

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Domestic violence; MMIW; COVID, Flu, RSV; public health; music, arts & culture; Indigenous artists	RadioACTIVE	10/2/23	60mins	October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. RadioACTIVE checks in with Rep. Angela Romero on legislation and Josie White of South Valley Services. Headed to SLC this month, Halluci Nation (formerly A Tribe Called Red) in conversation with Living the Circle of Life's Valene MC.
arts & culture; race; equity; literature	RadioACTIVE	10/3/23	60mins	A preview of Roots Race and Culture as it returns to PBS Utah for another season. Plus, Korean Culture Night, Black Bold and Brilliant, and Unidxs and author David Bowles.
arts & culture; banned books; Latinx community; funeral scam; immigrant help	RadioACTIVE	10/4/23	60mins	In honor of Banned Books Week, RadioACTIVE's Nick Burns talks with Carmen Maria Machado The Haunting Reality of Book Bans in America. Mayra Cedano of Comunidades Unidas, which is having a great year. Plus, Rocky Mountain Community Radio with stories from community radio stations in our region, including KRCL.
Pasifika culture; filmmaker; entrepreneurship; arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	10/5/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE, the Talanoa Way with Stephanie Mahina. Tune in and dive deep into Utah from a Pasifika perspective. Featured guests: Filmmaker Tony Vainuku, entrepreneur Jon Beutler from The Mill at SLCC, and Black Bold and Brilliant's Russell Roots.
agriculture; gardening; craft; pumpkins; skylore; music	RadioACTIVE	10/6/23	60mins	Punk Rock Farmer Friday with Aldine and more true tales from the agrihood, like Gardening Utah's Jana Francis. Plus, Craftoberfest, Great Pumpkins, Skywatcher Leo T, and fresh and homegrown music from SoulFang.
Indigenous stories, arts, music, culture, futurism, two-spirit	RadioACTIVE	10/9/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE highlights Indigenous People's Day with Living the Circle of Life's Dave John and the significance of this day in Utah. Then we talk with local Indigenous artist Eugene Tapahe of Art Heals: The Jingle Dress Project. Then we expand on Indigenous Futurism with First Nations (Canadian) Electronic Music Duo The Halluci Nation. Then classically trained Two-Spirit song carrier Jeremy Dutcher shares their new album, Motewolonuwok.
Child care; I-15 expansion; transportation; community blight; gun violence; health disparities; Israel-Hamas	RadioACTIVE	10/10/23	60mins	Stroller Rally for child care. HEAL Utah and NeighborWorks Salt Lake with the latest on I-15 expansion. Black Physicians of Utah on its Fitness Day and 5K. Nia Maile launches Community Conversation on gun violence prevention. UoU Prof. Amos Guiora from Jerusalem.
Environment; military industrial complex; nuclear weapons; arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	10/11/23	60mins	SUWA on protecting Labyrinth Canyon and surrounding public lands. Inkstick Media on Dying to Make Hypersonic Missiles in Utah. Pygmalion Theatre opens its season with The Half-Life of Marie Curie.
Pasifika culture; QTPOC+; anti-capitalist investing; health care access	RadioACTIVE	10/12/23	60mins	Radioactive, The Talanoa Way with hosts Stephanie Mahina and Josh Akana are talking story with En from Burning Sissy Valley and then we connect with local health organization, Wellness without Borders, and discuss the importance of accessibility to healthcare.
agriculture; food preservation; farm advocacy; animals; skylore; music	RadioACTIVE	10/13/23	60mins	Homegrown music from Gorgeous Gourds to start another Punk Rock Farmer Friday edition of RadioACTIVE. True tales from the agrihood from canning and food preservation expert Alison Einerson, Utah Farm and Food Conference 2024 news, and seed saving with The Plot @ SLCPL. Plus, Skywatcher Leo T, Humane Society, Best Friends and Duke!!
