What we need:

- Juniors and seniors interested in journalism. Must know how to:
- Perform in-depth research under deadline for investigative stories
- Think "out of the box"
- Have good phone communication and people skills
- Be aggressive digging for information
- NOT take "no" for an answer
- Knowledge of Excel a plus
- Application Deadlines: Nov 30 to apply for spring; March 31 to apply for summer; and July 31 to apply for fall.

46°

- Give you real-life newsroom experience
 - Give you knowledge of how national and local government agencies operate
 - Provide you with an opportunity to work on local and national stories for broadcast
 - Get the opportunity to investigate criminal and consumer cases at local courthouses and government agencies

Responsibilities:

- 120 hours over the course of the internship - minimum wage pay
- All interns work directly with viewers on solving their problems and bringing their stories to broadcast
- Interns work with news staff to produce daily newscasts
- Work on special investigative projects
- Must know how to type interview transcripts quickly
- Must be reliable, organized and assertive
- Must have car

Please send resume and cover letter to:

Townsend and Grace,

Attached is proof/documentation that Anchor/Reporter, Anthony Wilson, attended the 2014 NABJ Conference in Boston, July 30th - August 3, 2014 working with students and recruiting for our station as well. This is not currently listed in the 2015 EEO report that we posted on the FCC site, but it should be. He was the only person from our station who attended the NABJ Conference that year.

Grace and Townsend,

Attached is proof/documentation that Anchor Reporter, Anthony Wilson, attended the NABJ conference in 2015 in Minneapolis to teach college students. This should be in our 2016 EEO Report that we posted but is not.

Per your request, I have also attached the standards of business conduct form that employees sign when they are "checked in" as new employees. Thanks.
