WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Recruitment Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

News:

Perri Small discussed how this year is the first time ever Miss USA 2019, Miss Teen USA 2019 and Miss America 2019 are all Black Women.

WVON listeners discussed the newly released cell video footage of Sandra Bland arrest in Texas which has created a renewed inquiry in the case.

WVON spoke to Attorney Kimberly Cook, known for representing big name celebrities and high net-worth clients, and shared what to keep in mind when considering exiting a toxic relationship riddled with infidelity.

WVON celebrated Chuck Barksdale, member of R&B group The Dells on his passing.

News/Community:

WVON spoke to PR strategist, Emmy and Peabody award-winning former broadcast journalist Nancy Pender. Nancy shared 5 actionable steps people can take to become more effective in the work place.

Art Chat Simms spoke to Althera Steenes, Community Nutrition Educator with University of Chicago Medicine and discussed ways to regain or maintain good health while sharing valuable tips on how to prevent your risk of having a stroke or heart attack.

WVON listeners heard Dr. Toni Wheatle, founder and CEO of Wheatle Peart talk about global branding. Dr. Wheatle offered vital information on how to accelerate growth with your small to midsize business.

WVON recognized May as Foster Care Month with former Illinois state senator Dan Kotowski, who is now the President and CEO of ChildServ. ChildServ provides early childhood learning, foster care, housing and counseling services to families.

WVON spoke to African-American Muslim Country Music Singer Liz Toussaint. Liz shared her journey as a Black Muslim woman trying to make a mark in the world of Americana and Country music.

News/Politics:

WVON discussed Alabama Senate passed the most restrictive abortion bill in US history, the ban provides no exceptions for victims of rape or incest.

WVON broadcasted live the Mayor of Chicago Lori E. Lightfoot inauguration speech.

Listeners discussed how Several Chicago Board of Education members stepped down allowing Mayor Lightfoot to appoint her own board.

Maze discussed the delay of Harriet Tubman's $20-dollar bill until Trump leaves office.

Maze and Todd spoke about Governor Pritzker proposed progressive income tax and how it will lower property taxes, plus his capital construction plan will grow the state's economy.

WVON discussed with listeners prison inmates who are required to serve most of their sentences could soon reduce them by successfully completing classes aimed at rehabilitation under a proposal led by Senate Majority Leader Kimberly A. Lightford (D-Maywood).

Mayor Lori Lightfoot laid down the gauntlet in her inauguration speech Monday at Wintrust Arena. With dramatic flair, she called out aldermen for cutting "shady

The fired-up newly elected mayor said, "stopping it isn't just in the city's interest, it's in the City Council's own interest." And with that, she turned to look directly at the council members — including Ald. Ed Burke, who is facing federal charges of 10:21-10:29 corruption.
