6:45 SONGS : Hello, Dolly ... Louis Armstrong... 2:29

<https://youtu.be/kmfeKUNDDYs> Of the five #1 "Hello" songs on this list (and of all time), this one is perhaps the most surprising. Armstrong was 62 when the tune reached #1, making him still the oldest artist to have a #1 song on the Hot 100. Even more surprising is that he had to displace the hottest young band in the world in order to get that #1 spot. The red-hot Beatles had held the #1 position for 14 straight weeks with three different songs (their first three number ones), before "Hello, Dolly" displaced "I Can't Buy Me Love" in April 1964. "Dolly" wound up being the third-biggest single of that year, behind only "I Wanna Hold Your Hand" and "She Loves You".