KRCL history; philanthropy; music; radiothon	RadioACTIVE	10/16/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE Radiothon! Featuring KRCL's History Project in conversation with Amy Ray of Indigo Girls. YWCA Utah's Winter Clothing Drive. And a music meets activism playlist to match!
Latinx arts & culture; radiothon	RadioACTIVE	10/17/23	60mins	Music Meets Activism for your Radiothon listening pleasure. Plus, Nonprofit Spotlight: Mestizo Institute of Culture and Arts, which celebrates 20 years with a special exhibit.
Great Salt Lake; environment; community activism; radiothon	RadioACTIVE	10/18/23	60mins	Gifts for Good go front and center on tonight's Radiothon edition of RadioACTIVE. Joining us will be Katie Newburn of Friends of Great Salt Lake and community advocate Kilo Zamora.
Environment; conservation; radiothon	RadioACTIVE	10/19/23	60mins	Gifts for Good go front and center on tonight's Radiothon edition of RadioACTIVE, The Talanoa Way with hosts Stephanie Mahina
Agriculture; farmers market; skylore; music; radiothon	RadioACTIVE	10/20/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE closes out its Radiothon Week with the Punk Rock Farmer. Join us for more true tales from the agrihood, the final Downtown SLC Farmers Market of the 'summer' season, homegrown music, Skywatcher Leo T, and your support!
LGBTQ+ history and activism; transgedner visibility, remembrance; diversity	RadioACTIVE	10/23/23	60mins	A Princess Kennedy Special, celebrating Queer Utah History with Connell O'Donovan. Plus, queer activist and Westminster alum Spencer West, and Project Rainbow's Jacey Thornton.
arts, literature; film; grief; theatre;	RadioACTIVE	10/24/23	60mins	Exploring arts and literature, RadioACTIVE talks with Sundance Film Fest's Eugene Hernandez, authors Teow Lim Goh and Ana Maria Spanga, WeLuvFreely on Death and Grief, Rocky Horror with PTC, Black Bold and Brilliant, and more -- if we can fit it in.
Great Salt Lake; environmental activism; coat drive	RadioACTIVE	10/25/23	60mins	The launch of the 4200 Project to save Great Salt Lake. Lessons from 'The Last Supper Club.' Warm Bodies War Souls Coat Drive.

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Pasifika culture; prison reform; formerly incarcerated, rehabilitation	RadioACTIVE	10/26/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE, the Talanoa Way, digs into critical issues of prison reform with special guest Pesi Kimoana. A child of an incarcerated parent, she will shed light on the weight of a parent's choices and consequences. Then we sit down with Solo, Jun and Dez from Day Won Utah as they share the experiences of being former inmates and the power of rehabilitation.
Agriculture, music; harvest; skylore; environment	RadioACTIVE	10/27/23	60mins	Punk Rock Farmer Friday with live music from Mowth! Plus, more true tales from the agrihood with an apple farmer, an onion harvester, Skywatcher Leo T, UYES @ the Great Salt Lake, Rock Camp's Slay Lake City and a punk rock halloween flea market.
Indigenous safety, MMIV; citizen science; climate change; heat mapping; Great Salt Lake	RadioACTIVE	10/30/23	60mins	Restoring Ancestral Winds on safety in our Native community. Rowland Hall science teacher and students return with the true picture of hear in SLC. And a USU professor is back to share his Great Salt Lake run map and message.
arts & culture; scary stories; pan de muertos; cultural celebrations	RadioACTIVE	10/31/23	60mins	A RadioACTIVE Halloween special with spooky stories from SLC to Sweden, Alaska, Tonga and Hawaii. Plus, Feliz Dia de Los Muertos with Ma Black and Chefs Jorge Fierro and Adalberto Diaz!
Indigenous issues; Goshute climbing project; jingle dress project; arts & culture; pretendian controversy	RadioACTIVE	11/1/23	60mins	It's Native American Heritage Month. RadioACTIVE talks with the Goshute Climbing Club and local Dine artist + photographer Eugene Tapahe. Plus, Living the Circle of Life weighs in on the Buffy Sainte-Marie controversy.
