

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

July through September 2014

Coffee Talk – An hour (or longer, depending on the number of guests each week), weekly public affairs program featuring local businessmen and leaders from various organizations, discussing local and regional problems and issues.

COMMUNITY

Karen Davis, of Vision 2020, talked to our listeners about all the activities and events coming up at the Red Pump Café. Local 7/16/14; 8am; 10 minute interview

Steve and Sylesia McCart, with the Red Boiling Springs Lions Club, talked about the upcoming Pancake Breakfast. Local 7/24/14; 7am; 10 min interview; also again 8/28/14; 7am; 10 minute interview

We had this week's Coffee Talk at the Fairgrounds, promoting the Macon County Fair that would be taking place the first week in August. Various Fair Board Members, as well as Macon County Fair Board President, talked of all the activities, events and attractions we can expect at this year's Fair. Local 7/29/14; Coffee Talk 7-9am

Amy Phelps, of North Central Telephone Cooperative, came to our studios to tell our listeners about the use of 615 area code to do local calls now – due to the addition of a new area code. Local 7/30/14; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

Leslie Goad, a local mother and Laura from American Red Cross, came out to our studios to talk about two blood drives that will be held in August in honor of Leslie's 7 month old son, Easton Goad. Local 7/31/14; 7am; 10 minute interview

Jerry Mercer came in to our studios to talk about an Alzheimer program that's taking place at the Lafayette Church of Christ Fellowship Hall. Local 8/11/14; 8:30am; 10 min interview

Jonathan West, of Macon Bank & Trust, came to Coffee Talk to talk about the Antique are Show & Family Fun Day being held at Macon Bank and that the proceeds will go to help cancer patients. Local 8 /12/14; Coffee Talk 8am; and again on 8/20/14; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

Jan Ellis and Tonya Butler came to our studios to announce Macon County Fair winners and to tell our listeners how great the fair was attended and how the community supported the Fair. Local 8/13/14; 8am; 10 min interview

Jonathan West, of Macon Bank & Trust, came to tell our listeners about the yearly Existing Industry Luncheon. The Macon County Chamber of Commerce, along with other area businesses have a luncheon each year for industry and all their employees. It's to be at Key Park this year. Local 9/5/14; 7:30am; 10 min interview

Jamie Dallas, of Macon County Senior Citizens Center came to talk about their upcoming breakfast fundraiser at the Center. Local 9/10/14; 8am; 10 min interview

Mayor Driver came out to tell our listeners about several things going on in the City. Local 9/18/14; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

LOCAL HISTORY

Rita Watson and Karen Davis, with Vision 2020, talked about the Ice Cream Social fundraiser for the Heritage Museum. Local /7/30/14; 8am; 10 minute interview

Randy East, Macon County Historian, came to our studios to talk about recently getting a Historical Marker placed in Red Boiling Springs. Randy also talked about some of the County history involved in the area this marker is being placed in. Local 8/4/14; 7am; 10 min interview

HEALTH/FITNESS

Stacey Brawner and Nora Ellis came to our studios to tell our listeners about Makin' Macon Fit activities happening on September 6th. Local 8/29/14; 8am; 10 min interview

Linda Harper came out to tell our listeners about a 5K Run to help with medical expenses for her son in law, Toy Wix, who was injured at work and is undergoing therapy and more surgeries. Local 9/2/14; 7:30am; 10 minute interview

EDUCATION

Kevin Harrison, of Tennessee College of Applied Technology, came to our studios to tell our listeners about the new Tennessee Promise. Any graduating senior is eligible for free tuition for their first year in college. Local 9/1/14; 7am; 10 min interview