9:00p-10:00pm 48 HOURS: "Red Notice For Murder" - a report on the international search conducted by Nadia Ford and private detective Herman Weisberg for Viktoria Nasyrova, a Russian woman suspected of the 2014 murder of Ford's mother, Alla Aleksenko, in her Russian hometown and of stealing her money and other valuables. Nasyrova was believed to be the last person to see her alive. When Aleksenko vanished, Ford went to Russia where she spent several months unraveling the mystery of what happened to her mother. Her investigation led to the discovery of a traffic cam video of Nasyrova driving with Aleksenko's body in the front seat of the rental car. Nasyrova fled the country when she found herself with a Red Notice on Interpol's list of most wanted fugitives. Later, to Ford's disbelief, she discovered Nasyrova was living in Brooklyn, NY, just blocks away from her own home. After the NYPD could not locate her, Ford enlisted former police officer and private detective Herman Weisberg to continue the search. He hit paydirt - discovering Nasyrova was continuing her life of crime with several other victims, from a man who met her on a dating site, to a woman with similar looks who believes she was out to kill her and steal her identity. He closely examined her online life and was able to track the alleged killer down. Police arrested her. She remains in custody. Original on-screen text graphic: Viktoria Nasyrova has been in jail for 7 months. She will stand trial in New York for her alleged crimes. Russia will then formally request Viktoria Nasyrova be sent back to stand trial for the murder of Nadia's mother. On-screen text graphic for the 07/07/18 rebroadcast: Viktoria Nasyrova has been in jail since March 2017. Nasyrova will stand trial in New York for her alleged crimes. Russia will then formally request Nasyrova be sent back to stand trial for the murder of Nadia's mother. 07/14/18

9:00p-10:00pm 48 HOURS: "The Widow on Solway Road" ó an investigation into the murder case against Raynella Leath for the death of her second husband, David Leath, who was found shot dead in his marital bed, the trial, and the mysterious death of the widow's first husband, Ed Dossett, originally classified as an agricultural accident. Raynella and Ed Dossett were a power couple in Knoxville, Tennessee, where Dossett was the Knox County District Attorney General. Tragedy befell them, when Ed was diagnosed with terminal cancer; he then died in a freak accident on the family farm. Six months later, Raynella married David Leath, the local barber. After Leath's death, the wheels of justice moved slowly, and Leath's daughter, Cindy Wilkerson, filed a civil suit against Raynella. Prosecutors took notice and interest was revived in Dossett's death. One theory was that Dossett's unusual death was more about insurance money than cancer. His medical records were reviewed and the cause of death was ruled to be a morphine overdose. In 2009, Raynella went on trial for David Leath's death but the jury deadlocked. In the second trial, she was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. After six years, the conviction was tossed out, because the judge was revealed to have been impaired by drug addiction. In 2017, fourteen years after Leath's death, a third trial begins, but before the jury has a chance to deliberate, Judge Paul Summers (soon to be retiring), grants an acquittal (not guilty), dismissing the case; saying that prosecution had not met its case. Under Tennessee law, there is no appeal. Prosecutors are stunned. Jurors believe that, had they deliberated, they would have convicted her. Information also came to light about her trying to murder another man, Steve Walker, who had found out that his wife had given birth to Ed Dossett's biological child. Raynella Leath is a free woman. On-screen text graphic for the original broadcast and the 07/14/18 rebroadcast: Prosecutors intend to file a petition to exhume the body of Raynella's first husband, Ed Dossett, to gather more evidence. They will decide whether to review charges against her for his death. Raynella has moved back to the farm outside Knoxville on Solway Road. Interviewed: Diane Fanning (author); Cindy Wilderson (Leath's daughter); Beth Roberts (Leath's cousin); Steve Crump (prosecutor); Rebecca LeGrand and Josh Hedrick (defense attorneys); Dr. Greg Davis (Kentucky state medical examiner/defense consulting doctor); Steve Walker (intended victim); Paul Summers (trial judge, now retired); Michael Persicano, Jesse Caps, William McMichael (jurors) (C: Erin Moriarty ó P: Josh Gaynor, Lisa Freed) (OAD: 09/30/17)

