

This report was prepared prior to January 1, 2022, and it was ready for upload January 1, 2022.

Accordingly, this report is being timely uploaded.

Radio Issues/Programs List

Quarterly Issues and Programs List for Station [WTIF-FM, WTIF-AM, WFFM-FM]

October 1 2021 – December 31 2021

Placed in the Public File January 21, 2022

Part A – Issues Ascertained.

Plant Broadcasting, LLC, has identified the following issues as significant issues facing our community in this quarter:

1. Local Government
2. Local Business
3. Agriculture
4. Elections
5. Local Events
6. Health Issues
7. Economy
8. Local Athletics
9. Education
10. Religious Perspective

Part B – Programs Broadcast

[Include Date/Time addressed, Issue #, Program, Guest, topics discussed]

All of these issues were aired live on the morning show on WTIF-FM

October 4

- 8:15 am – Local Government, Health Issues, Local Events. Guest this morning is Tifton Mayor Julie Smith. We discussed several local events taking place in Tifton. Mayor Smith discussed the upcoming Rhythm and Ribs Festival this Saturday Oct. 9 at Fullwood Park and Downtown Tifton. This years' event has been rescheduled due to COVID-19. We are looking forward to a great festival this year and hopefully it can get back to the spring event in 2022. There is a big lineup of music, BBQ cookoff, Prizes, food vendors and lots of family activities. The Mayor discussed the procedures and safety measures being implemented to keep people both safe and happy.

October 8

- 8:15 am - Agriculture Issues. Farm Chat. Worth County farmer Ken Hall is here to discuss the agriculture forecast for this week. Topics discussed include the agriculture forecast for Fall 2021 in several crops. At this time, all crops are looking good due to large amount of rain that has occurred so far this year. Farmers are looking forward to a bumper crop of peanuts and cotton in South Georgia. He states that agriculture is still the number one industry in the United States. Technological advancements have helped farmers increase production to feed the people of the world. In Georgia peanuts are the #1 cash crop followed by cotton.

October 12

- 8:10 am – Athletics, Sports – Today's guest are Rusty Smith and Dale Hall, local sports personalities. Rusty and Dale talked about high school football in South Georgia this year.

Blue Devils are doing well so far this season and may do well into the playoffs. University of Georgia Bulldogs started off hot and are undefeated. Atlanta Braves have made it to the World Series. Sports in Georgia are exciting this year!

October 14

- 8:30 am - Local Events, Agriculture – Our guest this morning is Chip Blaylock, Executive Director of the Sunbelt Agricultural Expo. Chip is here to promote the upcoming show on October 19-21 at Spence Field in Moultrie Ga. The Expo is known as “North America’s Premier Farm Show.” The annual event has more than 1200 exhibitors that showcases the latest in farming technology. The Sunbelt Expo has completed 41 years of putting on the show. The economic impact of the farm show to South Georgia has been measured at 1.1 million dollars to state and local revenue and 187 full & part time jobs in the community.

October 29

- 8:00 am – Local Events, Local Athletics. – On the Morning Show today is Jason Bishoff, YMCA CEO in Tifton. Jason is here to promote YMCA programs for families and children. He discussed the various sports and activities taking place during the fall program. There will be Fall sports registration to include soccer and T-ball. Another program is called Thin It To Win It at the YMCA for exercise and weight loss. The after school program started in August and continues through November.

November 2

- 8:30 am – Education, Local Sports - Guest today is Heather Fletcher, Public Relations Director for Tiftarea Academy in Chula Ga. Heather is here to discuss fall events at Tiftarea

Academy. Fall sports are continuing with football, cross country running, soccer, and other sports. Enrollment is up to 646 students this year. They have launched a new website and invite the public to check it out and visit the school. The Website is tiftareaacademy.com and contact by Facebook and other social media. Heather also discussed plans for COVID-19 prevention and protocols if the virus continues to impact the students at Tiftarea Academy.

November 5

- 8:30 am – Local Events, Music – Guest today is local musician Randy Wiley who talked about the local music scene and how it is coming back from COVID-19 impact. More local music venues are opening and having live music again. Randy play guitar and sings in several places around South Georgia and North Florida. He talked about his music career and how he got started as a kid. He the played two songs live in the studio. It was a great performance.

November 9

- 8:10 am – Athletics, Sports – Today's guest are Rusty Smith and Dale Hall, local sports personalities. Rusty and Dale talked about high school football in South Georgia this year. University of Georgia Bulldogs remains undefeated, and people are talking about a possible National Championship! Atlanta Braves won the World Series and it was amazing for the state of Georgia. Sports in Georgia are exciting this year!

November 11

- 8:30 – Local Events, Religion – Guest today is Jason Womack with the Road Less Traveled Ministry. Jason is here to promote an upcoming gospel concert on November 13 at the Church of God Campground in Tift County. The concert opens at 6:00 pm. Musical performance will be by Bethany Wohule and Dante Bowe. The concert is free!

November 24

- 8:00 am - Local Athletics. On Sports Talk this morning with Dale Hall and Rusty Smith. We talked about High School football reclassification cross the state of Georgia, and the results of High School for this year for football. Rusty discussed upcoming College football Bowl games, Tift Co. Blue Devils football coaching staff, and its interaction with the community.

December 15

- 8:00 am – Public Health – Guest today is Kristin Patten with the Georgia Department of Public Health, South Health District to discuss the rapid spread of COVID-19 virus and the need for the public to get vaccinated as soon as possible. Kristen talked about the growing number of cases in in South Georgia, the stress on our hospitals and health care workers. She said that the omicron variant is predicted to spread rapidly across the United States and it very contagious. She strongly encouraged people to get vaccinated and get booster shots to help prevent the spread of the virus.