WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Kimberly Pearson of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

News:

Perri Small spoke with Julie Naggs, owner of SYNERGY HomeCare of Chicago to discuss how to keep our seniors safe and warm during blizzard conditions.

WVON spoke to NAACP V.P. of Georgia, Attorney Gerald A. Griggs to discuss a case in which 63 people were arrested at a house party where less an ounce of marijuana was found.

WVON spoke to sports Attorney Exavier B. Pope about LaVar Ball the father of Los Angeles Lakers rookie Lonzo Ball as he pulled out his other son from UCLA to pursue professional basketball careers in Europe.

News/Community:

Maze Jackson and Charles Thomas spoke to author Claire Hartfield on the Chicago Race Riots of 1919.

Perri Small and Dorothy Tucker spoke to Lauren Bononati with the LaSalle Network about available jobs for the New Year.

WVON spoke to Clarence Cox, National President of National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBEE) about the recent questionable use of force applications by law enforcement.

WVON and listeners spoke to Todd Bolcoro, Co-Founder and Executive Director of a national non-profit called Social Change that liberates people and communities from the shackles of prison, poverty and violence.

News/Politics:

WVON spoke to Scott Schoettes, a lawyer with the LGBT rights organization Lambda Legal about President Trump's administration firing of all members of the HIV/AIDS advisory council. The most affected are African Americans with the highest burden of HIV of all racial/ethnic groups in the United States.

Perri Small spoke with Cook County Treasurer Maria Pappas to discuss tax prepayments. Property tax prepayments top $689 million.

WVON spoke to gubernatorial candidate Chris Kennedy to discuss the state of the black community.
