WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

News:

WVON and listeners spoke about the explosive R. Kelly interview with CBS Gayle King about his sexual abuse allegations.

WVON discussed if Oprah over-reached her part for the Michael Jackson documentary, "Leaving Neverland". WVON listeners expressed their distain for Oprah attacking a black icon.

WVON spoke about Michelle Obama's alma mater Whitney Young Magnet High School naming its new $4.3 million athletic complex in May after the former first lady, in what's thought to be Chicago's first public facility dedicated for an Obama.

WVON and listeners discussed "Empire" actor Jussie Smollett indictment by a grand jury in Chicago on 16 felony counts after allegedly lying to police about being the victim of a racist and homophobic hate crime.

News/Community:

WVON and listeners discussed how Kareem Abdul-Jabbar raised $3 million for STEM for underrepresented communities.

WVON informed listeners about new legislation that was filed to allow victims of domestic violence out of their lease without paying payments.

WVON spoke about the fired Florida police officer found guilty of killing Corey Jones. This is the first time in 30 years an officer has been found guilty in Florida.

Life Coach, Linal Harris spoke to the WVON listeners about his thoughts about meeting Dr. Cornell West and interviews with millionaires to better understand how they think about money.

WVON discussed the passing of Freeda Foreman, the daughter of former heavyweight champion George Foreman, she was 42. Monday claims Foreman died of an apparent suicide by hanging. The coroner has yet to name a final cause of death.

News/Politics:

WVON and listeners discussed Senator Cory Booker introduction of a bill to legalize marijuana nationwide.

Perri Small spoke to mayoral candidate Lori Lightfoot about her campaign.

Maze Jackson spoke to Cook County President and Mayoral candidate Toni Preckwinkle about her campaign.

WVON spoke on the federal complaint that implicated Harvey Mayor Eric Kellogg in a strip club shakedown.

Perri Small spoke to guest Mr. Dana Milbank, opinion writer with Washington Post about Trump's presidency; his stand on trade, soaring budget deficits, his legal woes are mushrooming, his North Korea policy collapsed, Democrats beat him on the border wall and the Republican Senate is poised to rebuke him.
