

WVAH did not broadcast news from 1996 through March 1999.

WVAH aired PSAs, did station tours for area schools and youth groups such as girl and boy scouts and ran a daily community events calendar on air. These were done at various times throughout 1996, 1997, 1998 and through March 1999.

WVAH was not owned by Cunningham Broadcasting Corporation until March of 2002. Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc took over managerial control around July of 1998, after purchasing WCHS around February of 1998.

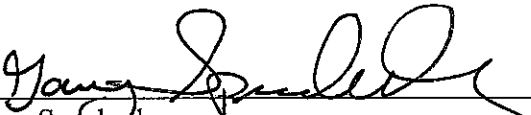

WVAH was located in Hurricane, WV until 2005, when it moved to the WCHS building in Charleston, WV.
