

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Arts	Made of Clay Report	Reflections on love in later life and making a living in music playing the accordion and Hammond organ: Mark Hamza, instrumentalist, and Sheila Stratton Hamza, vocalist	10/1/2023	10:00:00 AM	1:59:25
Arts	Made of Clay Report	Making a professional career as a union musician	10/1/2023	10:00:00 AM	1:59:25
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A construction crew working for the City of Ithaca ruptured a gas main near the Albany St. Bridge on Monday afternoon.	10/2/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Phones, TVs, and radios may sound alarms on Wednesday. Federal student loan payments resumed this month. Two people from the region are among those selected for the 2024 Appalachian Leadership Institute.	10/3/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Over 200 Cornell faculty members have signed a letter opposing the proposed payment agreement between their employer and the city of Ithaca.	10/4/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Watkins Glen Village Board voted to begin livestreaming their meetings. The Steuben County sheriff is challenging a county legislature vote last week to repeal a local law that would provide with defense and indemnify his position. The Tompkins County legislature is holding a public forum about the 2024 budget on Thursday, October 5 at 7 PM.	10/5/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Ithaca Police and the Ithaca Common Council have unanimously voted for a new labor contract. The Tompkins County legislature is considering a two-year pilot EMS rapid response program. Facial recognition technology is banned from all schools in New York State.	10/6/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Sexuality	Made of Clay Report	Female and Male: Beyond Rigidity in Relationships	10/8/2023	10:00:00 AM	1:57:38
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Over 60 Ithaca police and emergency responders have signed a letter critical of the city's new homeless encampment policy. Cornell University is committing to give over $1.5 million to improve childcare access in Tompkins County.	10/10/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Ithaca Common Council is set to vote on a negotiated Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Cornell University in a special meeting tonight.	10/11/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Ithaca Common Council voted 9 to 1 on Wednesday night to approve a Memorandum of Understanding, MOU, with Cornell University.	10/12/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about Banned Books Week and the Read-Out at Ithaca College	10/13/2023	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Taxes	Inquiring Socialist	The Not on Our Dime campaign for state legislation	10/13/2023	10:00:00 AM	0:27:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Two more cases of Legionellosis were diagnosed in Tompkins County in August and September. New York public utilities regulators denied requests for more money from wind and solar developers this week. 1967 Cornell graduate Claudia Goldin has been awarded the 2023 Nobel Prize in Economics for her research on reasons for gender disparities in the U.S. workforce.	10/13/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Health	Made of Clay Report	Facing addiction with a detox center, stabilization and harm reduction approach	10/15/2023	10:00:00 AM	1:59:23
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The payment agreement between Cornell University and the City of Ithaca has gotten its final approval. The state Public Service Commission approved a 3-year rate hike of 24% for NYSEG customers.	10/16/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Another emergency test will be heard by residents around Ithaca on Wednesday. The Tompkins County legislature is scheduled to consider a resolution in support of Israel at its October 17 meeting.	10/17/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Tompkins County legislature was set to vote on a resolution in support of Israel at its meeting on Tuesday night but Legislator Greg Mezey from Dryden withdrew the resolution when the meeting started.	10/18/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A twelfth person has been charged in connection with the murder of Thomas Rath. The public will get to comment on Ithaca's draft short-term rental (STRs) policy. Former governor Andrew Cuomo's legal troubles have cost New York taxpayers about $20 million dollars.	10/19/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A recent report from the U.S. Department of Defense finds that 245 out of 275 installations are close to groundwater sources. Free PFAS testing kits are being distributed to residents near the Seneca Meadows landfill by the environmental group, Seneca Lake Guardian.	10/20/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Community/General Ir	Made of Clay Report	Peaches Gillette	10/22/2023	10:00:00 AM	1:58:35
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The town of Thurston in Steuben County has banned the use of sludge or biosolids as fertilizer. An Ithaca man was convicted of fraud in federal court for receiving and spending over $140,000 in Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans. Cornell University announced plans for a new indoor sports facility.	10/23/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	There's been a flurry of petitions, letters of support, and condemnation of Cornell history professor Russell Rickford since he spoke at a pro-Palestine rally on October 15. The healthcare provider Guthrie is warning people about a phone scam.	10/24/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Broome County Health Department has gotten a $6.3 million grant to eliminate lead-poisoning hazards. Binghamton University has gotten another boost to its growing electric battery industry.	10/25/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	New York residents can give their input about congressional redistricting even though the state Court of Appeals is set to hear arguments in a case about the redistricting commission. A group of Finger Lakes leaders and a water protection group want Governor Kathy Hochul to intercede the possible sale of the Cargill salt mine under Cayuga Lake. Residents in Schuyler County have a chance to safely dispose of unwanted, expired and unused prescription drugs at a special event this weekend.	10/26/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Community/General Ir	Inquiring Socialist	Lessons about funding of organizations for social change	10/27/2023	10:00:00 AM	0:27:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	Gaza	10/27/2023	9:00:00 AM	0:58:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Early voting starts on Saturday, October 28. New York's "Red Flag" laws have been expanded to cover incidents of gender-based and intimate partner violence. Tensions on Cornell's campus are rising on the war between Israel and Hamas.	10/27/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	There's an increased police presence at Cornell's Center for Jewish Life after threats against the Center and Jewish students were posts online Saturday and Sunday. TCAT, the Tompkins County public bus service, has made more service cuts. A budget amendment that would have removed $200,000 for Ithaca's Southside Community Center was withdrawn last week.	10/28/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Health	Made of Clay Report	Fear and its effects on our relational lives	10/29/2023	10:00:00 AM	1:45:33