Pasifika culture; Indigenous leaders, students; Palestinian solidarity	RadioACTIVE	11/2/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE, the Talanoa Way, celebrates Native American Heritage Month and sits down Indigenous leaders and twin brothers Joey and Joseph DuShane - Navanick of the Northern Ute Tribe. Then we connect with Muna Omar local Utah leader and activist who specializes in nationalism/identity, social movements, and conflict in the Middle East and North Africa.
Agriculture; soil health; skylore; latinx environmental activism; arts & culture; music	RadioACTIVE	11/3/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE with the Punk Rock Farmer, featuring more true tales of the agrihood with Tony Richards, soil health program manager for the Utah Department of Agriculture and Food. Plus, SkyWatcher Leo T, GreenLatinos and fresh, homegrown music from Bomba Marile
Anti-hate speech campaign; interfaith collaboration; Israel; Hamas/Palestinians	RadioACTIVE	11/6/23	60mins	Speak Up and Stand Up Against Hate with the Utah Muslim Civic League and the United Jewish Federation of Utah. Prof. Amos Guiora, author of The Crime of Complicity: The Bystander in the Holocaust, who has just returned from Israel. And Nora Abu-Dan, who was born in Logan, UT, to Palestinian parents.
Moral courage; civil discourse; arts & culture; Indigenous play and cultural competencies; arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	11/7/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE explores Moral Courage with Allison Gerrard, who teaches ways to turn contentious issues into constructive conversations. The artists and curator behind 'Sangre Mia' -- a new art exhibit about reclaimed ancestry, cultural assimilation and identity at Material Gallery. And Larissa FastHorse, the playwright behind The Thanksgiving Play being produced locally by Wasatch Theatre Co. and SLC Theatre Co-Op.
wildlife conservation; legislation; Indigenous support; Latinx film	RadioACTIVE	11/8/23	60mins	Western Wildlife Conservancy on its lawsuit against a Utah law that allows the hunting and trapping of mountain lions year-round, without limit. Plus, Adopt-a-Native-Elder's annual Navajo Rug Show and Sale, Filmexico, and Disney On Ice.
Pasifika culture; arts & culture, music	RadioACTIVE	11/9/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE, the Talanoa Way. Dive into your community from a Pasifika perspective every Thursday with Stephanie Mahina. Get ready to groove to the hottest local R&B and hip-hop artists, KTHADAWG, Selassie and Ceefoe -- all Utah artists, all with new music to share!
Agriculture; farmers markets; veteran entrepreneur; skylore; music; arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	11/10/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE with the Punk Rock Farmer, featuring more true tales of the agrihood with Wheeler Farm Holidays, Downtown SLC Winter Farmers Market, and James' Gourmet Pies. Plus, Wasatch Co-Op, Illuminate 2023, Utah Veterans, SkyWatcher Leo T, and fresh, homegrown music from Marion $kor and the Sirens.
LGBTQ+; Transgender Day of Remembrance; arts & culture; community	RadioACTIVE	11/13/23	60mins	Princess Kennedy is back to honor Transgender Day of Remembrance. Plus, 40 years of City Weekly, with a sneak peek at their annual 'Best Of' edition.
Public transportation advocate; I-15 expansion; Indigenous music call; arts & culture; holiday celebration	RadioACTIVE	11/14/23	60mins	Utahns for Better Transportation on better ways to improve transit, especially if the public gets involved. Hear Utah Music's open call for Indigenous artists in celebration of Native American Heritage Month. Plus, Lights On! and the Caribbean Nightingale.
Nuclear power plant canceled; immigrant rights and outreach; Latinx	RadioACTIVE	11/15/23	60mins	No small nuke plant? HEAL Utah and the IEEFA weigh in. Plus, Comunidades Unidas and its Immigrant People's Agenda for SL County.
