WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- education: Dorothy Tucker's Customer Service weekly segment included topics on the Affordable Healthcare Act, Black Friday phenomenon and increasing utility bills.
- employment: Clayton Pryor, Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- news: WVON and listeners discussed the government shutdown and the Affordable Care Act/Obamacare.

Miriam Carey, 34, a dental hygienist from Stamford, Conn. was fatally shot by police near the U.S. Capitol, after a chase through the heart of Washington.

WVON discussed the latest on the Kendrick Johnson case. The teen athlete was found wrapped in a gym mat in Valdosta, Georgia in January.

- news/politics: Bill McGraw, Founder of Deadline Detroit, joined WVON to talk about former Detroit Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick's 28 year federal prison sentence for corruption.

Former Alaska governor and 2008 Republican vice-presidential nominee, Sarah Palin, and Senator Ted Cruz's government shutdown protest at the war memorial in Washington D.C.

President Barack Obama addressed the glitches with The Affordable Care Act.

- news/pop: WVON and listeners weigh in on rapper Kanye West and Kim Kardashian engagement.

WVON personalities held several discussions about the upcoming reality docu-series "Preachers of L.A."

about the latest update with the Rekia Boyd police-involved shooting from March 2012. Chicago police detective Dante Servin was charged yesterday in the off-duty fatal shooting of Boyd on the West Side. As he tried to shoot at a person who was with her, one of the bullets struck Boyd in the head as she tried to flee. Servin said the person he was shooting at pointed what looked like a gun in his direction. No firearm

Perri and educator Dorothea Rogers discussed whether or not schools have received a bad rap? And, if parents have not been made to carry their weight when it comes to failing schools and test scores. Is it the sole responsibility of the teachers/administration 9:35-9:47 or should the parents bear the brunt?

Category: Education

Before the segment started, Perri gave two updates on news stories previously covered: The New Mexico police officer who shot into a van full of children was fired and Kendrick Johnson's family and supporters will rally at the Georgia State Capitol tomorrow to ask the governor for an independent inquest.
