

WVON
Chicago, IL
Quarterly Issues/Programs List
MAY 2018

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

News: WVON spoke with Emily Hoerner and Jeanne Kuang from Injustice Watch about more than 160 prisoners are serving sentences that will likely leave them to die in prison for crimes they committed as juveniles. Even though The U.S. Supreme Court ruled six years ago that sentencing schemes that require life sentences with no hope of parole for crimes committed by juveniles violate the U.S. Constitution.

Chat Daddy welcomed Optometrist Dr. Ansel T. Johnson of Vision Salon Eye Care Associates as health awareness is May. Dr. Ansell talked about evidence based nonprescription products that are good for the eyes.

WVON celebrated Black History Month with special about prominent black leaders.

WVON talked with Cook County Clerk of the Circuit Court Dorothy Brown about the upcoming full-service, Adult and Juvenile Expungement Summit.

Cliff Kelley spoke to Shari Runner, President and CEO of The Chicago Urban League, about The National Urban League's 2018 State of Black America report.

News/community: WVON discussed financial planning and community building with Daniel Ash, Chief Marketing Officer for, The Chicago Community Trust.

Chat Daddy acknowledged May's Health Awareness Month by speaking to HIV Training Specialist Gena Lamar about STI's and Super Gonorrhea.

WVON spoke to Eric Smith, Regional President at Fifth Third Bank about investing in the black community.

Racial profiling is a big problem and WVON is proving it through a digital social movement called "What's Your Story?". WVON and listeners spotlighted racial injustice using this series.

Midway Broadcasting sent prayers and sincerest condolences to the family, friends and loved ones of Food Network, Chef Judson Allen.

news/politics: Cliff Kelley talked with Jonathan Jackson about the state of young black education.

WVON discussed Childish Gambino's new music video This is America and the racial messages it contained about the black experience in America.

WVON spoke about President Donald Trump's approval of race summit with Colin Kaepernick.

Perri Small was joined by Rev. Edward Pinkney to discuss his overturned conviction from 2014 charges. Pinkney was accused of changing the dates on some signatures and allowing six people to sign the petition twice.

Cliff Kelley talked with 34th Ward Alderman Carrie Austin about the life and legacy of Alderman Wilson Frost.

Sydney Roberts, Chief Administrator of The Civilian Office of Police Accountability (COPA), joined WVON to discuss community and police relations.

WVON and listeners talked with Professor Dick Simpson, former 44th Ward Alderman and Professor of Political Science at the University of Illinois at Chicago, about the growing field of mayoral candidates.

Cliff Kelley spoke with Lori Lightfoot about her decision to run for Mayor of Chicago.
