WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Karen Coleman Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

- News:

Cliff Kelley spoke to Stacey Chauncey and Dawud Seifullah of Secure Home and Automation about protecting your home during the holidays.

Cliff Kelley talked with Cook County Clerk David Orr about the guidelines for filing nominating petitions for candidates running for office in Cook County.

Attorney William Pintas joined WVON to discuss seriously injured victims nationwide and has won millions for his clients and their families. His specialties include lung cancer, dangerous drugs, nursing home injuries, slips and falls and much more. r news/community:

Ferri Small spoke with Ann Marimow, covers legal affairs in the District and Maryland for the Washington Post, discussed the illegal gun purchase in criminal investigation has shortened every year since 2010. In just 12 weeks, one Glock 17 changed hands multiple times and was used to wreak havoc in Washington, D.C.

Illinois State Treasurer Michael W. Frerichs joined WVON to discuss the nearly 450 items worth approximately $66,000 to be auctioned online starting on November 27, known to holiday shoppers as "Cyber Monday," and ending on December 1. Jewelry, gemstones, baseball cards, collectible coins and paper money are among the items.

news/politics:

Cliff Kelley talked with Donna Brazile about her new book and the Democratic Party.

Toni Prokwrinkle joined Perri Small to discuss the jobs she will have to cut as a result of the repealed beverage tax.
