WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- News: WVON spoke with Bryant Greening, Co-founder of LegalRideshare, a law firm entirely dedicated to Uber / Lyft accidents and injuries to discuss what you can do if you are in wreck.

WVON delivered 'Exodus Movement Of The People', a five-part radio docu-series that will chronicle the black experience in Chicago. Why we came here... and now why we're leaving. From The Great Migration to the Great Exodus.

News/community: WVON discussed local operative Leslie McCrae Cowless, who ran a mail-in ballot program for Republican Mark Harris, is now at the center of a burgeoning fraud investigation that has delayed the certification of Harris's narrow victory and could prompt officials to call for a new election.

Perri Small discussed the Estate of Laquan McDonald with guests; Great uncle of Laquan McDonald, Rev. Marvin Hunter, Attorney Micheal D. Robbins and Attorney Jeffrey J. Neslund.

Cliff Kelly spoke to Dr Umar Johnson discussed if college is worth it for black students.

news/politics:

Cliff Kelley talked with a reporter from the IL Policy Institute about possible solutions after Bill Daley's proposed commuter tax on people living in the suburbs and working in the city. .

WVON spoke to former Obama adviser about the mayoral race, political reporter David Axelrod handicaps race for mayor, by Sun-Times' Fran Spielman: "Keep your eye on Amara Nnyia, an 'impressive' candidate with the power to excite notoriously-indifferent millennial's .

A Texas judge ruled on Saturday to strike down all aspects of the Affordable Care Act, deeming it unconstitutional and putting Democrats' and former President Barack Obama's landmark healthcare legislation in peril. ... It may go to the Supreme Court, which upheld the Affordable Care Act in a 5-4 decision in 2012.
