

2022 Q3 Issues/Programs List

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Government	Santa Fe Reopens Bicentennial Pool	Jul 7, 2022	7:46 AM	0:01:04	"After being closed and totally rebuilt the City of Santa Fe has reopened the historic Bicentennial Pool. The public is being asked to reserve a place at the pool online. The pool was opened 40 years ago and the overhaul is the first since it was built. The kiddie pool next to the large one includes painted mushrooms cascading water into the pool and other amenities. The pool had to be closed about a year ago because it was leaking water and was in need of major repairs..."
Government	New Santa Fe City Council Boundaries Finalized	Jul 7, 2022	8:09 AM	0:01:12	The Santa Fe Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission has approved new city council district maps for the next municipal election. The new maps must be drawn after each census to react to population changes. The last time the lines were redrawn was in 2015 after Santa Fe annexed a portion of the county.
Government	Lawmakers Consider Creating The Public Bank Of New Mexico	Jul 10, 2022	10:43 AM	0:01:52	State lawmakers are once again considering legislation to establish a Public Bank of New Mexico. The Investments and Pension Oversight Committee met last week at Roundhouse to hear about the proposal and other issues. A presentation from the Alliance for Local Economic Prosperity told legislators that the bank would increase growth by maximizing equity access to emerging businesses. The bank would help provide financing for small businesses and rural and tribal development needs.
Health	NMDOH reports the first probable case of monkeypox in New Mexico	Jul 11, 2022	1:38 PM	0:01:48	The New Mexico Department of Health (DOH) reported the state's first probable case of monkeypox in New Mexico on Monday. The patient returned from out-of-state travel and was likely exposed through contact. Initial testing was completed late Friday by the DOH Scientific Laboratory Division and confirmatory testing is being completed at Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).
Disability rights and access issues	Barrier Free Futures	Jul 11, 2022	5:36 PM	0:28:52	Bob kicks off Disability Pride Month and the 32nd anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act with a conversation about the limitations of guardianship/conservatorship with guests Dr. Ronald Bassman, Executive Director of MindFreedom International, and Misty Dion, CEO of Roads to Freedom for Independent Living of North Central Pennsylvania.
Health	988 Crisis Line Starts Saturday In New Mexico	Jul 12, 2022	7:12 AM	0:01:28	A new emergency line to help prevent people from committing suicide and in need of other help goes in effect in New Mexico on Saturday. The 988 emergency number will be more than a suicide hotline. It will be able to be used by loved ones who are worried about someone's safety. It will connect callers to a veterans crisis line or a local crisis center. Dr. Neal Bowen is Director of the New Mexico Behavioral Health Services Division. He presented the program to the Legislative Health and Human Services Committee on Monday.
Government	Santa Fe County Commission Asks Forest Service To Update Procedures	Jul 13, 2022	9:06 AM	0:01:00	The Santa Fe County Commission is urging the U.S. Forest Service to put a hold on all prescribed burns until it prepares a new Environmental Impact Statement. Commissioners want the USFS to take into account climate change and the economic impact of a fire on the county and city of Santa Fe. A resolution was introduced and passed Tuesday afternoon during the County Commission meeting. Commissioners Anna Hansen and Anna T. Hamilton introduced the resolution.
Government	Santa Fe Opens New Rain Garden	Jul 13, 2022	2:57 PM	0:01:03	The City of Santa Fe cut the ribbon on a new rain garden off East Alameda Road next to the El Camino Retirement Community.
Government	Santa Fe To Hold Virtual Meeting Thursday Night Regarding Midtown Redevelopment	Jul 14, 2022	12:01 PM	0:01:11	An Early Neighborhood Notification Meeting is being on Zoom at 5:30 Thursday night.
Government	Santa Fe Approves Drivers License Suspension Reform	Jul 14, 2022	12:43 PM	0:01:13	The Santa Fe Governing Body has approved a bill that would help prevent drivers from losing their license because they can't afford to pay a fine on time.
Government	Residents Ask About Affordable Housing Connected To Santa Fe Midtown Project	Jul 14, 2022	8:26 PM	0:01:17	Santa Fe officials held a Zoom meeting with residents to talk about preliminary plans for the Midtown Redevelopment Project.
Education	UNM grad union holds picket to highlight university's resistance to including a non-discriminatory article	Jul 14, 2022	3:10 PM	0:02:50	Members of the United Graduate Workers of UNM and community supporters held a picket Thursday morning to bring attention to the university's resistance to include non-discriminatory protections in the graduate workers' union contract
Criminal Justice	Las Cruces Sun-News' Justin Garcia discusses the direct verdict in the second-degree murder trial of former LCPD officer	Jul 15, 2022	12:40 PM	0:13:14	A second degree murder charge against former LCPD officer Christopher Smelser was dismissed Thursday

