WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

NEWS:

WVON and listeners celebrated Black history month by acknowledging Louis E. Lomax a prominent author and journalist, who became the first African American to appear on television as a newsman in 1959.

WVON celebrated Black history month by acknowledging NBA star Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics, who became the most decorated champion in the history of American sports. Russell won the NBA Championship eleven times in 13 years, as a player, and winning two as a player and a coach. The five- time NBA MVP was the first African American to reach superstar status in the predominantly white NBA and was the first black coach in league history.

In honor of Black History Month Chat Daddy welcomed to the show Grammy-nominated songstress and actress Miki Howard to talk about the life and times of music icon Billie Holiday.

NEWS/COMMUNITY:

Chat Daddy welcomed special guest co-host Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor Melanie and spoke on how not to get caught up in non-essential love relationship as well as advice on how to read between the lines when a relationship is going through a rough spot.

WVON welcomed esthetician Zay Azarah and discussed how climate change is affecting African-American skin and why we are being diagnosed with skin cancer in alarming rates. Zay also shared valuable tips on how to protect your skin year-round.

WVON and listeners discussed Cicely Tyson induction into the TV Hall of Fame. The 95-year-old acting legend was honored at the 25th induction ceremony at the Saban Media Center in North Hollywood, California.

WVON and listeners welcomed media power couple Munson Steed, Founder and publisher of Rolling Out Magazine and his wife Christina Steed, Executive Vice President of Chicago based Flowers Communications Group. The Steed's will shared their vast working experience in media and marketing while sharing the importance of keeping black-owned media and marketing companies thriving

WVON welcomed famed sommelier Brian Duncan and discussed the seven African-American winemakers, and the lack of Black involvement in wine making.

WVON was joined by Media industry veteran Kyra Kyles. Discussion focused on the tremendous impact that Black journalists like; Ida B. Wells, Oprah Winfrey, Ben Bradley, Gwen Ifill and Vernon Jarett have made in history.

POLITICS:

WVON discussed the former president and first lady taking home an Academy Award under their production company, Higher Ground, won the Oscar statue for American Factory for best feature-length documentary on Sunday night.

Maze Jackson discussed the upcoming State Attorney's election and the lack of Democratic support for incumbent Kim Foxx.

Perri Small spoke Mayor Lightfoot about the upcoming Census count and the importance of getting counted in order to get federal dollars for the Black community.

Maze Jackson spoke to Cook County President Toni Preckwinkle about the budget state of the Black community.
