FEATURED ORGANIZATION: U.S. Government

GUEST: President Joe Biden

ISSUE: Economy/Election

SUMMARY: On a campaign stop in Charleston, President Joe Biden spoke at the Mother Emanuel AME Church and an interview about his administration's accomplishments, particularly in the black community. The President discussed his efforts to assist both businesses and individuals in the black community. Additionally, he shared his thoughts on the Supreme Court's overturn of Roe vs. Wade and the importance of the judges he has appointed to the bench. President Biden talked about his working to relieve the amount of student debt and the importance of that with younger voters.

SEGMENT TWO:

SHOW DATE: 01/14/2024

FEATURED ORGANIZATION: Positive Vibes

GUEST: Pastor Thomas Dixon, Advisor

ISSUE: Gun Violence

SUMMARY: For this year's celebration of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Positive Vibes is hosting what they are calling the inaugural MLK Day Parade in North Charleston. While it's not the first, they are referring to it as the inaugural parade since they believe it is the first to take place in the mostly black area of the city. Pastor Thomas Dixon shared the theme of the parade being unity, reinforced by the fact that 4 anti-gun violence organizations came together to host the event. Dixon explained the creation of Positive Vibes, the goal of the organization, and the steps being taken to reduce the incidence of gun violence in North Charleston.
