WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Karen Coleman Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- News: Matt McGill spoke with Cook County Commissioner Chuy Garcia about Mayor Rahm Emanuel's support to keep Chicago as a sanctuary city.

Cliff Kelley and WVON listener's spoke to Cook County Sheriff Tom Dart to discuss his call for an end to the state's cash-bond system.

Cliff Kelley talked with Judge Patricia Brown Holmes to discuss the 26-member special grand jury has been impaneled to hear evidence against Chicago Police officers who were on the scene the night Laquan McDonald was killed.

WVON listeners spoke with 32nd Ward Alderman Scott Waguespack about the Chicago City Council's approval of Mayor Rahm Emanuel's 2017 budget. Alderman Waguespack was one of three aldermen who voted against the ordinance that gives the city authority to collect the taxes and fees that fund its spending plan.

- news/community: WVON and listeners celebrated the Chicago Cubs World Series win in 108 years.

WVON and listeners celebrated the life of Gwen Ifill. She was a groundbreaking journalist who undoubtedly paved the way for African-American women in the industry.

Matt McGill was joined by Rufus Williams and discuss the rapid increase in principal turnover rates in the CPS system.

Listeners spoke with Jason Sole, President of the Minneapolis NAACP, to discuss the latest news surrounding the charges that have been brought against the officer in the police involved shooting of Philando Castile.

Cliff Kelley talked with Community Activist Jedidiah Brown about the meeting he attended with police, community leaders and Mt. Greenwood residents to discuss race relations.

news/politics: WVON and listeners tuned in to hear Perri Small along with WVON Commentators Maze Jackson, Amara Enyia and Carl West as they discussed the latest results from all the local races and the presidential election.

Cliff Kelley talked with Cook County State's Attorney Elect Kim Foxx and discussed the future of the State Attorney's office.

Cliff Kelley talked with Dr. Michael Fauntroy, Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science at Howard University, about President Elect Donald J. Trump's new deal for Black America.

Cliff Kelley talked with Andrew Trees, Montesquieu Forum Post-Doctoral Fellow at Roosevelt University and Author of The Founding Fathers and the Politics of Character, about his op-ed column in USA TODAY about the Electoral College.

WVON spoke with 28th Ward Alderman Jason Ervin to discuss the Chicago City Council's approval of Mayor Rahm Emanuel's 2017 budget.
