Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration	Title of Program	Narrative Description
33.1	Children/Youth	11:15PM	10/5/2021	145 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	KEEPING KIDS SAFE MENTAL HEALTH: Recently, a report from the Wall Street Journal suggested Facebook knows the damage Instagram does to teens’ mental health — especially girls. Akron Children’s Hospital expert Jessica Castonguay talked about how social media affects body image and signs parents should be looking for.
33.1	Economy	6:00AM	10/7/2021	115 seconds	33 News Daybreak	FOOD PRICES: Everyone is paying more for everyday items, and people’s paychecks are struggling to keep up. Grocery stores are struggling, too. Many items are not even on the shelves. Like many grocery stores across the country, local stores are seeing increases in prices. The biggest reason is supply chain and manufacturing issues. It’s happening with many items across the country.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00PM	10/7/2021	120 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	POLICE TRAINING: Police in western Ohio and Michigan continue investigating the shooting of three police officers over the last 24 hours. Two of the incidents involved traffic stops, one of those where a suspect reportedly grabbed a State Trooper's pistol. The shooting incidents come as Youngstown police officers are spending the week training for their annual qualifications. Det. Sgt. Elberty, who oversees the training this week as well as commanding the Valley's SWAT teams, said training tactics have improved over the years, utilizing new tools police have available.
33.1	Community	11:00PM	10/16/2021	115 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS HELP: The local Salvation Army started taking applications for Christmas help. We explained how people can sign up for assistance.
33.1	Children/Youth	11:15PM	10/25/2021	60 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	KEEPING KIDS SAFE ON HALLOWEEN: Most people love a good scare on Halloween, but not when it comes to the safety of our little trick-or-treaters. 33 News showed some things parents and kids could do to stay safe this week.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Economy	6:00PM	11/2/2021	60 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	HOME FORECLOSURES: Home foreclosures rose nationally. We looked at what is happening locally and if it may have an impact on the recent rise in home prices.
33.1	Economy	6:15PM	11/4/2021	110 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	AVIATION TECHNICIANS: Companies across the county, from major airlines to those that handle charter flights, are looking for aviation maintenance technicians. There's a shortage of these mechanics. The Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics is trying to recruit people to train for those positions.
33.1	Education	6:15PM	11/8/2021	120 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	FINANCIAL EDUCATION: Late last week, Ohio Governor Mike DeWine approved Senate Bill 1. It will require schools to teach financial literacy to graduate high school. The word finance probably brings banking to mind — but whatever students end up doing when they get older, they'll have to deal with money. In some of the local schools, they have already been teaching students how to manage money.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Education	6:00PM	11/10/2021	110 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	YSU PROGRAM CUTS: Youngstown State University is cutting programs. Leaders spoke about what programs were being cut and why they believe it is needed. The plan has drawn criticism from university faculty.
33.1	Community	6:15PM	11/11/2021	60 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	SALVATION ARMY RED KETTLE: This year, the Salvation Army is providing toys for 1,400 to 1,500 kids here in the Mahoning Valley, and Thursday is the Red Kettle Kickoff. 33 News looked at the campaign, the need for help, and showed viewers where to donate.
33.1	Economy	6:00PM	11/12/2021	130 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	ENERGY COSTS: It's been costing quite a bit more to fill up the gas tank lately, and it could cost a lot more to stay warm this winter. We looked at the numbers and spoke to one group about why they think the prices are rising.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Children/Youth	11:15PM	11/15/2021	60 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	KEEPING KIDS SAFE RICH CENTER FOR AUTISM: Students at the Rich Center for Autism are getting some new classmates — in the form of robots. The robots will not only support student development, but will allow high-level research to be conducted, supporting the center’s mission of defining and implementing best practices in the education of children with autism. A grant from The Youngstown Foundation funded the robots.
33.1	Education	7:00PM	11/16/2021	60 seconds	33 News at 7:00PM	THIEL COLLEGE ENROLLMENT: Thiel College is bucking the trend when it comes to enrollment for school. While many universities and colleges are seeing declining enrollment, Thiel is getting more students. The Greenville school had 758 students in the fall of 2020. This year it has 829. The university credits new programs, scholarship aid to students and a learning environment that helps students as the reasons for their success.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Economy	5:00AM	11/18/2021	105 seconds	33 News Daybreak	INFLATION AND FOOD PANTRIES: It's the busiest time of year for places that supply food for those in need. Now places like the Warren Family Mission are dealing with some extra challenges, like rising costs and supply shortages. The Mission says they're being impacted by the rise in prices. It's not just impacting them in one area either, it's across the board.
33.1	Children/Youth	11:15PM	11/22/2021	60 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	KEEPING KIDS SAFE HELPING HANDS: 33 News highlighted a program at Akron Children's Hospital that helps solve staffing shortages. More than 700 employees within the hospital system volunteer to take on other duties when they are short staffed. It has helped both their co-workers and patients.
33.1	Community	6:15PM	11/30/2021	110 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	GIVING TUESDAY: The Tuesday after Thanksgiving is Giving Tuesday. After people shop on Black Friday and Cyber Monday, Giving Tuesday's goal is to unleash radical generosity around the world. Recent inflation has caused multiple issues with money. Rising prices of different amenities have adjusted budgets for many. However, that hasn't stopped people from being generous. The Mercy Health Foundation hasn't seen a drop in donations with the pandemic.
