WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

News:

WVON was joined by Life Coach, Linal Harris shared his perspective on the current social unrest in our country and discussed the events of the past week on mental health.

WVON and listeners discussed Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot announcement that the City of Chicago will be under an official curfew effective from 9PM to 6AM. If you are still in the streets after 9PM and you are not an essential worker, you will be arrested.

Samantha Thomas spoke to Arron Sain, celebrity chef about how to stay healthy during quarantine.

WVON and listeners discussed the Minnesota police officers that were charged in their involvement for the murder of George Floyd.

WVON and listeners discussed the start of Phase 3 for Chicago, specifically what residents can expect when going to businesses for services.

News/Community:

WVON discussed how former MPD Officer Derek Chauvin has been arrested for the murder of George Floyd.

Maze Jackson and listeners discussed the current attacks on black people by the latino gangs amidst the protests in the city.

Perri Small spoke to Alaina Pinkney about how she and her family were harassed by former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin. Several years ago she witnessed her 9 year old autistic nephew being handcuffed in the back of a police squad car due to a misunderstanding. Officer Chauvin obviously prejudiced that the fact that blacks were barbecuing at that particular lake made it clear that the 9 year old needed to be taught a lesson.

WVON and listeners spoke to Jeremy and Brittany Kellem about faith in relationships during the era of coronavirus.

News/Politics:

WVON and listeners discussed getting counted during the CENSUS in order to receive the funds necessary to build black communities moving forward.

Maze Jackson spoke to State Representative Kam Buckner about calling in a special session to discuss the black issues in Illinois amidst these protests.

Todd Stroger spoke to Alderman Ray Lopez about the city council meetings where he asked for help with the gang's violent attacks on each other and community residents.

Maze Jackson spoke to Cook County President Toni Preckwinkle about the current state of the city's health system amidst the COVID-19, and how much resources were given to the black community.

Perri Small and listeners spoke to Mayor Lori Lightfoot about the violent weekend of rioting and looting during the protests for black lives.

Maze Jackson spoke to 20TH Ward Alderman Jeanette Taylor about the housing issue that is driving residents out and new developers in.
