The People's Music School is one of the only completely free, community music schools in the United States. They provide free music education with an emphasis in classical music. The curriculum includes music theory as well as instruction in the particular instrument of the child's choice. Please call to learn more.

If you never learned to ride a bicycle, learning as an adult is fast and easy. The League of American Bicyclists offers Smart Cycling Courses at a number of Chicago area locations. Lessons are scheduled at your convenience. Learning time varies from person to person, but typically people are riding in two to three hours. Log onto Chicago Bicycle Dot Org to find an instruction course near you.
