

WMMH Quarterly Issues

July 1, 2014 to September 30, 2014

Title	Date	Time	Duration	Issue	How Addressed
Winning the Battle Over Lust	7/10/2014	8:00 PM	24:30	Social	Biblical counselor, Heath Lambert, and Businessman, Jim Vnder Spek share on how you can overcome lust and find freedom with God's help. Hear their stories and find out how each of them dealt with lust in their own lives.
Business as Ministry	7/17/2014	8:00 PM	24:30	Work	Can a Christian be a great business leader? Bobby Mitchell and Terence Chatmon, of the Fellowship for Companies for Christ International, tell how they are taking a stand for Christ in the marketplace.
Reaching Out to Inmates with the Love of Christ	7/21/2014	8:00 PM	24:30	Social	What do you think of those serving time? Wrightsville Prison Chaplain, Bruce Cunningham, reminds us that they're just like you and me, and he shares how he first got involved in prison ministry.
The Revolution Begins	7/28/2014	8:00 PM	24:30	Culture	Pastor David Nasser tells how he grew up Muslim, his father was a general in the Iranian army, and how his family escaped execution and fled Iran during the Iranian Revolution of 1979.
Called to Adopt	8/25/2014	8:00 PM	24:30	Social	Jon and Shelly Bergeron decided to become foster parents, and were adamant against adoption. They tell their story of adopting a deaf boy from the foster care system and then a deaf teen from China.
Confronting the Realities of Adoption	8/26/2014	8:00 PM	24:30	Social	Guests Jon and Shelly Bergeron talk frankly about the realities of adoption and how it can effect you financially, emotionally, and spiritually.
The Times: Are they Really Changing?	9/20/2014	8:00 PM	24:30	Culture	The 1960's were a time of unbridled sexual liberation. Now, 50 years later, the results of that "grand experiment" are in and the report is devastating. Learn how with God's help we can make change.