Tonita Cheatham,

DMC

Huron-Clinton Metroparks

- Our guests for the April 16 Radio interview will be Erin Parker, Eastern District Interpretive Services Supervisor, and Steve Sebert, Park Operations Manager at Stony Creek Metropark.

Talking Points:

- Earth Day is April 22 – In celebration, Your Metroparks are holding Earth Day Cleanups at Lake Erie, Lake St. Clair and Stony Creek Metroparks on Saturday April 23.
 - Earth Day is a time to reflect on your impact on the planet and work towards more sustainable practices and efforts that support a healthy environment for all of us. We need volunteers to help us keep our parks beautiful and safe for people visiting and for the wildlife that live here.
 - How to sign up to volunteer: Visit www.metroparks.com/events, this will take you to our events calendar where you can find all 3 Cleanups. Select the Cleanup you'd like to volunteer at and then complete the short registration process.
 - Volunteer perks: The benefit/satisfaction of knowing you helped create a healthy environment for everyone to enjoy at your Metroparks. Limited number of commemorative volunteer patches are available.
 - Lake Erie Shoreline Cleanup – 10 a.m. – Noon
 - In celebration of Earth Day, help keep Lake Erie Metropark clean by joining us as we clean along the picnic areas and shoreline of the park. You or your group will be assigned an area to help clean. We will join back up at the Food Bar around noon for lunch consisting of hot dogs, chips and a drink. Individuals, families and groups welcome. You will receive free park entry as a volunteer.
 - Earth Day Cleanup at Lake St. Clair Metropark – 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.
 - Fishing line, litter and plastic can be dangerous to animals and unsightly to look at. We need your help to keep Lake St. Clair Metropark beautiful and safe for people visiting and for the wildlife that live here. Meet at the Activity Center to pick up your tools, safety equipment and area assignments. Groups must register as a group so we can place you in the proper work zones. Snacks and waters will be provided.

- Earth Day Cleanup at Stony Creek Metropark – 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.
 - Litter and plastic can be dangerous to animals and unsightly to look at in the parks. We need your help to keep Stony Creek Metropark beautiful and safe for people visiting and for the wildlife that live here. Check in at the Park Office to pick up your tools (trash bags and gloves), and directions/map to your assigned cleanup area. Groups must register as a group so we can place you in the proper work zones. Registered volunteers will also get into the park for free that day
- Other ways you can celebrate Earth Day in the Metroparks:
 - Visiting another park? Clean up any trash you see along the trails
 - Bring a reusable water bottle with you to the park
 - Unplug (save money & energy) – spend this time in the parks: biking, hiking, walking, running, etc.
 - Find a moment to be awed by nature