07/21/18

9:00p-10:00pm 48 HOURS: "Moment of Truth" is an investigation into the death of Patrick Gilhuley, a retired NYPD officer and former bodyguard to stars Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt. Gilhuley died at the Mount Olive, NJ home of his on-again, off-again girlfriend, schoolteacher Virginia Vertetis. On the night of March 3, 2014, Gilhuley placed a series of frantic calls to his daughter; she heard shots, and within minutes of those calls, he was dead. When police arrived, Vertetis at first lied about an intruder, then said she shot Gilhuley in self-defense. What got Gilhuley and Vertetis to this point is at the center of this complicated case. She claimed he was going to kill her and she shot him in self-defense, but lied about an intruder in the house to police. The prosecution maintains Gilhuley was murdered because her life was falling apart and he was leaving her for another woman. A broken storm door takes center stage during the trial as she claimed the glass broke as Gilhuley slammed it shut. Forensic tests disprove this as bullets from the gun shattered the glass. One of his daughters testified that the murder weapon was Gilhuley's police revolver that was last seen at his house in Staten Island. The prosecution believes Vertetis stole the gun from the house. Vertetis takes the stand to tell her side of the story. After seven hours of deliberation the verdict is guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic for the original broadcast and the 07/21/18 rebroadcast: Virginia's daughter and son did not attend the trial or sentencing. Her mother says Virginia did not want them to see her that way. Interviewed: Ed Bilinkas and Sara McArdle (defense attorneys); Jim Faulkner (third husband); Matt Troiano (prosecutor); Jim Molinaro (forensics expert); Jennifer Gilhuley (daughter); Patti Meudt, John Hoover, Gina Samara (jurors). 8:00p-9:00pm 48 HOURS: "Death and the Dentist" is an updated rebroadcast of "Death and the Dentist" (OAD: 09/17/16), which includes an exclusive interview with Kingston, New York dentist Gilberto Nunez, who faces second-degree murder charges for the death of his lover's husband, Thomas Kolman, the case against him, and the secrets exposed during the homicide investigation. In 2011, Thomas Kolman was found dead by his wife, Linda, in his car outside of a gym he frequented. At first, no foul play was suspected; Kolman suffered from sleep apnea and was slightly obese. However, the medical examiner found an unusual drug in Tom's system -- midazolam -- a sedative sometimes used by those in the dental profession, and the death was ruled a homicide. Further investigation revealed that his best friend, Dr. Gilberto Nunez, was having an affair with his wife, Linda Kolman. Nunez told police Kolman knew about it and was fine with it. There were hundreds of text messages between all the parties, including some where Nunez impersonated other people. Even the name of the CIA was dragged into the case through a fake ID. It took four years for prosecutors to charge Nunez with second-degree murder and forgery. Nunez hired two top New York City defense attorneys who presented a very different scenario, saying Tom Kolman died of natural causes, insisting this was a murder case without a murder. The verdict: Nunez was acquitted of the murder charges and found guilty on the forgery charges. The Kolman family was unhappy with the verdict. Some former jurors were interviewed and were adamant that there were too many unanswered questions to prove the murder charges. Update for the 04/08/17 rebroadcast: In 2017, Nunez was sentenced for the forgery, insurance fraud and perjury convictions. He will spend the next two to seven years in prison. The Kolman family finds some comfort in knowing that he is behind bars. Original on-screen text graphic: Gilberto Nunez is expected to be sentenced on his forgery related charges later this year. On-screen text graphic for the 04/08/17 rebroadcast: As part of Gilberto Nunez's sentence, he was ordered to have no communication with Linda Kolman. A New York State review board is deciding if Nunez's dental license will be revoked. On-screen text graphic for the 07/28/18 rebroadcast: As part of Gilberto Nunez's sentence, he was ordered to have no communication with Linda Kolman. In May 2018, Gilberto Nunez was granted parole. His earliest release date is September 10, 2018. The New York State review board revoked Nunez's license to practice dentistry. Interviewed: Gilberto Nunez; Detectives Michael Thomas and Brian Reavy; Lieutenant Kyle Berardi; Michele Kolman-Weber (former wife); Jillian Kolman (daughter); Marie Kolman and Tom Kolman, Senior (parents); Mary Ellen McManus (dental hygienist); Murray Weiss (criminal justice editor DNAinfo/48 HOURS consultant); Grant Fredricks (forensic video expert); Yameil Nunez (Gilberto Nunez's new wife); Gerald Shargel and Evan Lipton (criminal defense attorneys); Frances Kwak and Michael Dougherty (jurors). 07/28/18

