

QUARTERLY ISSUE/PROGRAMS LIST

January through March 2017

Coffee Talk - An hour, weekly, public affairs program featuring local businessmen and leaders from various organizations, discussing local and regional problems and issues. Each Tuesday morning from 7-8am (or longer, depending on the number of guests each week.)

COMMUNITY

Members of the Macon County Arts Council came to our studios to talk about the upcoming Poetry Exhibit. Local 1/9/17; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

Rita Watson and Karen Davis came to our studios to update our listeners on the happenings in Red Boiling Springs. Local 1/18/17; 8:30am; 10 minute interview

Suzanne Salyer came to our studios to talk about the Healthy Start Program which benefits new mothers. Local 1/19/17; 8:30am; 10 minute interview

Coffee Talk today was hosted by the Macon County Chamber of Commerce. Guests were Doug Haehl, the Chamber President; Kyle Garmon, the Coordinator and various Chamber Board Members. They discussed various things the Chamber are involved in currently; how to join the Chamber and how to use the Chamber in your daily business. Other guests included ladies from United Neighbors. They talked about a quilt they had made and told about their organization. Local 1/24/17; 7-9am

Coffee Talk today was hosted by the Macon County Courthouse. Guests were Macon County Mayor, Steve Jones; Macon County Trustee, Diane Cook; Macon County Court Clerk, Connie Blackwell and Macon County Register of Deeds,

Cynthia Jones. Each talked to our listeners about various things happening in their office. Local 1/31/17; 7-9am

Billy Snyder came to our studios to tell our listeners about the upcoming Senior Citizen's Dance at the Macon County Senior Citizen's Center. Local 2/8/17; 10 minute interview

Crystal Justice, of Vision 2020 came to Coffee Talk to discuss the events happening in and around Red Boiling Springs. Local 2/14/17

Kyle Garmon, of the Chamber of Commerce, came to our studios to discuss upcoming events in Macon County. Local 2/15/17; 8am; 10 minute interview

Shelta Shrum, of the Macon County Historical Society, came to Coffee Talk at Midgett's Family Restaurant to talk about activities going on with the Historical Society. Local 3/7/17

Randy East and Evelyn White came to Coffee Talk at the Donoho Hotel to talk about the Macon County Arts Council. Local 3/14/17; 8am

HEALTH/FITNESS

Suzanne Salyer came to our studios to tell our listeners about a new program for new mothers. She goes to the homes with gifts and samples to help young mothers or first time mothers to prepare for their baby. It's the Healthy Start Program for Macon and surrounding counties. Local 2/10/17; 8:30am; 10 minute interview

Suzanne came to Coffee Talk to talk more about this new program for first time mothers. Local 3/7/17; Coffee Talk 7-8am

Billy Snyder came to our studios to talk about the upcoming Health Fair. Local 3/8/17; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

AGRICULTURE/FARMING/4H

Keith Allen, Macon County Extension Agent of the UT Extension Office, came to our studios to talk about the activities and programs provided by the Extension Office. Local 2/22/17; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

Coffee Talk this morning was at the UT Extension Office. Guests included Keith Allen, County Agent and 4H Members. They presented a program on their activities; how to get involved and how easy it is to join. Local 2/28/17; 7-9am

FUNDRAISERS/BENEFITS

Glenda Cohen came to our studios to talk to our listeners about the upcoming benefit for Gene Davis. Local 3/2/17; 8am; 10 minute interview

Glenda came back out to talk more about the benefit for Gene Davis. Local 3/8/17; 8am; 10 minute interview

SCHOOL NEWS/EVENTS

Coach Nathan Wilson came to our studios to talk about the Macon County High School's "Tiger Ham Breakfast" in the morning from 6-11am. Local 3/10/17; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

