=====
Issue: Child Welfare in NM

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Wake Up Call

Date: June 28 Time of day: 8:10 am Duration: 14:37

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): The annual Kids Count Data Book, produced by the Annie E. Casey Foundation, comes out today. The Data Book ranks the fifty states on more than a dozen indicators of child well-being, which includes measures like poverty rates, reading proficiency among fourth graders, and teen birth rates. Sadly, New Mexico ranks last among the states, even seeing a rise in child poverty since last year. Amber Wallin is Deputy Director of New Mexico Voices for Children, and she tells us more about the Kids Count Data Book and its implications for our state.

Issue: ESL Resources

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Wake Up Call

Date: June 26 Time of day: 8:12 am Duration: 6:43

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): Santa Fe Community College offers English as a second language classes year-round. And, KSFR's Tom Trowbridge recently got to know a bit more about the program, including its coordinator and some of its recent students.

Issue:

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Here And There

Date: June 25 Time of day: 5:07 pm Duration: 50 min

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): In the last weeks before NM's gubernatorial primaries, Politico Magazine broke what is called a "scandal" about the Democratic primary winner Rep. Michelle Lujan Grisham. Grisham's spokeswoman admits to "honest mistakes," but how big a deal is this? Are the faults in the state's Democratic star, or in the way the State does public business. Should public servants make private profits doing other public services? Trip Jennings of NM In Depth helps us sort that out.

Issue: fiscal improprieties at UNM

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Here And There

Date: June 20 Time of day: 5:07 pm Duration: 50 min

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): For 9 of the past 11 years, the University of New Mexico's Athletic Department overspent its budget by millions of dollars. And now it's revealed UNM is out of compliance with Title IX because women aren't getting an equal share of finding or participation in UNM athletics. What went wrong and how did the University's Presidents and Regents let it happen, and did the fact that a lot of university fund-raising has been kept secret from the public made problems worse? Investigative reported Daniel Libit of the website nmfishbowl.com has been first on this story, and give us an update.

Issue: water policy

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Wake Up Call

Date: June 19 Time of day: 8:08 am Duration: 13:12

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): The case of theft of New Mexico's water by ranchers in Texas for years now being exposed by State Land Commissioner Aubrey Dunn. A couple of weeks back, the Texas Tribune's Jay Root published a story detailing a key difference in ownership of land in the two states contributes to the divergent water policies. But Root's story's bottom line is simple: millions of gallons of New Mexico's water is being stolen, and it's also being sold back in New Mexico for fracking.KSFR's Tom Trowbridge spoke with Dunn on Monday:

=====

Issue: scams targeting veterans
WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Wake Up Call
Date: June15 Time of day: 8:09am Duration: 15 min
BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): According to a study commissioned by senior advocate organization AARP, in the last five years veterans have been twice as likely as non-veterans to become fraud victims. Eighty percent of these veterans say that they've been targeted by a specific scam to rip vets off. In response, AARP joined forces with the US Postal Service to create Operation Protect Veterans. AARP Foundation regional director Amy Nofziger spoke with KSF consumer reporter Mary Lou Cooper on veteran scams for this report.

Issue: school shootings and safety
WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Wake Up Call
Date: June 12 Time of day: 8:10 Duration: 5:54
BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): New Mexico's Attorney General Hector Balderas has contacted the state's Public Education Department with a request for a comprehensive plan for school safety procedures statewide. KSF's Ellen Lockyer spoke with the AG's office about a letter sent to PED, which points out the discrepancies in current regulations among the different school districts, while highlighting the lack of modern safety techniques in New Mexico schools.

Issue: fake news

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Wake Up Call

Date: June 6 Time of day: 8:15am Duration: 12:26

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): Fake News - thanks to social media, it's become more widespread than ever. Witness the fact that Collins Dictionary named Fake News the 2017 word of the year. KSFR reporter Mary Lou Cooper talks with a local expert to shine a light on Fake News—what is it and how do we recognize it?

Issue: public pensions, govt. transparency

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Here And There

Date: June 4 Time of day: 5:07pm Duration: 50 min

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): The pension fund for Colorado's state employees is running short of money. 2 reasons are consistent underfunding by the legislature and below average returns on pension fund investments. But investigative reporter David Sirota tells us, "reforming" the fund involves penalizing retirees and protecting lawmakers and money managers. Pensioners will see cost of living adjustments cut and contributions raised, while money managers get to keep their veil of secrecy from public evaluation of their work.

Issue: upcoming census

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT (Title): Wake Up Call

Date: June 1 Time of day: 8:09am Duration: 5:06

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM (Format, participants, content, etc.): The Trump administration's push to add to the 2020 census a question about citizenship status has prompted a controversy.. and now, a lawsuit. KSFR's Tom Trowbridge speaks with immigrant organizers in Santa Fe about the action.