9:00p-10:00pm 48 HOURS: "Murder In Pinyon Pines" ó an updated rebroadcast on the investigation into the triple murders and the long quest for justice for Vicki Friedli, her boyfriend Jon Hayward, and Vicki's daughter Becky Friedli. In 2006, in Pinyon Pines, California, Friedli and her boyfriend were shot dead and their house set on fire. Outside the home, investigators found the charred remains of Becky Friedli, in a wheelbarrow. She was burned so badly, they could not determine how she died. Retired policeman Ron Friedli, Vicki's ex-husband and Becky's father, had a theory about what happened: Becky was deathly afraid of fire and he suspected she knew her killer. Police searched for clues but the case went cold. Years later, Luis Bolanos, a private investigator and a former colleague of Ron's, asked if he could get involved; he said he could get the case back in the news. He did just that. Seven years after the murders, police arrested Becky's ex-boyfriend Robert Pape and his best friend Christian Smith and charged them with murder. Their families say they are innocent. But an unexpected courtroom twist turned the case upside down. The District Attorney said there was an "issue" in the grand jury proceedings against Pape, and dropped the charges against them both. However, it may not be completely over; the investigation continues. Original on-screen text graphic: A new DA was sworn in last week. He says he will review the case "with an open mind." Christian Smith has been honorably discharged from the Army. On-screen text graphic for the 08/01/15 rebroadcast: A new DA was sworn in in January. He said he will review the case "with an open mind." Christin Smith has been honorably discharged from the Army. Epilogue for the 07/28/18 updated rebroadcast: In June 2016, stating new evidence, the police re-arrested Robert Pape and Christian Smith. In January 2018, they said they had a fingerprint match. In April 2018, almost twelve years after the murders, the trial began. After one month of testimony and ten days of deliberation, the jury reached a verdict: Robert Pape and Christian Smith were found guilty of the first-degree murders of Vicki Friedli and John Hayward. Pape was also found guilty of the second degree murder of Becky Friedli. On-screen text graphic for the 07/28/18 updated rebroadcast: Robert Pape, 30, and Christian Smith, 29, face life without parole. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

6:00a-6:30am

“Reclaiming History: A Movement for Equality” - an interfaith special that looks at the role of faith in the lives of African-American women and the way it invigorates the fight for justice in black communities. African-American women are among the most deeply religious groups in America and it has been said that the black church is an institution of women. They lead Sunday school, sing in the church choir and run the local soup kitchen. This special focuses on how faith and spirituality sustain African-American women, as they confront systemic racism, sexism and oppression through the ballot box. Among those featured are: (1) Rev. Dr. Yolanda Pierce, dean of Howard University School of Divinity and professor of African-American religion and literature, discusses how faith has played a role in black women's lives since the days of slavery and why it is an important part of who they are today. (2) Rev. Traci Blackmon, executive minister of justice and local church ministries for the United Church of Christ (UCC) and senior pastor of Christ The King United Church of Christ in Florissant, MO. She shares her experiences as a national faith leader and as one of the local pastors who provided pastoral care in the wake of the death of Michael Brown in Ferguson, MO in 2014. (3) Tammy Fournier Alsaada is a community organizer and co-founder of the “People's Justice Project”, a faith-based, grassroots community outreach organization, in Columbus, Ohio. It is spearheading a voter registration effort leading up to the 2018 midterm elections. Through political advocacy, the group wants to bring an end to excessive police violence and curb the disproportionate number of people of color who are incarcerated. Fournier Alsaada discusses the group's efforts and their work to educate minority populations about their rights as citizens. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Jennie Kamin. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with Interfaith organizations, clergy, and Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, and Sikh scholars.)