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Governor Kathy Hochul announced that New York State police are questioning a person-of-interest in connecting with the violent and antisemitic online threats made against Cornell University. Ithaca residents will get to meet and question the two finalists for police chief at a community event this week.	10/31/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A Cornell undergraduate student has been arrested for making the violent online threats against Jewish students at the University. The Ithaca Common Council is scheduled to vote on the city's $101 million budget Wednesday night.	11/1/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell University canceled classes for Friday, November 3. The Israeli flag was raised in front of Binghamton City Hall last week.	11/2/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about the climate crisis and climate refugees	11/3/2023	9:01:00 AM	0:58:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Voters in the Sixth Judicial District will elect a new state Supreme Court judge on Tuesday.	11/3/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Another Ithaca City official is resigning. City Attorney Ari Lavine announced his resignation at the Common Council meeting on Wednesday. WRFI & The Ithaca Voice planned to bring you an interview with Ithaca mayoral candidates Republican Janis Kelly and Democrat Rob Cantelmo. WRFI asked both judicial district 6 Supreme Court judge candidates for interviews.	11/6/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Ithaca's Common Council will start interviewing the finalists for city manager this week. The former president of Binghamton University's College Republicans was sentenced in October for his involvement in the January 6 attacks on Congress.	11/7/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Here are some preliminary election results.	11/8/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The living wage in Tompkins County is $18.45 per hour up from $16.61. Rep. Marc Molinaro introduced legislation to identify federal employees who have ties to or show support for Hamas.	11/9/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Taxes	Inquiring Socialist	How universities harm the cities they are in	11/10/2023	10:00:00 AM	0:27:20
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	death penalty	11/10/2023	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	We have some news about our station. Beginning Friday, November 10 WRFI will no longer be heard on our terrestrial frequency 81.9 in Watkins Glen. The 21-year-old Cornell student accused of making violent and antisemitic threats will remain in custody.	11/10/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A nationwide milk carton shortage is changing the way area schools are giving milk to students. Syracuse University officials are investigating comments made during a peaceful demonstration on campus last Thursday. The car of Ithaca Common Council member Tiffany Kumar was vandalized last Thursday.	11/13/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	There's more news about the Fourth Ward write-in candidacy of Cornell student Patrick Kuehl. Ithaca isn't the only place where elections will be decided by absentee and affidavit ballots.	11/14/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	This year's Christmas tree in Rockefeller Center is from Vestal outside Binghamton. A detailed plan to address homelessness in Tompkins County was unanimously accepted by the county legislature last week.	11/15/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	New York State Police held a press conference on Thursday about the investigation of a 43-year-old Horseheads man who is under arrest, charged with possessing explosive materials.	11/16/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	update on Gaza	11/17/2023	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell undergraduate Patrick Kuehl appears to have won a seat on Ithaca's Common Council. Over 400 Cornell faculty, students, and alumni have signed a letter calling for greater administration protections against doxxing and harassment.	11/17/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Smoke from Virginia wildfires could be smelled in Ithaca and nearby communities on Friday. Cornell is one of six colleges or universities the U.S. Department of Education has started investigating since the start of the Hamas-Israel war in October. Potential retail marijuana license holders will have to wait longer to open shop.	11/20/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The City of Ithaca held a public session about its proposed short-term rental policy last week. A telephone town hall is planned to help seniors enroll in Medicare. Rep. Marc Molinaro is holding the event on November 29 at 11 AM. A Texas company with the cumbersome name Southern Tier CO2 to Clean Energy Solutions is approaching owners of 30 acres or more in Broome, Chemung, and Tioga counties.	11/21/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Governor Hochul has signed a new law into effect that will seal criminal records for thousands of people. Concern is growing about the potential sale of Cargill's salt mines under Cayuga Lake.	11/22/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	THANKSGIVING. NO NEWSCAST	11/23/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Labor	Inquiring Socialist	New living wage reflecting rising prices, especially housing	11/24/2023	10:00:00 AM	0:27:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A thirteenth person was indicted for the kidnapping and murder of Ithaca resident Thomas Rath. It's been over two weeks since the elections. Results in some races are just being announced following affidavit and absentee ballot counts. Details are emerging about Cornell undergraduate Patrick Kuehl's write-in campaign won him a seat on Ithaca's Common Council.	11/24/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A 23-year veteran of the Schenectady police department has been selected to be the new police chief in Ithaca. One person was injured in a shooting in downtown Elmira on Monday. Lansing High School girl's volleyball team are state champions.	