

KKJM

Issues &

Programs

First

Quarter

2015

January 2, 2015

8AM

Morning Show

2:00

New Year's Resolutions

How to stick to your new year's resolutions.

January 8, 2015

7AM

Morning News

:60

Referendum Passes

Taxpayers in the Royalton School District have approved a $26.1 million dollar referendum for a new school and other upgrades.

January 15, 2015

6AM

Morning News

:60

Tech High School Levy Possible

The St. Cloud Area School Board is tossing around the idea of a levy for a new Tech High School.

January 19, 2015

12PM

Midday Show

:45

MLK Day

Today is Martin Luther King Jr. Day. What is open and closed today.

January 27, 2015

7AM

Morning News

1:00

MnSCU Funding

Governor Mark Dayton is discussing the possibility for more state funding to be funneled toward state colleges for upgrades and tuition freezes.

February 2, 2015

9AM

Morning News

:60

Aquatic and Community Center Plans Revealed

More is being learned about a new aquatic and community center planned for St. Cloud.

February 12, 2015

3PM

Afternoon Drive

:45

Polar Plunge

The Polar Plunge to help Special Olympics Minnesota is being held Saturday. You can still pledge and plunge.

February 20, 2015

6AM

Morning News

:45

Body Cam Privacy

Lawmakers voicing concerns over police body camera footage privacy.

February 25, 2015

9AM

Morning News

:60

Half Cent Sales Tax Plans

More amenities being allowed for St. Cloud metro area cities following half cent sales tax approval.

March 6, 2015

7AM

Morning News

:60

Business Development Approved for Sartell

The City of Sartell says a new business development plan will move ahead near the Medical Arts Campus.

March 9, 2015

12PM

Midday Show

:60

Local Skating Rinks to Close

The City of St. Cloud is closing all local skating rinks, including Lake George for the season.

March 20, 2015

10AM

Midday Show

:60

Pack the Porch

Catholic Charities is collecting food items and financial donations today as part of their pack the porch campaign.

March 27, 2015

9AM

Morning News

Post Office Closed

The Post Office in Foley is closed due to suspected asbestos contamination in some ceiling tiles.

March 30, 2015

11AM

Midday Show

:45

Post Office Reopens

The Foley Post Office has reopened and deemed safe.