WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Recruitment Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

News:

WVON and listeners discussed based on a true story, 'When They See Us' chronicles the notorious case of five teenagers of color, labeled the Central Park Five, who were convicted of a rape they did not commit.

Maze Jackson discussed how in the Streeterville neighborhood, Chicagoans live to be 90 years old, on average compared to Englewood residents, on average die at 60. The 30-year gap between the neighborhoods is the largest in the country, according to the NYU researchers, who examined life expectancies in neighborhoods in the 500 biggest U.S. cities based on data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention from 2010 to 2015.

Art Chat Daddy Sims discussed how Academy Award Winner Spike Lee will honor the storied career of his friend and collaborator Denzel Washington with the American Film Institute's Life Achievement Award during a glitzy gala at the Dolby Theatre in Hollywood

News/Community:

WVON spoke about how a protestor rushed the stage and grabbed the mic from Presidential Candidate Senator Kamala Harris hands.

WVON discussed the passing of the Cataract treatment inventor, Dr. Patricia Bath, she was 76.

Matt McGill spoke with Andre Guichard, co-owner of Gallery Guichard, and Ethiopian Contemporary Artist Merid Tafesse about the new exhibit.

Chicago native, country music artist, and documentarist Liz Toussaint talked about how she found herself through music in her upcoming documentary "American as Bean Pie."

WVON and listeners discussed Chicago native, country music artist, and documentarist Liz Toussaint about how she found herself through music in her upcoming documentary "American as Bean Pie."

WVON and listeners discussed A faith-based nonprofit that rehabs vacant homes on the Southwest Side is getting a $12 million state grant. The Southwest Organizing Project, founded in 1996, works with dozens of Christian, Muslim and Jewish groups to provide health workshops, financial literacy trainings, and to advocate for the rights of Chicago's working class.

News/Politics:

WVON discussed the resignation of the entire Chicago Public School board. Mayor Lightfoot did in fact keep current CPS CEO, Janice Jackson.

WVON talked about the Gary Democratic Senator Eddie Melton looks toward a run for governor of the Hoosier state, Melton is a first-term senator, elected in 2016. The Gary lawmaker also works for NIPSCO, a northern Indiana natural gas and electric company. In the Senate, he's the highest-ranking Democrat on the Education Committee, having previously served on the State Board of Education.

Maze Jackson discussed the press conference held by Mayor Lightfoot demanding Alderman Ed Burke resign amidst his Federal Investigation.

Mayor LORI LIGHTFOOT and Chicago Police top brass today will start unveiling community policing initiatives that New York City has found successful, according to 10:05-10:17 police department spokesman Anthony Guglielmi.

10:17-10:21 SPOTS, TRAFFIC & WX

Expect more consultation and collaboration between police and local residents, officers assigned to neighborhoods to solve community problems, and 10:21-10:29 business liaison officers to work with shops affected by crime.

Ald. JASON ERVIN, the new leader of the Chicago City Council's Black Caucus, is taking issue with an appointment Illinois Supreme Court Justice Anne Burke made to a 10:05-10:17 West Side judicial seat.

10:17-10:21 SPOTS, TRAFFIC & WX

Burke named Cara Smith, a policy adviser to Cook County Sheriff Tom Dart, to serve as a judge on the 7th District subcircuit that comprises the entire black community on Chicago's West Side. Smith, who is white, replaces retiring Judge Marianne Jackson, 10:21-10:29 who is African American.

10:29-10:35 SPOT, NEWS, SPOTS, TRAFFIC & WX, SPORTS

From Ervin's view, the appointment is a slap in the face to the black community. "He said 'This is a problem,'" according to a source close to the
