- A. The 4th Of July- July 4, 2021. WBBP talks how our nation was formed. The battles fought, the sacrifices made and the wars that have yet to be won.
- B. Social media- July 13, 2021. Since COVID-19 basically shut down in person visits to doctors, schools, churches, etc.....social media has saved the day. From Zoom to FB, we have been able to stay connected. We also advised that YouTube and other sites offer help on learning how to use social media platforms.
- C. Safe fun in the Summer- August 21, 2021. At a time when school is usually out and families are vacationing, COVID-19 has caused much of these norms to change. However, one can still search to find some businesses are yet allowing in person visits to restaurants, bowling alleys, stadiums, parks, and churches.
- D. Mental health awareness- August 28, 2021. We tackled this subject because many have lost jobs or loved ones during this time.....causing depression and an up rise in suicides. WBBP encourages listeners to call the national suicide phone line or seek help from a therapist, psychiatrist if they or anyone they know is feeling overwhelmed or depressed.
- E. Labor Day- September 1, 2021. WBBP thanks listeners for the hard work they have done all year long. Labor Day is a day most have off work. So, we played relaxing music and stimulating conversation to help our patrons enjoy the day.
