

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

April through June 2016

Coffee Talk – An hour, weekly, public affairs program featuring local businessmen and leaders from various organizations, discussing local and regional problems and issues. Each Tuesday morning from 7 – 8am

EDUCATION

Kevin Harrison, of the Trade School in Hartsville, came to our studios to talk about the eligibility of the free tuition at the school, The Tennessee Promise. Local 04/04/16; 10 minute interview

Members of the Macon County High School play came to the studios to promote the upcoming play, “Cinderella” being presented at the High School. Local 4/4/16; 10 minute interview

Jim Dooley, TWRA Officer, came to Coffee Talk to talk about the upcoming class for hunters. Local 04/5/16

Christina Yokley, a teacher at Red Boiling Springs High School, came to our studios to tell about Red Boiling’s Greehouse at the School and how the Ag Class, planted, cared for and is selling the plants as a school project and fundraiser. Local 4/11/16; 10 minute interview

We did a remote broadcast from the Fairgrounds to honor Macon County teachers for Teacher Appreciation Day. Macon County Sheriff, Mark Gammons, was there and talked with us on the air; as well as State Representative, Kelly Keisling. Local 5/12/16; 10 minute interviews

COMMUNITY

Shelta Shrum, of the Macon County Historical Society, came to Coffee Talk to tell everyone about the Historical Society and becoming a member. Local 04/5/16

Barry Doss of Macon County Election Commission, came to Coffee Talk to talk about election registration and deadlines. Local 4/12/16

Evelyn White, of the Macon County Arts Council. Came to Coffee Talk to talk about the upcoming "Arts in Bloom" event. Local 4/19/16

Doug Hahel and Mark Darnell, of Lafayette Rotary Club, came to Coffee Talk to tell about the Macon County Backpack program and ways the community can help out with this project. Local 04/19/16

Coffee Talk was hosted by the Macon County Band House. During the broadcast, we talked with the Band Director and several members of the band, and learned several ways we, as a community, can help out. Also there, was Crystal Salee, a teacher at the High School. She told our listeners about the upcoming FCCLA trip and the events they have planned to help raise money for the students to go. Local 4/26/16

Lafayette City Mayor, Richard Driver, came out to our studios and talked to our listeners about the new "Winding Stairs" park being constructed. Local 4/27/16; 10 minute interview

Crystal Salee, of Macon County High School, came to Coffee Talk to give us an update on the FCCLA trip and how the fundraising was going. Local 6/7/16

Mayor Richard Driver came out to tell our listeners about the Macon County High School Alumni Reunion. Local 6/10/16; 10 minute interview

HEALTH

Suzanne Salyer came out to talk to our listeners about the program "Healthy Start". This is a free program designed to help new mothers. Local 5/9/16; 10 minute interview

Suzanne Salyer came back out to talk more about the Healthy Start program. Local 6/29/16; 10 minute interview

TRAFFIC

Some Girl Scout members and their leaders came to the studios to tell our listeners about the importance of carpooling. Local 6/14/16; 10 minute interview