WVON
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVON provides its listeners with programming and public announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Employment: Kimberly Dir. Of Workforce Development, of the Chicago Urban League weekly segment informs listeners about employment opportunities.
- News:

Perri Small spoke with Jenny LeFlore, founder of Mama Fresh Chicago, about the challenges women of color face when breastfeeding.

Perri Small spoke with Ade Adamson, certified dermatologist, about the dangers of skin cancer for melanated individuals.

Chat Daddy also welcomed to Neighborhood Housing Services and discusses the importance of homeownership.

WVON spoke with Corton Colfield, owner and financial planner at Colfield Advisors about wealth.

Perri Small spoke to Tamar Mannasch, founder of Men Against Senseless Killings, about the solution to Chicago's violence.

WVON and listeners talked to Chicago Tribune reporter, Joe Mahr, about deteriorating buildings in Chicago.

News/Community:

Art Chat Daddy spoke to co-directors of the film "Singleville," Melcisha J. Edwards and Mary McCallum. "Singleville" chronicles three feisty ladies telling stories of their dating dilemmas.

Wvon welcomed to the show relationship expert and author Xavia Fox to talk about her new book "The Men In My Life and What I've Learned." Xavia shared her firsthand account of the importance of the roles men play in every woman's life.

Perri Small spoke with Benjamin Onyango, star of the new movie Beautifully Broken about acting.

Chat Daddy and Crew welcomed to the show Alicia Banton, Director of Community Affairs for Illinois Institute of Technology, and talked about free family fun days to stimulate an interest in families to think about careers in STEM.

WVON and listeners celebrated the life and times of National Treasure, Icon and Music Legend Aretha Franklin, she was 76. President and CEO of Midway Broadcasting Melody Spann-Cooper discussed The Queen of Soul Aretha Franklin getting that title from her father Purvis Spann.

WVON talked to Kevin Frazier, Co-host of Entertainment Tonight, discussed the legacy of Aretha Franklin.

Chat Daddy and Crew welcomed to the show filmmaker Sharon Tomlinson, creator of the film "Misguided Behavior." Sharon's film takes an eye-opening look at the various forms of bullying that many teens face in today's society.

News/Politics: Maze Jackson spoke to Omarosa about her leaving the white house and her new book.

Congresswoman Robin Kelly spoke to The WVON Morning Show to discuss how women can secure the bag.
