Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration	Title of Program	Narrative Description
33.1	Community	11:00PM	1/4/2023	115 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	HOMETOWN HERO MIKE KERMEC: Musicians are a tight-knit group, and this Girard man is proof. He's not only a guitar hero — he's also this week's Hometown Hero. Mike Kermec loves music and jamming with his band. Kermec came up with the idea of performing and raising money for local charities. He called it Mike Nights and recruited some friends.
33.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00PM	1/6/2023	100 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	DOUBLE HOMICIDE ON INTERSTATE: Two people are dead after a car they were in was riddled with bullets at about 11 p.m. on Interstate 680 North. A 19-year-old female passenger died on her way to the hospital while the 19-year-old male driver was dead at the scene.
33.1	Children/Youth	6:30AM	1/9/2023	120 seconds	33 News Daybreak	POSITIVE PARENTING – KIDS AND MENTAL HEALTH: 33 News spoke with the leader of a local behavior health organization about how to help kids with their mental health.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Education	7:00PM	1/19/2023	150 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	POLAND SCHOOL PLAN: After dozens of information sessions on potential ideas, Poland school administrators have settled on one option for the future of the district. The district wants to build three new buildings to replace the current schools.
33.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00PM	1/20/2023	95 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	ARSON AND HOMICIDE: Police are treating the investigation into the death of a teenager in the Warren arson Thursday morning as a homicide. Detectives are actively working on 16-year-old Chassidy Broadstone’s case. They say they believe more than one person was involved in the fire on Nevada Avenue that took Broadstone’s life and sent her two older sisters to different hospitals.
33.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:00PM	1/21/2023	160 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	SUSPECT FOUND IN CHILD MURDER CASE: 33 News has confirmed that U.S. Marshals have found and arrested a suspect in Rowan Sweeney’s murder Saturday morning after a year’s search. Andre McCoy, 22, has been wanted since March 25, 2021, when he was indicted on charges of aggravated murder, attempted murder, felonious assault, and aggravated burglary, all with firearms specifications. He is also wanted on a tampering with evidence charge.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00PM	1/24/2023	200 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	COLD CASE BREAK: Boardman Township police announced Tuesday they believe they know who is responsible for the 1972 murder of a 12-year-old boy. In a press conference, Chief Todd Werth said they believe Joseph Norman Hill, a former township resident who died in 2019 in California, is responsible for the April 1972 strangulation death of 12-year-old Brad Lee Bellino.
33.1	Community	11:00PM	1/25/2023	115 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	HOMETOWN HERO - SABRIA HUNTER: This week's Hometown Hero takes us to West Point, New York. That's where we find senior Sabria Hunter, a Valley native and quite the athlete. Sabria Hunter is a 2019 graduate of Austintown Fitch High School. Soon she will graduate from West Point Military Academy before serving our country for at least five years.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Education	11:00PM	1/27/2023	60seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	BOARDMAN SCHOOLS MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM: On a day with no school in Boardman, there was an important meeting. It explained a program that has helped middle school children with mental health issues and had some other districts there to learn about it. A pilot program in Boardman has had remarkable success, helped seventeen students, and had no recidivism.
33.1	Children/Youth	11:00PM	1/30/2022	140 seconds	33 News 11:00PM	POSITIVE PARENTING – CHILD FINANCES: Even though money is tight for everyone right now, some parents and grandparents are trying to make sure the young ones in the family have some money when they grow up or a place to store that birthday money. In most cases, accounts are set up for children who can't work. So, a parent needs to establish custodial ownership and then decide what kind of account they want.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Children/Youth	11:00PM	2/6/2022	120 seconds	33 News 11:00PM	POSITIVE PARENTING COLLEGE REJECTION AND ACCEPTANCE:          For parents who currently have kids waiting to hear about college acceptances, this transition period in their life can be both exciting and stressful. 33 News talked to a counselor about how to talk to kids about both acceptance and rejection on applying to college.
33.1	Education	6:00PM	2/13/2023	115 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	EAST PALESTINE SCHOOLS REOPEN: Students in East Palestine returned to school on Monday, and school officials say additional support is available for the kids. It's one of the first few steps for East Palestine residents to begin returning to some kind of normalcy. "The district is providing counseling resources at all three schools. It's available for students who may want to talk to someone. Teachers and staff have been preparing through professional development training focused on trauma and its impact on students," said Superintendent Chris Neifer.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Community	11:00PM	2/15/2023	110 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	HOMETOWN HERO - DANELLA MONSMAN: This week's Hometown Hero is the mother a girl who uses a wheelchair, and she's working tirelessly to help other families in the same position. It's not unusual for Danella Monsman's kitchen table to be covered with candy and Easter eggs. Dozens of baskets grace her space, all to help raise money for a wheelchair-accessible van for close friends.
33.1	Environment	6:00PM	2/17/2023	60 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	EAST PALESTINE CREEKS: For over a week, the smoke plume from the controlled burn in East Palestine has been the picture of the situation in the village. That's not going to change, ever. But a new picture has emerged, giving people a sense of the situation. On Friday, one of our reporters put on some boots and went into the water to show you. Reporter Dave Sess grabbed a stick off the bank of Leslie Run and stirred around the rocks. It only takes a few seconds, but moving those rocks releases something, which creates a world of color.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Environment	6:00PM	2/22/2023	105 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	WILDLIFE RESEARCH:  Environmental consequences have been a major concern in East Palestine. They've prompted a college student to do his own research in local streams. Sam Hall is a sophomore at West Virginia University. He studies wildlife and fish resource management and grew up about twenty miles outside East Palestine. After conflicting reports about wildlife in the area, Hall and his friends investigated Leslie Run and Bull Creek.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

33.1	Environment	6:00PM	3/1/2023	125 seconds	33 News at 6:00PM	EAST PALESTINE WATER UPDATE: Those involved in the effort to clean up creeks and other waterways in and around East Palestine say their work will continue, potentially for decades to come. Gov. Mike DeWine got a first-hand look at the efforts underway along Leslie Run Creek in East Palestine Park on Wednesday morning. In addition to removing contamination from the water and the creek bed underneath, the village’s Water Treatment Director Scott Wolfe told him there are what are called “sentinel wells” that have been installed away from the immediate area to monitor for groundwater pollution.
33.1	Community	11:00PM	3/1/2023	105 seconds	33 News at 11:00PM	HOMETOWN HERO – RHONDA GALLAHER: After tragedy struck a family when their Girard home caught fire and displaced them, the community has been helping. That’s where we find this week’s Hometown Hero. Rhonda Gallagher is the pastor at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church. When the family’s home caught on fire this past weekend, she jumped into action to help them. The church has paid for the family to stay at a hotel, and Gallagher even opened her own house to them.