Pasifika culture; civic engagement; education vouchers; homelessness services	RadioACTIVE	11/16/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE, the Talanoa Way, with Stephanie Mahina. Tune in as we talk with Jenilyn Su'a of Utah Pacific Islander Civic Engagement Coalition then we'll check-in with Sam Vaitai and Sione Tavake, Utah Education Fits ALL. Then we will sit down with The Road Home's, COO Sarah Strang, and Damianah Lupemanu.

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Agriculture; Indigenous food sovereignty; flower farmers; food and ag advocacy; GSL and Christmas tree farm; skylore; music	RadioACTIVE	11/17/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE with the Punk Rock Farmer, featuring more true tales of the agridhood with Chef Bleu Adams of Indigehub, the Utah Cut Flower Farm Association, and Red Acre Center. Plus, Once Upon a Christmas Tree Farm, Skywatcher Leo T, and homegrown music from Air Vent Dweller.
Food security; local Jewish perspective on war with Hamas; music, arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	11/20/23	60mins	Crossroads Urban Center's annual Thanksgiving meal giveaway. Zoe Calahorra-Wood of the United Jewish Federation of Utah shares how her life has changed since October 7th. Plus, Music Meets Activism with Michael Gross, aka Whisperhawk, who explores his Indigenous heritage on his latest album, Keepers of the Earth Vol. 2.
Black entrepreneurship and banking; access to capital; generational wealth; films; LGBTQ+ safety; arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	11/21/23	60mins	Redemption Holding Bank Co.'s Ashley Bell and Byron Russell on starting the 17th Black-owned bank in the country, increasing access to capital and the opportunity to build generational wealth. Plus, Black Bold and Brilliant, and SafeZone Utah and The Kinsey Sicks.
I-15 expansion opposition; SLCC Indigenous scholarships announced; music	RadioACTIVE	11/22/23	60mins	Residents of SLC's West Side report on the I-15 expansion process and how they're trying to hold power accountable. SLCC's James Singer on the community college's new scholarship program for Utah tribal members. Plus, SLAM Rocks!
Thanksgiving special; food and gathering stories from different cultures in our community	RadioACTIVE	11/23/23	60mins	A Bigger Table -- RadioACTIVE's Thanksgiving Special, featuring the food traditions of family gatherings from different pockets of our community. Listen for chef secrets from Prime Corn, Boca Dulce, Facil Taqueria, Jamaica's Kitchen, Fillings and Emulsions, James' Gourmet Pies, and home cook Khaliah Tso. Plus, a playlist to match!
Music, arts & culture, Indigenous perspective and stories	RadioACTIVE	11/24/23	60mins	Meet the DJ with Valene MC and Dave John, hosts of KRCL's Living the Circle of Life.
Peace and conflict resolution; resiliency in the face of bad news; food justice	RadioACTIVE	11/27/23	60mins	Dr. David Derezotes of #TheRadicalMiddle is back with a panel discussion about processing bad news, from family conflict during the holidays to daily news from the Israel-Hamas war. Plus, Food Justice Coalition and 2nd and 2nd Coalition on helping folks living on the streets this winter.
Medical ethics; HeLa cell line; story of Henrietta Lacks; homelessness; arts & crafts; music; Palestinian women and art	RadioACTIVE	11/28/23	60mins	SLCC, Black Physicians of Utah celebrate the most important woman in medicine. Shivom Parihar shares his story about being homeless in SLC. Craft Lake City's Holiday Market. And the reissue of the Paper Boats Zine.
LGBTQ+ rights; Indigenous stewardship of Great Salt Lake; music	RadioACTIVE	11/29/23	60mins	SLCC film students share their documentary works, including Origins of Conversion Therapy and Indigenous Stewardship and Great Salt Lake. Plus, Krieg Benally of Neon Natives.
Pasifika culture; music; gun violence vigil and prevention	RadioACTIVE	11/30/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE, the Talanoa Way, with Stephanie Mahina. Tune in as we connect Pasifika style with Nancy Halden and Ashley Mendoza of Gun Violence Prevention Center of Utah then we'll talk story with with Pastor Atamani of the To AE Ofa United Methodist Church and throughout the show we'll be grooving with Sifa Uesi and The First Tongan Christian Brass Band.