2022 Q3 Issues/Programs List

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Disability rights and access issues	Barrier Free Futures	Jul 16, 2022	2:00 PM	0:28:52	Dessa Cosma, Executive Director of Detroit Disability Power, discusses the challenges and triumphs of facing persons with disabilities exercising their voting power.
Government	New Gallery Opens Highlighting New Mexico's Land Grants and Acequias History	Jul 18, 2022	7:24 AM	0:01:12	The new Gallery Opened Friday at the Office of the New Mexico Attorney General.
Criminal Justice	Bernalillo County Sheriff's and Fire and Rescue hold joint press conference on helicopter crash	Jul 18, 2022	12:12 AM	0:02:14	Four first responders, including one who was a high ranking Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office official were killed Saturday night, after the helicopter they were in crashed in a remote area near Las Vegas.
Local Community Issues	Community Matters	Jul 20, 2022	3:34 PM	0:23:31	Guests Janna Lopez and Antonia Roybal-Mack discuss their volunteer efforts and local responses to assist communities during the recent wildfires in New Mexico, specifically San Miguel and Mora Counties.
Government	Governor announces $10 million investment in Albuquerque Rail Trail	Jul 20, 2022	10:05 PM	0:02:15	Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham was joined by Albuquerque Mayor Tim Keller and members of the Albuquerque City Council to announce the state's infrastructure investment in the plan to transform downtown Albuquerque's rail corridor
Environment	Source NM's Patrick Lohmann speaks on the Hermits Peak Fire aid act	Jul 21, 2022	1:39 PM	0:10:28	A bipartisan effort to get more money in the hands of victims of the Hermits Peak-Calf Canyon Fire is on its way to the United States Senate after clearing the House on Thursday, but it won't be considered again until at least September. Source NM's Patrick Lohmann, who's been covering this bill process sits down with KSFR to discuss his reporting.
Disability rights and access issues	Barrier Free Futures	Jul 23, 2022	2:00 PM	0:28:53	Guests Jan Nisbet (Founder, Institute on Disability; Associate Professor of Education and Founding Director of the Institute on Disability at the University of New Hampshire) and Nancy Weiss (Director of Disability Initiatives, College of Health Sciences, University of Delaware; Director, National Leadership Consortium on Developmental Disabilities at University of Delaware) discuss electroshock therapy and their book Pain and Shock in America: Politics, Advocacy, and the Controversial Treatment of People with Disabilities.
Criminal Justice	REPORT - Violent Crime Up in Albuquerque But Convictions Down	Jul 25, 2022	4:27 PM	0:01:25	A report presented to a legislative committee on Monday shows troubling violent crime numbers in ABQ.
Government	Keller announces the closure of Coronado Park	Jul 26, 2022	1:43 PM	0:02:41	A park in Albuquerque that has historically been used as a campsite for the unhoused is being shut down next month.
Criminal Justice	FBI to work with state, local and tribal partners to improve reporting on MMIR	Jul 26, 2022	12:02 AM	0:02:20	FBI works with partners to improve reporting of missing Indigenous persons in New Mexico and Navajo Nation
Government	Abeyta Named To Santa Fe School Board	Jul 27, 2022	11:02 AM	0:01:19	The Santa Fe School Board has appointed former City Councilor Roman "Tiger" Abeyta to fill the unexpired term of former board vice-president Rudy Garcia.
Government	Santa Fe Starts New Charter Review Commission	Jul 28, 2022	11:39 AM	0:01:24	The Charter Review Commission is established every ten years to recommend changes to the city charter.
Criminal Justice	APD touts successes in officer retention, recruitment, and DOJ settlement agreement	Jul 28, 2022	12:02 PM	0:03:19	Albuquerque Police Chief Harold Medina highlighted the recent successes the department has had in regards to their reform process in a press conference Wednesday
Disability rights and access issues	Barrier Free Futures	Jul 30, 2022	2:00 PM	0:28:54	Guest Alan Holdsworth, AKA Johnny Crescendo, poet, composer, performer, disability rights activist joins Bob to discuss inclusive education and his new project with Netflix.
Government	Governor announces public safety funding in Bernalillo and Albuquerque	Aug 2, 2022	10:41 AM	0:02:12	Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham paid a visit to both Bernalillo and Albuquerque Tuesday to announce $5.7 million dollars for a new public safety complex for Sandoval County and $800,000 in initial funding for the Law Enforcement Training Assistance Fund
Government	Santa Fe Celebrates National Night Out	Aug 3, 2022	8:41 AM	0:01:11	First responders and community groups joined with members of the public Tuesday night to commemorate the annual National Night Out.
Health	Monkeypox virus is "the new infectious disease on the block" according to the DOH	Aug 4, 2022	11:36 PM	0:03:17	While acting state Health Secretary Dr. David Scrase said that COVID-19 cases have plateaued in the state over the past few weeks, the emergence of monkeypox is a new point of emphasis for the department of health (DOH).
Criminal Justice	Fourth Muslim man killed in Albuquerque in the last nine months	Aug 6, 2022	4:53 PM	0:02:18	Investigators announced that they believed there was a strong possibility that these individuals were targeted because of their race and religion
Health	Governor and UNM officials break ground on new nursing and public health building	Aug 8, 2022	1:43 PM	0:02:11	Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham and UNM officials broke ground this morning on a new College of Nursing and Public Health Excellence Building
Criminal Justice	Police arrest suspect in recent murders of Muslim men	Aug 9, 2022	1:31 PM	0:02:44	The Albuquerque Police Department, along with FBI agents arrested 51-year-old Muhammad Syed late Monday night and now consider him to be the primary suspect in the recent murders of Muslim men in Albuquerque

