WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

NEWS:

WVON talked about how at the age of 7, Rudolph Ingram Jr. also known as “Blaze the Great” has already broken several records and has become the fastest boy in the country, showing early signs of possibly becoming the next Usain Bolt.

WVON and listeners celebrated the U.S. Postal Service hosted a ceremony to commemorate the launch of the Gwen Ifill Forever Stamp. USPS announced the commemorative stamp to honor the trailblazing journalist. Ifill passed away in 2016 at the age of 61 and was known for her political commentary, on air correspondence, and becoming one of the first Black women to anchor a major news program. Ifill’s Forever Stamp is the 43rd stamp in the USPS Black Heritage collection, a collection that honors Black Americans who have made significant contributions to the culture and include other cultural figures like Ida B. Wells and Sojourner Truth.

WVON discussed the Chicago Police Department announcement stating the murder rate in the city of Chicago declined 13 percent in 2019 from the prior year. Interim Police Superintendent Charlie Beck said the number of murders decreased from 567 in 2018 to 492 in 2019, giving the city its lowest homicide rates since 2015.

Maze Jackson spoke to Michael Cristal, International President of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc about the community youth projects Phi Beta is offering.

Todd Stroger from the morning show spoke to Dr. Umar Johnson about the war on black masculinity.

NEWS/COMMUNITY:

WVON spoke to Bela Gandhi , founder of the Smart Dating Academy. Her uncanny sixth sense about people, what they need, and intuition has been responsible for several marriages and many long-lasting relationships.

WVON spoke to Dr. Janet Seabrook, family medicine practitioner and CEO of Community Health Net discussed healthy cervix habits, pertinent screening information and signs/symptoms of cervix abnormality.

Art Simms welcomed Don Goewey, Executive Director of the DeMello Center. Don Goewey, who has appeared on The Today Show and Dr. Oz. He to discuss the impact of stress on health while sharing ways to simplify your life.

WVON and listeners discussed how to bring the annual Kwanzaa Crawl helped generate $250,000 for black businesses in Brooklyn and Harlem in New York City to Chicago. Kwanzaa, the week-long holiday celebrating black culture, heritage, and family, is the theme for the yearly bar crawl that takes place in New York City in the neighborhood of Harlem and the borough of Brooklyn. New York's fourth annual Kwanzaa Crawl kicked off with a ceremony recognizing the holiday's seven core principles of African heritage that include unity, self-determination, and purpose.

WVON discussed Senator Amy Klobuchar return of a presidential campaign donation from Linda Fairstein, the controversial former Manhattan sex crimes prosecutor who led the botched and racially charged Central Park 5 case. The Democratic candidate for the White House, rising in recent polls thanks to strong debate performances, says she is returning Fairstein's $1,000 donation.

POLITICS:

WVON and listeners discussed the legalization of marijuana and how the Lieutenant Governor Juliana Stratton was filmed buying an edible.

WVON discussed how minimum wage earners state-wide will see $1 per hour increase as of January 1. Illinois' minimum wage will gradually reach to $15 by January 2025.

WVON and listeners discussed how U.S. Rep. Lauren Underwood touted two of her bills that were signed into law by President Donald Trump. Underwood's bipartisan legislation, the Lower Insulin Costs Now Act, will reduce the cost of insulin by helping lower-cost, generic insulin become available sooner, according to a news release. She also secured $30 million to fund an interoperable electronic health record for use across the Department of Homeland Security.

WVON discussed the newest state laws requiring a temporary polling location to be added to the Cook County jail come election time and for other counties in Illinois to enact vote-by-mail options for incarcerated people who have not been convicted.

Maze Jackson spoke to Cook County President Toni Preckwinkle about the state of the black community in Cook County and about the importance of the U.S. Census count in order to receive the most federal funds for Cook County.