Agriculture; farming; ag advocates; skylore; music	RadioACTIVE	12/1/23	60mins	Tune in as RadioACTIVE and the Punk Rock Farmer bid farewell to Marybeth Janerich, our favorite tomato whisperer. Luke Petersen of The Kinlands and Tyson Roberts of Roberts Family Farms share their secrets. Skywatcher Leo T. Becoming Jane at NHMU. And homegrown music from Boyfriend Sushi Town.
Youth radio; media and communications; KRCL history	RadioACTIVE	12/4/23	60mins	Loud & Clear Youth Radio celebrates 20 years on KRCL. Loudie alum Connor Estes talks with current mentor Lou Reugner and past instructors like Shannalee, host of Saturday Breakfast Jam. Also the newest group of Loudies will be on to talk about their impressions of the class so far. Plus, where are they now? Graduates share their media journeys.
Reproductive rights; women's sports; volleyball pro league; year-end drive	RadioACTIVE	12/5/23	60mins	KRCL's year-end drive, featuring Kat Boyd of Planned Parenthood. Plus, League One Volleyball announces first founding athletes for LOVB's new pro team in Salt Lake.
Tree Utah; environment; teachers; education; year-end drive	RadioACTIVE	12/6/23	60mins	Day 2 of KRCL's year-end drive, RadioACTIVE-style. Join us as we celebrate Gifts for Good with Tree Utah. Plus, we talk with an Educator of the Year.
Pasifika culture; arts & culture; social services; year-end drive	RadioACTIVE	12/7/23	60mins	Day 3 of KRCL's year-end drive, RadioACTIVE-style. Mahalo for joining us as we talk story the Talanoa Way with our friends of Radioactive and tonight's guest hosts, Kamaile Tripp-Harris and Jackie Molifua of The Island Wave Podcast. Kamaile and Jackie connect with Dr. Maile Arvin and Lulu Wolfram.
Agridhood; music; skylore; year-end drive	RadioACTIVE	12/8/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE with the Punk Rock Farmer wraps up KRCL's year-end drive. Featuring Skywatcher Leo T and one-man-band Tom Bennett.

Issue key words	Show Title	Date	Duration	Description
Homelessness, civil rights, arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	12/11/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE connects with local community activists Rabbi Alan Bachman, Shivom Parihar, John Mejia of ACLU and Wendy Garvin of 2nd and 2nd Coalition as we discuss homelessness against the backdrop of Governor Cox's newly proposed 2025 fiscal year. We will check in with the Lords of Misrule as they share a sample of their production where you can decide the fate of the show through donations to benefit homelessness and gender affirming care.
Teen employment, economy, current events	RadioACTIVE	12/12/23	60mins	SLCC The Globe Reporter Kyle Forbush on the reasons more than half of Utah's teens have jobs -- at 7% of total workforce, it's the highest rate in the nation. Economist Ben Crabb and teen worker Liam Pool help us break it all down. Plus, SLTrib's search for Utahn of the Year.
Education, teacher burnout, environment	RadioACTIVE	12/13/23	60mins	Nick Burns sits down and confronts teacher burnout with Jess Cleeves, an educator-turned-therapist-turned-author, and two teachers who share their personal stories. Plus, last-ditch lawsuits to stop the Little Cottonwood Canyon gondola with Carl Fisher of Save Our Canyons.
Pasifika community, health care access, small business	RadioACTIVE	12/14/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE-style. Mahalo for joining us as we talk story the Talanoa Way with our friends of Radioactive and tonight's guest hosts, Kamaile Tripp-Harris, Oreta Tupola and Susi Feltch-Malohifo'ou of The Island Wave Podcast talk story with local community health care workers and their integral roles in Utah. Then they sit down with Ben Raju (Fijian) of the US Small Business Association.