2022 Q3 Issues/Programs List

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Education	Santa Fe Public Schools Open Childcare Center For Employees	Aug 11, 2022	9:54 AM	0:01:14	The Early Childhood Center will provide education and child care for SFPS educators while they are on the job.
Government	Hometown Heroes Banners Returning To Santa Fe	Aug 12, 2022	10:10 AM	0:01:23	A deal between the state, the city, and the light pole manufacturer will allow all 131 banners honoring local veteran to be raised.
Disability rights and access issues	Barrier Free Futures	Aug 13, 2022	2:00 PM	0:28:54	Bob interviews Colleen Starkloff on the topic of Universal Design. Colleen and her late husband Max Starkloff, co-founded two disability-focused nonprofit organizations: Paraquad and The Starkloff Disability Institute.
Government	Source NM's Shaun Griswold on Ronchetti rally and being denied entry to the event	Aug 15, 2022	1:37 AM	0:08:58	Source NM's Shaun Griswold went to Carlsbad over the weekend to cover gubernatorial candidate Mark Ronchetti first major rally leading up to the election in November that was headlined by Florida Governor Ron DeSantis. But Shaun was denied entry into the rally by private security, who identified him via a photograph. Shaun sits down with KSFR to discuss the rally, what voters and supporters told him they want, and how he handled being barred from the event.
Government	ABQ City Council approves funding for Planned Parenthood	Aug 16, 2022	9:34 AM	0:02:14	Councilor Tammy Fiebelkorn introduced an amendment to the bill that would allow the $250,000 in funding to remain in plan, and also dedicate $100,000 to both the Barrett Shelter and a community energy efficiency project in partnership with prosperity works
Government	Albuquerque City Council passes moratorium on safe outdoor spaces	Aug 16, 2022	12:44 PM	0:01:55	After months of debates and public outcry, the Albuquerque City Council approved a 12 month moratorium on safe outdoor spaces Monday night
Government	The City of Albuquerque officially closes Coronado Park	Aug 17, 2022	11:22 PM	0:02:29	Once home to the largest encampment of unhoused individuals in Albuquerque, the park was officially closed by the city Wednesday afternoon
Environment	Stansbury urges the Senate to pass water legislation amid on-going drought in the West	Aug 17, 2022	11:09 PM	0:02:18	Representative Melanie Stansbury and several water officials met on the banks of the Rio Grande Wednesday morning to celebrate the House passage of three of her water security legislations and urge the Senate to get them over the finish line.
Local Community Issues	Community Matters	Aug 18, 2022	11:47 AM	0:23:31	Sarah Amador-Guzman takes the helm as host of Community Matters. Today, she is with Sherry Hooper, Executive Director of The Food Depot, discussing the biggest challenges of food insecurity across northern New Mexico, how organizations are addressing them, and The Food Depot's recent win of a 2022 Piñon Award, which recognizes excellence in northern New Mexico's nonprofit sector.
Arts	Santa Fe Indian Market Marks 100th Anniversary	Aug 18, 2022	2:59 PM	0:01:24	The Santa Fe Indian Market is being held in and around the Plaza and Convention Center.
Criminal Justice	The Fentanyl Road: From China and Mexico to the streets of America	Aug 19, 2022	9:57 AM	0:09:20	All across America, an epidemic worse than COVID-19 is killing kids and younger adults. That killer is fentanyl. What exactly is fentanyl? Where does it come from? And how does it get to the streets of America? KSFR turned to international drug expert Mike Vigil to help answer these questions and more.
Education	Santa Fe Schools Praised By Biden Administration	Aug 26, 2022	8:41 AM	0:01:24	Santa Fe School Superintendent Hilario "Larry" Chavez participated in a nation press call with First Lady Dr. Jill Biden and U.S. Education Secretary Miguel Cardona
Health	New COVID Booster Shots Expected In The Coming Days	Aug 26, 2022	10:30 AM	0:08:59	KSFR's Mary Lou Cooper speaks with University of Colorado infectious disease expert Dr. Thomas Campbell.
Education	New Mexico Project Turns Students Into Filmmakers	Aug 29, 2022	4:12 PM	0:01:24	The Film Prize Jr. project was a great success last year and hopes to expand this year to more students.
Government	The City of Albuquerque unveils the B.R.A.I.N	Aug 30, 2022	1:30 PM	0:01:27	The City of Albuquerque got a little bit smarter Tuesday morning, with the unveiling of the city's new B.R.A.I.N, their new tool in fighting climate change
Government	Santa Fe Holds Town Hall To Discuss Homelessness	Aug 31, 2022	9:56 AM	0:01:17	They city of Santa Fe held a town hall meeting Tuesday night to talk about the issues and possible solutions to homelessness.
Government	Federal and Albuquerque City leaders announce funding for youth homeless shelter	Aug 31, 2022	11:13 PM	0:02:39	Representative Melanie Stansbury joined Albuquerque Mayor Tim Keller and Albuquerque City Councilors Brooke Bassan, Tammy Fiebelkorn and Renee Grout to announce initial funding and commitment to building a Youth Center for individuals ages 18-25 experiencing homelessness
Government	Election 2022: Voters don't like negative ads, but they work	Sep 2, 2022	1:35 AM	0:09:06	Do negative political ads work? Do they increase polarization or just reflect it? KSFR reporter Mary Lou Cooper discusses these questions with Professor Michael Franz, co-director of the Wesleyan Media project, one of the premier political ad tracking groups in the U.S. Leading us into the story is an ad for a Missouri primary candidate which is perhaps the most offensive attack ad of the 2022 election season.