11/27/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Anyone who has been a patient of Northwell Health or Crouse Health need to take action to protect against identity threat. Several brands of apple products have been recalled.	11/28/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A former Ithaca Common Council member has been selected to become the city's first City Manager. A lawsuit that's prevented about 400 retail cannabis licensees from opening their businesses has been settled. Over $19 million in state funding has been allocated to repair roads damaged by storms and flooding in our area.	11/29/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A proposed waste facility in Bath would accept sludge and industrial waste. Residents of the Corning-Painted Post school district will vote on capital project funding over 80 million dollars on December 19. The Steuben County Legislature has repealed a resolution that required the county's sheriff to purchase liability insurance worth millions of dollars.	11/30/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Eighteen people were arrested at the U.S. Mission to the United Nations on Thursday. Seneca County is putting half a million dollars from its federal American Rescue Plan funds into a new trust to address the county's housing crisis.	12/1/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A newly released report says that New York State won't meet its 2030 climate goal. Cornell students occupied Day Hall on Friday. The Haudenosaunee Confederacy flag can now be flown outside Ithaca High School.	12/4/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Voters in the Town of Ulysses will decide whether to buy 30 acres to become a recreational area in a special election on December 6. Also on December 6, the Ithaca Common Council is scheduled to vote on the appointments of a new police chief and city manager. Thank you to all of our recent donors!	12/5/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell University's undergraduate application has changed. Steuben, Tompkins, and Cortland county agencies are getting over $2 million in state funding to help farms adjust to the impacts of climate change. The Tompkins County town of Newfield is getting over $1 million for new water and sewer infrastructure.	12/6/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A Republican businessman announced he is challenging incumbent Democratic Senator Kirsten Gillibrand in 2024. Seneca County and the Cayuga Nation issued simultaneous press releases on Wednesday. The Tompkins County legislature voted unanimously to make public arrests, prosecutions, and case outcomes.	12/7/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Women	Inquiring Socialist	Women's Cooperatives in Nepal backed by Educate the Children Nepal	12/8/2023	10:00:00 AM	0:27:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The man charged with setting a fire that killed 30 racehorses in Tioga County was in court on Friday. Voters in the town of Ulysses rejected a land purchase in a special election held on Wednesday. Ithaca has a new police chief for the first time in over two years.	12/8/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Voters in Enfield will choose new fire commissioners on Tuesday. Tompkins County is updating its long-term transportation plan. Ithaca will soon have 20 license plate reading cameras around the city.	12/11/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A legal dispute between Steuben County Sheriff James Allard and the Steuben County legislature is scheduled for a court hearing on December 21. A recall has been issued for some edible cannabis gummies. Schuyler County legislature has chosen a new county administrator.	12/12/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Cayuga Nation has filed a federal lawsuit against the state of New York. The state Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) awarded $350,000 to watershed restoration and water quality projects in the Finger Lakes region. Elections are still taking place throughout our region.	12/13/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	New York's highest court ruled on Tuesday that the state's congressional districts must be re-drawn. Ithaca's pilot homeless encampment policy was passed without any guidelines for how city staff should respond to people who stay outside the sanctioned zone. Harmful algal blooms or HABS are showing up more frequently in waterbodies every summer.	12/14/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AV	0:02:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	Human rights violations in El Salvador	12/15/2023	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Governor Kathy Hochul has rejected recommendations to set up safe injection sites in New York State for the second time. All Republicans in the House of Representatives voted to start an impeachment inquiry of President Biden. Cornell's anti-doxxing policy will take time to develop.	12/15/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The National Weather Service in Binghamton issued a flood warning on Monday morning. The Corning Police Department is warning of phone scammers posing as law enforcement officers. The state Department of Environmental Conservation, the DEC, has issued a violation notice to Seneca County.	12/18/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tompkins County Whole Health announced on Monday that COVID cases in the county have risen by 47% in the past two weeks. A new company that has been contacting property owners about drilling for gas has not applied for permits according to a letter from the New York Department of Environmental Conservation or DEC. Governor Kathy Hochul signed a bill on Tuesday creating a commission to study potential reparations to descendants of enslaved New Yorkers.	12/19/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	WellNow urgent care centers will stop accepting Excellus BlueCross BlueShield insurance starting January 1. The Broome County jail will get a $250,000 refund from its medical services provider. The Village of Endicott is getting $286,000 for water infrastructure upgrades.	12/20/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Public school enrollment in New York state has dropped more than anywhere else in the country since the beginning of the pandemic. A new election districts map has been drawn for Broome County. Tompkins County will pay for some of the start-up costs for a new emergency response team.	12/21/2023	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Community/General Inquiring Socialist		Local organization CUSLAR returns to action	12/22/2023	10:01:00 AM	0:27:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	Reflections on rights discourse and the importance of being socially connected.	12/22/2023	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30