07 09 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. Today's guest is Dr. Bob Schuchts from the John Paul II Healing Center. He talks about the link between physical and spiritual healing and how we can pursue healing through both traditional medicine and prayer.

07 16 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. Today's guest is Sr. Dede Byrne, MD. She talks about her work offering free medical care to underserved communities in DC and how her medical license was threatened when she refused to receive the COVID 19 vaccine against her conscience. The lawyer, who helped defend her conscience rights, Christopher Ferrara, joins the conversation to talk about his work in conscience rights and religious freedom litigation and the state of protections in the U.S. today.

07 23 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. The guest today is pediatric sports specialist Dr. Brooke Pengel. Dr. Pengel talks about kids and sports injuries, including the most common injuries, best practices for treatment and most important things parents and coaches can do to help keep kids safe.

08 06 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. The guest today is Neurologist Dr. Leah Acosta, who specializes in neurodegenerative disorders. She shares the latest research about dementia, how to recognize symptoms, ethical and effective treatments and bet chances for prevention. The first take away is prevention: live healthy, eat healthier, maintain a good weight, be active, make friend, and more. Second takeaway, every patient and situation are different. Third takeaway, it may be a clever idea to try medicine.

08 13 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. Today's show features ophthalmologist Dr. Cathy Schanzer, who offers eye surgeries to people in Sierra Leone. Dr. Schanzer shares about the common needs of those she serves in surrounding villages and countries, the types of surgeries she performs, and how services like hers are effective in places lacking ample resources. She emphasizes that the best medical missions have ongoing follow up care, encourages those with a heart to serve to follow that desire, and asks all to pray for medical missionaries.

08 20 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. Dr. Paul Cieslak joins the show to discuss monkeypox and polio, which have shown up in the news recently. He shares data from the monkeypox outbreak and about its method and rate of spreading, while opining about how public health officials should be responding. He urges people to practice chastity to prevent monkeypox, which means that most people are not at risk. Dr. Cieslak also talks about the challenge of sharing honest and helpful public health recommendations when other narratives take hold, which leads to the renewed risk of old viruses with declining vaccination rates. This can be seen in the spread of polio, and the risk of paralyzation for 1 in 200 infected. Dr. Cieslak closes by encouraging anyone who is behind in scheduled vaccinations to strongly consider getting vaccinated.

08 27 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. Psychiatrist Dr. Francie Broghammer joins the show to talk about postpartum mood disorder. The discussion focuses on the causes, signs, and symptoms, and how it can be helped through medication and support structures. Dr. Broghammer outlines key warning signs, including the condition lasting longer than two weeks or extreme thoughts. Another takeaway is that medication is sometimes necessary. With treating through therapy, it is important to realize that counseling does not need to be perfect to be helpful. Finally, Dr. Broghammer encourages creating a postpartum depression plan.

09 03 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. OBGYN Dr. Chris Stroud dispels the common misinformation about how abortion laws affect doctors' ability to treat pregnant women in the wake of the Dobbs decision. He shares the truth about how miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, and other pregnancy complications are treated, what the laws say, and why the misinformation is so dangerous for mothers and babies. One takeaway is that nothing has changed in the standards of care for treating pregnancy complications after the Dobbs decision and that every standard treatment for pregnancy complications is still legal, and anyone saying or acting otherwise is falling into a trap of misinformation. Another takeaway is that there is no medical condition that requires abortion as the standard of care treatment. Finally, it was noted that the work of the prolife movement is not done and is, in fact, more important than ever.

09 10 2022 at 1000 Doctor Doctor 60 minutes Doctor Doctor brings you engaging often humorous and sometimes serious discussions of practical and current medical topics with a focus on the dignity of the human person body and soul with hosts Dr. Tom McGovern, Dr. Chris Stroud, and Dr. Andrew Mullally. Physician's assistant and psychologist Liz Heyne talks about what research shows about infant mental health, how baby's brains and emotional development is impacted by their parents, and the best ways for parents to establish strong and lasting bonds with their children. One takeaway is that interventions can start early, even before the baby is born, to make sure moms and babies have good mental health outcomes. Another takeaway is that there is a difference between attention-seeking and connection seeking. Finally, it was noted that being an attentive close parent 30 percent of the time is enough to establish secure attachment and that we do not have to be perfect.

08 04 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. In the first segment, Al comments on a new survey that finds just 37 percent of Christian pastors in the U.S. profess a Biblical Worldview. Al talks about what it means to have a Biblical worldview and why it is essential for the Christian message. Next Al talks with Michelle Paine, a contemporary painter and art historian joins Al to talk about how she discovered Mary through art. Michelle was raised in a devout Christian home, and outside of the Christmas season she did not give Mary much thought. That began to change when she spent a year studying Art History in Italy, where Marian imagery was everywhere. She tells her story.

08 11 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. Kresta is joined by Fr. John Riccardo, a priest of the Archdiocese of Detroit and the Executive Director of ACTS XXIX. ACTS XXIX is an apostolate enthusiastic about unleashing the power of the Gospel to equip ordained and lay leaders to rebuild the Church. Fr. Riccardo and Kresta's conversation focuses the Rescue Project. Rescue is an effort to overcome the problem that many, even Christians, have never really heard the Gospel, which leads to many seeing the faith as a set of rules and disciplines rather than a joyful and radical encounter with Christ. The conversation will be ongoing in future weeks.