2022 Q3 Issues/Programs List

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Education	NM Democrats respond to Mark Ronchetti's education plan	Sep 6, 2022	3:28 PM	0:02:15	The New Mexico Democratic Party held a press conference in Albuquerque this morning to respond to Republican gubernatorial candidate Mark Ronchetti education plan
Criminal Justice	Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office provides update on air support unit	Sep 7, 2022	2:25 PM	0:02:47	After last month's deadly helicopter crash that took the lives of four first responders, Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office leaders gathered Wednesday morning to discuss the future of Metro Air Support Unit
Environment	Officials celebrate funding for broadband and rural development infrastructure	Sep 7, 2022	11:00 PM	0:01:57	Federal, state, local and tribal leaders gathered in the village of Los Ranchos Wednesday evening to celebrate the $57 million in funding for broadband investments in the state through the ReConnect program and $34 million in grant funding from the USDA Rural Development
Government	Santa Fe Fire Department Commemorates 9/11 Anniversary	Sep 12, 2022	8:13 AM	0:01:27	Local political leaders and area residents joined First Responders to remember those lost on the 21st anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks.
Education	Educators to see reduction in administrative paperwork due to PED reporting overhaul	Sep 12, 2022	3:55 PM	0:02:05	Starting today, teachers and administrators across New Mexico will be able to spend more time with their students and less time filling out paperwork
Education	The City of Albuquerque and CNM partner on film curriculum at the Railyards	Sep 13, 2022	10:52 PM	0:02:10	Partnership provides a pathway to careers in the Albuquerque film industry
Government	USDA Announces 70 Grants For Climate-Smart Commodities	Sep 14, 2022	1:56 PM	0:01:10	U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Tom Vilsack announced a $2.8 billion investment in more climate-friendly production.
Education	US Mint, NM History Museum Honor Santa Fe's Nina Otero-Warren	Sep 16, 2022	2:35 PM	0:01:31	Nina Otero-Warren is the first New Mexican to be honored on US money as part of the American Women Series of quarters.
Arts & Culture	Albuquerque Balloon Museum launches "Canopy of Color" exhibit	Sep 19, 2022	2:31 PM	0:01:45	Starting this fall, ahead of the 50th International Balloon Fiesta, visitors to the Anderson Abruzzo Albuquerque International Balloon Museum will be able to experience the Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta year-around.
Education	New Childcare Facility Opens For New Mexico State Employees	Sep 19, 2022	3:55 PM	0:01:32	Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham cut the ribbon Monday on the first childcare center for New Mexico State employees. Sitting in a room in the Montoya Building on St. Francis Drive young children and their mothers sat on the floor in front of the Governor and others as they spoke about the importance of providing quality daycare to state employees.
Education	SFCC and IAIA To Hold Joint Open House On Wednesday	Sep 20, 2022	10:55 AM	0:08:58	On Wednesday, Santa Fe Community College and the Institute of American Indian Arts will be holding a dual open house for prospective students to both schools.
