WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- News: WVON celebrated Black Music Month with the featured soundtracks from movies that shaped the African-American life soundtrack all month from favorite black films.

WVON spoke to ProPublica Illinois reporter Dusa Eldeib about this collaboration with The Atlantic about how children are left in psychiatric wards after they have been cleared to leave.

Maze Jackson was joined in the studio with former Governor Patt Quinn asking for WVON listeners to sign a petition for Chicago Mayor term limits.

WVON spoke to Mark Brown, columnist with Chicago Sun-Times about the homeless encampment on Lower Wacker Drive known as the Triangle have been informed they must vacate the site while the city fences it off to prevent their return.

News/community: WVON spoke to, Chicago Golden Gloves Champion Matthew Hambic about his humble rise to fame and what his new championship means.

Cliff Kelly spoke to Professor Johnathon Jackson was the state of the black community.

Maze Jackson spoke with the former Chief of Police Garry McCarthy to discuss this divide surrounding athletes taking a kneeling.

Perri Small spoke to with Writer for Chicago Crain's, Steven Strahler to discuss record-breaking PTSD grant donated to Rush Hospital.

News/politics:

Cliff Kelley talked with Federal Courts Reporter Jon Seidel about his most recent police indictment investigation for the Chicago Sun-Times.

Maze Jackson and Charles Thomas held a Reporters Roundtable: Tahman Bradley, WGN's political reporter. John Kass, Chicago Tribune Columnist and Kristen McQuery, Chicago Tribune editorial board to discuss Speaker Michael Madigan's chief of staff Tim Mapes resignation after a House employee made allegations that said she endured harassment by Madigan's top aide.