Agriculture, seed saving, food traditions, arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	12/15/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE with the Punk Rock Farmer and more true tales of the agrihood with Jennifer Jewell, author of 'What We Sow: On the Personal, Ecological, and Cultural Significance of Seeds'. Plus, Steven Rosenberg on the secret to a good panettone and punk rock music.
Communication, polarization, arts & culture, literary arts,	RadioACTIVE	12/18/23	60mins	Moral Courage for the New Year, Co-Create with The Blocks SLC, and poetry with an inaugural Indigenous Nations Poets fellow.
Women's issues, legislative preview, legal aid, history, populism	RadioACTIVE	12/19/23	60mins	YWCA's Gabe Archuleta outlines policy priorities for the 2024 legislative session. People's Legal Aid of Utah on why it's closing its doors and where folks may seek help with tenant issues moving forward. And 'Forgotten Populists' author Steve Babson.
Arts & culture, water, civic engagement	RadioACTIVE	12/20/23	60mins	Meet the DJ with Shell Yeah of Good Vibes. Ways of Water highlights a planned dam on the Bear River with Jordan Menzel of Maple Grove Hot Springs. Westside Leadership Institute wants you!
Pasifika community, microlending, arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	12/21/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE-style. Mahalo for joining us as we talk story the Talanoa Way with our friends of Radioactive and tonight's guest hosts, Kamaile Tripp-Harris, Susi Feltch-Malohifo'ou and Jakey Siolo of The Island Wave Podcast talk story with Pacific Island Chamber of Commerce team and Talia Keys and Melahn Atkinson of Talia Keys Music with live in-studio performance.
Thanksgiving special; food and gathering stories from different cultures in our community	RadioACTIVE	12/22/23	60mins	Best of RadioACTIVE: A Bigger Table, RadioACTIVE's Thanksgiving Special, featuring the food traditions of family gatherings from different pockets of our community. Listen for chef secrets from Prime Corn, Boca Dulce, Facil Taqueria, Jamaica's Kitchen, Fillings and Emulsions, James' Gourmet Pies, and home cook Khalilah Tso. Plus, a playlist to match!
Community voices, Christmas/winter stories	RadioACTIVE	12/25/23	60mins	RadioACTIVE's Christmas with a Twist, featuring voices from the community and a playlist to match. Enjoy!
Artivism, arts & culture, communication, polarization, hate crimes, anti-semitism, Islamophobia	RadioACTIVE	12/26/23	60mins	Best of Radioactive, featuring 2023 highlights chosen by Connor Estes. Music Meets Artivism with Whisperhawk, Speak Up Stand Up Against Hate, and Allison Gerrard of Moral Courage.
Oppenheimer, nuclear arms, Downwinders, RECA, military industrial complex, KRCL history, Russia	RadioACTIVE	12/27/23	60mins	Best of RadioACTIVE from July 19, 2023: We discuss Chris Nolan's Oppenheimer (2023) film as RadioACTIVE explores the past and present of nuclear weapons in Utah. Downwinder and playwright Mary Dickson, Inkstick reporter Taylor Barnes, Scoville Peace Fellow Barb Guy reflect on how far we've come and yet how much more there is to do. Plus, Dispatches from Moscow #2.
Pasifika community voices, film arts & culture, civic engagement	RadioACTIVE	12/28/23	60mins	Best of RadioACTIVE, the Talanoa Way with Stephanie Mahina, from September 21, 2023. Tune in and dive deep into Utah from a Pasifika perspective and sit down to talk story with Jakey Siolo, Nuanua Collective, and actor-filmmaker JP Foliaki of Red, White and Brass.
Agriculture, seed saving, food traditions, arts & culture	RadioACTIVE	12/29/23	60mins	Best of RadioACTIVE with the Punk Rock Farmer from December 15, 2023. More true tales of the agrihood with Jennifer Jewell, author of 'What We Sow: On the Personal, Ecological, and Cultural Significance of Seeds'. Plus, Steven Rosenberg on the secret to a good panettone, and punk rock music.