

KYSL Issues and Programs
Fourth Quarter 2019

Issues of Community Interest:

1. Community Events and Local Organizations
2. Youth and Education
3. Health
4. Outdoor safety and conservation

KYSL airs "Morning conversations" where community guests visit with our morning host Tom Fricke between 8 and 9AM weekday mornings. The length of the show varies, but is generally 5-10 minutes in length. In addition, KYSL News Director Phil Lindeman, does numerous long form stories of items of interest in the community that are generally one to two minutes in length.

10/3 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons talks about Breast Cancer Awareness month and scams that are going around the County.

10/24 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons introduces Captain Jared Rapp of the Colorado State Patrol, both discuss winter driving conditions.

10/30 Ron Emery from Rocky Mountain Masters, a non-profit organization, discussing early season ski racing and training.

10/31 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons talks about Halloween celebrations and how to stay safe.

11/1 Vince White from Domus Pacis Family Respite discussing the benefit concert with an Eagles tribute band playing the Riverwalk Center in Breckenridge.

11/7 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons talks about the November Fundraiser along with local traffic enforcement.

11/14 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons discusses local hate crimes, plus details on The People's Supper, a gathering of locals to meet and discuss local challenges.

11/21 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons with information on holiday help phone lines to help fight depression during the holidays and information on Thanksgiving Community Dinners.

12/5 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons discussed how local law enforcement officials release case information to the press and public regarding ongoing investigations.

12/9 Mike Connelly with Friends of the Dillon Ranger District talks about donating during Colorado Gives Day, plus information on how to volunteer with FDRD, and details on the Ski With A Ranger program.

12/12 Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons talks Ullr Fest, plus an open case of vandalism in Frisco, and the funeral for a local firefighter.

12/27 Vince White from Domus Pacis Family Respite discussing the benefit concert with a Motown Tribute Band at the Riverwalk Center in Breckenridge.

KYSL News Issues report

Q4 2019 (October to December): News

Oct 1 – Population report with details on Summit county growth from state demographer

Oct 2 – Local CDOT concerns: what is next local for road work, repair, projects in next 4-5 years

Oct 3 – Seasonal flu and illness prevention with local doctors, nurses

Oct 4 – New parking enforcement for Frisco with detailed info for visitors, locals, biz owners

Oct 7 – Silverthorne unveils new climate action plan, aligning with Summit County and other local towns like Breck

Oct 8 – Minimum wage work group meeting: what it is, why it's here, what it means for workforce

Oct 9 – Dillon considers new walkability study with big findings about multi-million dollar parking structure

Oct 10 – Solar-powered snowmaking at A-Basin: feature

Oct 11 – 2020 Census meeting recap: what is happening, when, how locals can get involved, impact of fed dollars on local projects and programs

Oct 14 – Silverthorne trails master plan maps out future of trail network in north Summit county

Oct 16 – USFS officials explain the “omnibus bill” to give federal cash to high-impact ranger districts

Oct 18 – I-70 WB express lane update with info on construction impacts for winter travel

Oct 21 – Election primer: reviewing measures and candidates, part 1

Oct 22 – Election primer: reviewing measures and candidates, part 2

Oct 23 – Election primer: Peak 7 paving controversy and “neighbors vs neighbors”

Oct 25 – New state patrol captain in Frisco with details on his background, who he is, what he brings to local troop

Oct 28 – The fight against TABOR: why the Taxpayer Bill of Right's matters, and how lawmakers are trying to fight it

Oct 29 – New pass rates for USFS Vail Pass

Oct 30 – Breck's 5-year plan for fiber, detailing the “fiberhood” concept of town-owned fiberoptic

Oct 31 – Breck Tourism introduces new “multi-gen” visitor marketing with sweeping impacts on local events, hotel occupancy, tourism dollars, etc

Nov 1 – USFS clear cuts 100+ acres near Keystone, totally changes the look of southside runs

Nov 4 – backcountry safety for thin snowpack: how to stay safe and alive after unusually heavy early-season snowfall

Nov 5 – Minimum wage work group follow-up: how biz leaders and county officials are revising local wages

Nov 6 – Backcountry.com backlash: how fallout from an outdoor industry lawsuit is impacting local companies like Backcountry Babes

Nov 7 – Breck holds meetings for public input on Goose Pasture Tarn repairs... fixing a dam ID'd as “failing” by state inspectors

Nov 8 – Results from local minimum wage worker/biz owner survey

Nov 12 – Peak Health Alliance launches with lower discounts than expected, and why

Nov 13 -- How population and human rights are connected with input from population, family planning expert

Nov 14 – Colorado Water Plan: who pays for it? With state rep Bob Rankin
Nov 15 – Breck council first local town to deny minimum wage increase
Nov 18 – How HC3 is helping local restaurants cut down on food waste
Nov 20 – Summit Stage cuts late-night service on some lines with impacts for workforce
Nov 21 – BOEC and local TBI programs for athletes, veterans, others suffering TBI
Nov 22 – Avalanche training options for locals, including women-only courses
Nov 26 – I-70 rockslides and mitigation for Thanksgiving holiday
Nov 27 – Sysco Foods strike and impact on local restaurants during busy season
Dec 2 – Fairplay responds to major holiday traffic backups with shelter, food for thousands of stranded travelers
Dec 3 – The death of local Breck events: How changes to marketing, event planning could change Breck’s signature event lineup
Dec 4 – Town salary review, part 1: What local councils make, tied to minimum wage discussions
Dec 5 – Town salary review, part 2: What local staff makes, tied to min wage
Dec 6 – CDOT approved for 3 continuous lanes on I-70 from Frisco to Silverthorne
Dec 9 – Rockfall mitigation on I-70 corridor after holiday rockslides
Dec 10 – Breck fiberoptic project moves forward with first neighborhood on the grid
Dec 11 – Future of Breck’s McCain property and low-income apartments for workforce housing
Dec 12 – Keystone’s Evergreen housing projects finished with staggered openings
Dec 16 – Summit County Cares profiles, part 1: How local emergency fund helps locals
Dec 17 – Summit County Cares profiles, part 2: Examples of locals finding assistance when in need
Dec 18 – HC3 Waste study and highlights, including food waste, recycling contamination
Dec 19 – In-depth with Vail Resorts’ zero net emissions goal by 2030
Dec 20 – Future of MJ delivery in Summit County, Breck
Dec 23 – DUI and holiday enforcement with numbers and info on heightened patrolling Dec 24 – School board comes under fire for using taxpayer money to give admin raises
Dec 26 – Holiday recycling advice and how to find local recycling for visitors
Dec 27 – Post office struggles to manage “worst holiday in memory” with staffing woes
Dec 30 – Copper matching donations program through lift tickets, Lake County fund support
Dec 31 – Flu season and impacts on unemployment