WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- employment: Kimberly Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

- News:

Midway Broadcasting extended its heartfelt condolences to Mavis Staples and the Staples family on the passing of Yvonne Staples.

Cliff Kelley talks with Joy Bivins, Director of Curatorial Affairs at the Chicago History Museum, about their new exhibit titled Amplified.

WVON held a discussion with Shari Runner, President and CEO of The Chicago Urban League, about the community meeting that was held concerning Chicago Police Department Superintendent Eddie Johnson and his ruling concerning Police Officer Robert Rialmo.

Perri Small discussed the Water Tower Place incident of black teens were kicked out of mall. Perri was also joined by Mary Mitchell, Leslie Baldacci aka Zebra Sister and Dr. Carla.

news/community:

Cliff Kelley talked with Khadine Bennett, Associate Legislative Director with the ACLU of Illinois, and Illinois State Representative Christian Mitchell about SB 3415. SB 3415 supports the continuation of traffic and pedestrian data collection.

Perri Small talked about the second film in the WVON Heritage Film Series, this year Maya Angelou: And Still I Rise as we examine the life and legacy of Dr. Maya Angelou!

Chat Daddy welcomed Author Arcia Tatum for a discussion about her book titled "The Problem with Jesus!" Tatum's book takes a look at some of the issues that people have with Jesus and his followers.

Perri Small spoke to Chicago Tribune writer, Nereida Moreno to discuss a real life Poltergeist scene for CPS new school.

Cliff Kelley talked with Fount Hankie, Registered Nurse with the Illinois Department of Veterans Affairs in Mentone, IL, and Jeri Bingham, Vice-President of Marketing and Enrollment Management at Resurrection University, about the Men in Nursing panel.

Chat Daddy spoke to Award-winning Speaker, Author and Business Woman Erika Gilchrist, the creator of the Women Thriving Fearlessly Expo to discuss how she overcame everything from sexual molestation and several abusive relationships to become a thriving business woman.

Chat Daddy spoke to Jarrett J. Robinson, Author of Chicago City Blues Volume 1, the first hand stories of African-American families that migrated from the Deep South to the big city from 1954-1973.

WVON discussed The Brave Team which is on a mission to empower young women to view themselves as purposeful, powerful agents of change in the world. As technology becomes a growing industry and a leading topic of discussion, we have developed a program that integrates social impact projects, design thinking strategy and web development through coding.

Chicago Police Board President Lori Lightfoot joined Cliff Kelley for a discussion about the process involving the randomly chosen Police Board member who will decide if Officer Robert Rialmo will face potential firing over his involvement in a fatal shooting that took the lives of two people.

WVON talked with Sheila Morgan, President and CEO at the Chicago Minority Supplier Development Council, about the 51st Annual Chicago Business Opportunity Fair.

WVON presented The WVON Urban Heritage Film Series at the Harold Washington Cultural Center with the unbelievable story of Kalief Browder. At 16, Browder was accused of stealing a backpack which led to him spending 400 days in solitary confinement in one of the most notorious jails in the country, Rikers Island.
