

Story	Format	Air Date (approx.)
Schumer: Swatting attacks have got to stop (hoax calls re mass shootings in local-area schools).	Wrap	July 5
Turning outrage into action: The coalition of congregations working to dismantle racism in policing (Charleston special)	Special feature (7:40)	Aug 9
What can Buffalo learn from Charleston's experiences since the attack at Mother Emanuel AME? (Charleston report with TOW)	Feature	Aug 10
A conversation from Charleston with activist and mayoral candidate Mika Gadsden (Charleston)	2 way	Aug 11
Report criticizes City of Buffalo's December blizzard response	Wrap	Sept 3
New bike shop aims to make cycling accessible for all	Wrap	Sept 5
Early voting for Erie County Primary Elections starts Saturday	Voicer	Sept 16
Buffalo's Affordable Housing Task Force will hold its first public input meeting	3 way	Sept 27
Buffalo has an affordable housing problem. A task force has been formed to help solve it	Feature	Sept 30

July 13th episode of Buffalo, What's Next? Angelea Preston spoke with the son of one of the victims of the May 14 shooting Damon Young, and one of Pearl Young's closest friends Madge Whiskey. Her son Damon has rarely spoken to media since his mother's murder. Whiskey and Damon both reflected on the person Pearl was when she was alive.

Aug 12 (BuffaloWhat's Next) A pantry on Buffalo's West Side that provides food, toiletries, pet food and supplies, and diapers to residents in specific zip codes of the city's West Side. The pantry works with other organizations to provide assistance to the West Side's diverse population. Angelea Preston Reports

Sept 30. To close out Women's History Month Angelea Preston spoke to NYS first ever woman governor Kathy Hochul. They had an in depth conversation about her childhood, growing up in Buffalo, and women in spaces typically held by men.