WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.

NEWS:

Art Chat Daddy Simms welcomed Psychotherapist Melanie Hall of Insights therapeutic services and discussed what is social media anxiety disorder and is there a correlation between social media and an increase in mental health care needs.

Perri Small spoke to Attorney Cannon Lambert representing the Naperville Family who were kicked out Buffalo Wild Wings. The family was asked to move because a white patron did not want to sit next to black people.

WVON and listeners welcomed Ahmed Flex Omar is co-founder and Deputy Director of Muslim American Leadership Alliance (MALA), a civic and community organization committed to promoting individual freedom and diversity, and to celebrating Muslim American heritage. Omar spoke on how MALA's programs are benefiting Muslim Americans and non-Muslim Americans alike in Chicago, New York City and nationwide.

NEWS/COMMUNITY:

Cliff Kelley spoke to Mrs. Daine Latiker, founder of Kids Off the Block Inc., and discussed works to emphasize self- Development that would lead to change.

The Morning Show talked about the former McDonald's CEO Stephen Easterbrook exit package of almost $42 million after his relationship with an employee was found to violate company policy. The size of his compensation puts a new focus on the widening gap between the pay at the top and the bottom of the corporate ladder as discussed by listener.

Art Chat Daddy Simms welcomed Chef Alejandro Flenori of Alejandro's Vegan Experience and the organizer of the 1st annual South Suburban Vegan Festival. Alejandro shared his personal journey of how he lost over 90 pounds by becoming a vegetarian, and how everyone can start to eat better.

WVON and listeners discussed in honor of November being National Gratitude Month welcomed guest co-host David A Gethers, Founder & CEO of David A. Gethers Speaks LLC and Co Founder and Vice President For Community Partnership and Engagement Of The 2Gethers Foundation. David will delivered a very poignant message on the power of how having gratitude in your life, no matter what obstacles you are facing in life.