Education	New Mexico Grade School Population Dropping	Sep 21, 2022	9:12 AM	0:01:16	In a report presented Tuesday to the Public School Capital Outlay Oversight Task Force the state's population is getting older, so it's less likely to be producing offspring that would be attending New Mexico schools.
Government	NM Democrats condemn New Mexico GOP 'racist' mailer	Sep 22, 2022	4:35 PM	0:02:52	They said the ad, which was paid for the RPNM and sent out to at least nine house districts around that state, featured an image of a person with dark skin cutting the hair of a child that appears to be either white or fair-skinned
Government	State Health Officials Seek Medicaid Changes	Sep 22, 2022	2:14 PM	0:01:27	The New Mexico Human Services Department wants to make it easier for eligible to keep their children covered in Medicaid.
Education	Martinez-Yazzie Funding Ahead Of Targets, Results Still Lagging	Sep 26, 2022	10:43 AM	0:01:26	A report presented to New Mexico lawmakers on Friday shows over one billion dollars has been allocated for at-risk students since the 2018 court ruling.
Government	NM Legislative Council Looking At Changes To Anti-Harassment Policy	Sep 27, 2022	4:10 PM	0:01:16	Lawmakers were presented a draft resolution on Monday of proposed changes. They'll return to the proposal on Oct. 11.
Government	House Speaker Pelosi meets with New Mexicans impacted by wildfires	Sep 27, 2022	12:36 PM	0:02:10	New Mexicans impacted by the largest wildfire in the state's history had a change to speak with House Speaker Nancy Pelosi Monday about what they experienced
Arts & Culture	Albuquerque City officials celebrate new ramp to ease Balloon Fiesta traffic	Sep 27, 2022	12:19 AM	0:01:17	Visitors to this year's Balloon Fiesta will now have an easier time getting out of the park
Criminal Justice	The City of Albuquerque and APD open new downtown police station	Sep 28, 2022	12:43 AM	0:02:52	The Albuquerque Police Department and Mayor Tim Keller announced the official opening of the new Downtown Public Safety Center Tuesday afternoon. Located on 4th St. and Central Ave. This new station will allow officers to have a presence right in the heart of Albuquerque's downtown. The opening of this station is just one piece in a set of initiatives and investments to make safety improvements in this district.
Government	NM Counties Want Municipalities To Pay More For Detention Centers	Sep 29, 2022	2:34 PM	0:01:19	At a hearing in front of the Courts, Corrections, and Justice Committee lawmakers were told counties are bearing too much of the cost of running jails and its causing serious financial problems.

2022 Q3 Issues/Programs List

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Government	Ivey-Soto Steps Down As Rules Chair	Sep 29, 2022	2:16 PM	0:01:27	Sen. Daniel Ivey-Soto sent a letter to Senate Pro-Tem Mimi Stewart stepping down from his powerful Senate Rules Committee Chairmanship after Stewart asked him to do so in light of more sexual harassment claims against him.
Government	Over $26 million In EPA Funding Coming To New Mexico	Sep 30, 2022	9:29 AM	0:01:13	New Mexico is getting $26.7 million from the EPA for clean drinking water