WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Clayton Pryor, Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- news: WVON and listeners discussed Sandra Bland, a Chicago woman who was found dead in a jail cell in Texas, on July 13, 2015. Police said that she had hanged herself and her death was followed by protests against her arrest, disputing the cause of death and alleging racial violence against her.
- WVON listeners discussed the grand jury indictment of Dylann Roof, the confessed gunman who killed nine people during a Bible study at a historic black church in Charleston, South Carolina on 33 federal counts including hate crime charges, announced by Attorney General Loretta Lynch.

news/community: WVON and listeners came out and enjoyed the fifth family friendly 2015 Taste of WVON.

WVON and listeners sent out heartfelt condolences to the family of Lucky Cordell. The Baron of Bounce will truly be missed as he was an irreplaceable member of WVON's iconic Good Guys. WVON and listeners continue to pray for his daughter Patricia Cordell. Lucky Cordell July 28, 1928 - July 7, 2015.

Theresa A. Dear, Ordained AME Minister at Dupage AME Church, NAACP member & host of "Let's Get to Work" with Theresa A. Dear, joined the Matt McGill show to discuss the latest news surrounding the Sandra Bland case.

news/politics: WVON discussed the Cincinnati grand jury indictment of the white University of Cincinnati police officer who shot unarmed black man Samuel Dubose in the head during a routine traffic stop. Hamilton County prosecutor Joe Deters announced felony murder charges against Officer Ray Tensing. Deters said. "This is the most asinine act I've ever seen a police officer make."

WVON spoke with Sandra Bland's sister, Sharon Cooper & Attorney Cannon D. Lambert, Sr., They joined the Matt McGill show and discussed the inconsistencies from the video footage of Sandra Bland' arrest.

Alderman of the 6th Ward Roderick Sawyer chairman of the City Council Black Caucus spoke to WVON to discuss the financial meeting on Alderman Will Burns stand against the movie 'Chiraq' rack for a financial tax break.

Cook County Commissioner Richard Boykin spoke to WVON on the Cliff Kelley Show and discussed his plan to reduce crime in and around Chicago.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List
August 2015

WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Clayton Pryor, Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- news: WVON and listeners discussed Sandra Bland, a Chicago woman who was found dead in a jail cell in Texas, on July 13, 2015. Her death was ruled a suicide sparking many protests.

WVON discussed the passing of Julian Bond, a charismatic figure of the 1960s civil rights movement, a lightning rod of the anti-Vietnam War campaign and a lifelong champion of equal rights, notably as chairman of the N.A.A.C.P., died on Saturday night in Fort Walton Beach, Fla. He was 75.

- WVON listeners discussed the grand jury indictment of Dylann Roof, the confessed gunman who killed nine people during a Bible study at a historic black church in Charleston, South Carolina on 33 federal counts including hate crime charges, announced by Attorney General Loretta Lynch.

news/community: WVON and listeners discussed Dyett High School hunger strike, twelve people continue their call for the Chicago Public Schools system to adopt a long-proposed community plan to turn Dyett into a "global leadership and green technology" high school.

WVON discussed how Governor Bruce Rauner's administration ousted the head of Illinois' child care program less than a week after the veteran administrator said publicly that the new governor's cuts to child care assistance would be "devastating" to working families and hurt the economy.

news/politics: WVON discussed Presidential candidate Donald Trump incident at a press event in Iowa in which he had a Univision journalist, Jorge Ramos escorted out of the room after the anchor, who was not called on to speak, asked Trump questions about his immigration policies.

WVON discussed how Mayor Rahm Emanuel was jeered and booed at Kennedy King College in hopes of getting their concerns heard and addressed at the first of two public town hall meetings on the city's budget.

WVON
Chicago, IL
Quarterly Issues/Programs List
September 2014

WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Clayton Pryor, Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- news: WVON discussed the latest news surrounding the sexual assault case against Blackhawks star Patrick Kane. The attorney for the woman who accused the Blackhawks star of sexual assault abruptly quit the case, and sources stated a key witness appears to be reluctant to testify.

WVON and listeners remembered the September 11, the attacks were a series of four coordinated terrorist attacks by the Islamic terrorist group al-Qaeda on the United States on the morning of Tuesday, September 11, 2001. The attacks consisted of suicide attacks used to target symbolic U.S. landmarks.

- news/community: WVON and listeners came out on Spartan Day to raise funds for Hales Franciscan High School. WVON joined Hales Franciscan High School on Friday September 25, 2015 for "Spartan Day", an all-day telethon and fundraiser in honor of Hales Franciscan High School. Hales Franciscan is the only all-male, Catholic, independent high school in Chicago dedicated to educating African-American boys.

WVON and listener's celebrated the 18th annual Chicago Football Classic that showcased football teams and marching bands from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

Matt McGill discussed the 13-year old who posted videos of himself online criticizing President Obama and the Black Lives Matter movement. Listeners discussed if his parents should take more control of what he is posting online or is he simply exercising his freedom of speech.

- news/politics: WVON discussed the arrival of the Pope in the USA. WVON and listeners discussed the Pope address to Congress that entailed many social issues including abortion and climate change.

Matt McGill talked to Attorney Kim Foxx about why she is running against Anita Alvarez to be the next Cook County State's Attorney.

WVON discussed President Barack Obama speech before the United Nations General Assembly. President Barack Obama cited the racial strife in Ferguson, Missouri, as an example of the state of America. President Obama gave the much-anticipated address on global leadership, where he laid out his justification for the United States targeting terrorists in Syria and Iraq.
