and creative is one of the very best things we can do for our health and longevity. Someone who's been working tirelessly for years to spread that good news is the Director of National Center for Creative Aging, Dr. Gay Hanna. She joins us to talk about the life-changing power of tapping into our creative sides.

Education

Volusia County School Board Votes to Fire Superintendent Tom Russell

Thursday, May 30, 2019 [Morning Edition 7:45 am TRT = 4:04]

By 90.7 WMFE's Matthew Peddie | The Volusia County School Board voted this week to fire superintendent Tom Russell, citing concerns about his communication with the board. From the education desk this week, 90.7's Matthew Peddie spoke to Daytona Beach News Journal education reporter Cassidy Alexander, who has been covering the story. Education reporting on 90.7 News is supported by Helios Education Foundation.

Health

New Approaches Increases Quality of Life

Tuesday, April 2, 2019 [Growing Bolder 9:00 am TRT 13:00]

By: Staff | The next 5-10 years may forever change the way we approach health care. Renowned physician Dr. David Agus explains why these are called the lucky years. He shares some of the exciting new research that is saving lives and changing lives.

Cosmetics Ingredients Can Harm Your Health

Thursday, April 4, 2019 [Growing Bolder 9:00 am TRT 13:00]

By: Staff | Your cosmetics could be slowly killing you. Recent news reports have shown that chemicals such as arsenic and even carcinogens have been found in make-up Paige Padgett is a leading authority on green beauty and explains what you should avoid and what you should look for in safe cosmetics.

Using The Internet Properly in Diagnosing Health Issues

Monday, April 29, 2019 [Growing Bolder 9:00 am TRT :13:00]

By: Staff | More people than ever are turning to the internet for medical advice. It can be a wonderful resource to tap into, but not everything you read online is true. How do you know where to turn to find information and research that can really help you? Ask the librarian! Shalu Gillum is the faculty librarian in the University of Central Florida College of Medicine's Department of Medical Education. She holds a master's degree in library and information services and is a senior member of the Academy of Health Information Professionals. She explains the pitfalls of relying upon online research and shares tips for the best ways to find the most reliable information on the Internet. She also speaks to the pros and cons of online support groups and physician ratings

Fixing End of Life Health Care

Friday, June 21, 2019 [Growing Bolder 9:00 am TRT :13:00]

By: Staff | Dr. Brad Stuart has spent four decades passionately advocating for home-based primary care for the chronically and terminally ill. He believes that to fix American healthcare we first have to fix the end-of-life care model.