WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Karen Coleman Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- News: Matt McGill was joined by Dr. Willie Wilson and talked about his decision to bail out misdemeanor inmates at Cook County Jail who cannot afford their bail.

Matt McGill was joined by Isabel Wilkerson author of "The Warmth of Other Suns" A book that looks into the Great Migration that headed Wes.

WVON and listeners discussed Sandra Bland's family $1.9 million dollar settlement in jail death case. Sandra Bland's Mother Geneva Reed-Veal and the family's legal counsel Attorney Cannon Lambert and Attorney Larry R. Rogers Jr. joined Cliff Kelley.

Cliff Kelley talked with Alderman Leslie Hairston about the increase in Chicago's water and sewer tax.

News/community: WVON and listeners celebrated Labor Day with a rebroadcast of Attorney Fenton as he examined the legacy of slavery and what we must do to break the mental chains that has us high on low expectations.

Perri Small was joined by Michael Boyce II, Assistant V.P. at J.P. Morgan Chase and Shareef Smith, Deportation Officer of Enforcement and Removal Operations. The topic discussed was continuing the restoration project with CPS, to brighten the hope for our youth.

Sarah Brune the executive director of the Illinois Campaign for Political Reform, and our very own News Anchor, Dometi Pongo joined Perri Small to discuss the Illinois Campaign for Political Reform and the Summit for Action and Civil Reform.

WVON and listeners discussed President Obama's last address to the United Nations General Assembly. The President pushed the other world leaders to do their part in making the world a better place and helping the less fortunate.

Cliff Kelley spoke with Marcus Garvey's son Dr. Julius Garvey about the exhibit for his father that is set to open at the National Museum of African American History and Culture.

- news/politics: Matt McGill was joined by Mayor Rahm Emanuel and discussed CPS educational gains and the kickoff of the first day of school.

Cliff Kelley was joined by Muhammad Ali's ex-wife Khalilah Camacho Ali and discussed Ali's legacy.

Terri Small was joined by Sam Riddle, Political Director of the National Action Network and discussed the Flint Michigan Water Crisis and Donald Trump's visit to a black church in Detroit.

Cliff Kelley was joined in studio with Cook County Chief Judge Timothy C. Evans to discuss his legacy and the news surrounding his resignation.

Cliff Kelley and listeners spoke with Professor Jonathan Jackson about issues affecting the African American community.

Matt McGill spoke with Shari E. Runner from The Chicago Urban League about their report: Blueprint for an Equitable Chicago, a ten year plan.

WVON and Matt McGill spoke with Representative Robin Kelly about her hosting of a Health Braintrust Panel at the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation Annual Legislative Conference.

Cliff Kelley spoke with Glynda Carr, Co-founder of Higher Heights for America, about the role of African American women in this year's election, their high level of participation, and how vital this segment of the population is in deciding outcomes.
