

The following is a list of the more significant community issues addressed by this station for the quarter specified. This is by no means complete, now is the order in which these issues intended to imply any degree of priority of significance of the issues.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST FOR: KTNN-AM 660/FM 101.5 QUARTERLY REPORT 2022

ISSUES DESCRIPTION:	PROGRAM SEGMENT:	DATE:	TIME:	DURATION:	DESCRIPTION OF SEGMENT:
56 Navajo families now have power, thanks to Light Up Navajo project		5/2/2022	5 minutes		56 Navajo families have finally received electricity in their homes in Arizona's Navajo Nation after work began in early. Salt River Project, whose headquarters are in Tempe, is just one of 14 volunteer utilities from 10 states that are part of the "Light Up Navajo"
Chinle Jr. High principal receives 25K Milken National Educator Award		5/9/2022			In a surprise school assembly April 25, Chinle Junior High School (CJHS) Principal Melissa Martin's dedication to empowering Chinle students and colleagues alike was celebrated with a national Milken Educator Award -- an honor that includes a $25,000 cash prize she can use however she wishes
Navajo Nation Recognizes the week of May 15 - 21 as "Navajo Nation Emergency Medical Services Week"		5/16/2022			Navajo Nation President Jonathan Nez and Vice President Myron Lizer signed a proclamation recognizing May 15 - 21, 2022 as "Navajo Nation Emergency Medical Services Week" to honor and thank first responders
Stage I Fire Restrictions for Navajo Nation, effective 5-23-2022		5/23/2022			The Navajo Nation will enter Stage I Fire Restrictions on May 23, 2022. These restrictions prohibit building, maintaining attending, or using fires in undesignated areas, including camp, charcoal, or wood fires
Navajo Nation leaders finalize the Navajo Utah Water Rights Settlement Act with the United States and Utah		5/30/2022			Navajo Nation President Jonathan Nez, Vice President Myron Lizer, and members of the 24th Navajo Nation Council, welcomed U.S. Secretary of the Interior Deb Haaland on Friday, for a historic signing ceremony to finalize the Navajo Utah Water Rights Settlement Act

156 new cases, 52,431 recoveries, and no death related COVID-19 over three-day period	6/6/2022	On Monday, the Navajo Department of Health, in coordination with the Navajo Epidemiology Center and the Navajo Area Indian Health Service, reported 156 new COVID-19 cases for the Navajo Nation and no deaths over the weekend and Monday. Below are the case numbers including the past weekend and Monday: June 4-5 121 new cases, 0 deaths, June 6: 35 new cases, 0 deaths
Naabik'iyati Committee addresses Gold King Mine Spill Settlements	6/13/2022	Last week, the Naabik'iyati' Committee of the 24th Navajo Nation Council approved Legislation No. 0040-22 during the Regular Meeting with seventeen (17) delegates in favor and one (1) opposed. The Legislation No. 0040-22 which will establish the San Juan River Mitigation Fund as a place to hold litigation and settlement funds caused by the Gold King Mine spill
Mariano Lake community sees progress with new telecommunications tower and N11 road pavement and bridge	6/20/2022	On Wednesday, Navajo Nation President Jonathan Nez and Council Delegate Edmund Yazzie joined Mariano Lake Chapter officials to celebrate the completion of a new telecommunications tower. President Nez also thank Navajo Engineering and Construction Authority workers who are paving N11 North of Mariano Lake and constructing a new bridge
Navajo Police Academy graduates 10 new police officers	6/27/2022	Navajo Nation President Jonathan Nez and First Lady Phefelia Nez had the honor of attending the graduation ceremony to recognize and congratulate the Navajo Nation Police Training Academy Class 57, comprised to 10 Dine men and women who received their Navajo Nation Police badge
President Nez thanks the 24th Navajo Nation Council for supporting $1 billion ARPA legislation for water, electricity, broadband, housing	7/4/2022	Navajo Nation President Jonathan Nez and Vice President Myron Lizer extend their appreciation to the 20 members of the 24th Navajo Nation Council who voted in support of Legislation No. 0086-22 on Thursday, delivering over $1 billion for water, electricity, broadband, housing, COVID-19 mitigation, E911/public safety. local chapter priorities, additional hardship assistance funds and other priorities through the American Rescue Plan Act

