WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

- News:

Porri Small spoke to Dr. Robin Jones, the Chair of the Maternal Mortality Review Committee Research was compiled by a committee of officials, health care providers and advocates who analyzed the cases of 93 women who died in 2015 while pregnant or within one year of pregnancy. About how among the deaths found to be pregnancy-related, there were 72 deaths of non-Hispanic black women per 100,000 live births, and 11 deaths of non-Hispanic white women per 100,000 live births.

WVON listeners spoke to Gary Bryne who served in federal law enforcement for nearly thirty years, in the U.S. Air Force Security Police, the Uniformed Division of the Secret Service, and most recently as a Federal Air Marshal. While serving as a Secret Service Officer, Gary protected President Bill Clinton and the First Family in the White House, about the suspicious packages that are showing up to political leaders.

WVON and listeners spoke to Ralph Cipriano, an investigative reporter who's covered high-profile cases such as big-city political corruption and sexual abuse in the Catholic Church and at Penn State, discussed the prosecutorial overreach and media bias occur frequently, rendering a verdict no one anticipated.

WVON spoke to V.P. of Chicago Teachers Union, Stacy Gates about the New Chicago Public Schools ratings released are threatening to derail a controversial plan to open a high school at the South Loop site of a top-performing elementary that would be shuttered under the plan.

Perri Small talked to Senior Editor of Essence, Charreah Jackson to discuss the announcement of ESSENCE Girls United, a new mentoring initiative focused on helping girls 12 through 17 increase their academic potential, self-love and leadership skills.

WVON spoke to Jonah Newman, reporter with Chicago Reporter about what would have happened if Laquan McDonald somehow survived the volley of 16 bullets fired by Chicago police officer Jason Van Dyke, he would have been charged with aggravated assault of a police officer.

Perri Small was joined by Ernest B. Fenton to discuss hyper-masculinity and how the narrative is shifting.

news/politics:

WVON spoke to Olivia Stovicek, author with Injustice Watch about the Judges that are up for retention. Cook County voters decide November 6 whether to retain 59 Circuit Court judges seeking new six-year terms.

WVON and listeners discussed the election of Ethiopia's first female president.

WVON and listeners discussed the Judge Order for Georgia officials to stop rejecting absentee ballots without letting voters fix them first.

Maze Jackson discussed the racist robo call in Florida's governor race targeting Andrew Gillum.

WVON spoke to ABC 7 Investigative reporter, Chuck Goudie to discuss Election Day next month in Illinois, hundreds of National Guard troopers will be standing by for any cyber-attacks.

Maze Jackson was joined by mayoral candidate Amara Enyia and discussed her platform plus the donation she received from Kanye West and the Chance the Rapper endorsement.

WVON and listeners discussed former President Barack Obama as he rallies in Las Vegas for Senate candidate Jacky Rosen and other Nevada Democrats.
