

There are no contents in the KJTY Investigations and Complaints File because there are no pending investigations or complaints by the Federal Communications Commission relating to this station.