KPBS TV News Q1, 2024

| | | · · · · | | TV News Q1, 2024 |
|-----------|-----------------|----------------|-----------------|---|
| Date | Evening Edition | Scheduled Time | Evening Edition | Story List |
| | | | | Big waves and high surf pounded the coastline over the last few days. A look at damage to the OB Pier, and what's next for the local landmark. Plus, minimum wage workers across California got a raise in the new year. But workers in the City of San Diego got a bigger bump in pay. And of all the floats in this year's Rose Parade, one from San Diego was named the "Most Beautiful." |
| 1/2/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | The PedWest border crossing in San Ysidro will resume limited operations Thursday |
| 1/3/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | following its closure last month. How that could affect businesses near the border. Plus, what's next for San Diego's wastewater recycling facility? Then, the San Diego Blood Bank says they are in immediate need of donations. |
| | | | | The lives of 5 postdoctoral scholars have been sent into a tailspin after they were laid off by UC San Diego.Plus, it was closed during the busy holiday season, but a pedestrian border crossing is now open for the first time in weeks. And, as we look back at the best stories of last year. Our public art series takes us to Encinitas, that's now become a hub of creativity and culture. |
| 1/4/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| | | | | A San Diego County Supervisor has corrected a tweet he made about open-air migrant camps. But migrant advocates say such mistakes are dangerous. Plus, an expedition off the Southern California coast revealed thousands of military munitions and explosives littering the bottom of the ocean. And as we approach the third anniversary of January 6th a look at the state of democracy in our county. |
| 1/5/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | The second for One Director stice shief will see a set under you. Dut first the site |
| 1/8/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | The search for San Diego's next police chief will soon get underway. But first, the city wants to hear from you. Plus, a local church is saying "Yes in God's Backyard." KPBS finds out how they're creating affordable housing on their property. Then, the FAA is trying to figure out what caused a piece of an Alaska Airlines airplane to blow off in mid-flight. KPBS looks into how the investigation impacts air travel out of San Diego. |
| 110/2024 | | 20.01.00 | | The California State University announced a 5% raise for faculty and staff. But that doesn't mean the contract dispute is over. Plus, more nonstop flights to new destinations will soon be offered at San Diego International Airport. When a new airline is set to take off. And maybe you've seen this water tower while driving east on the 125. The story — and controversy — behind this public art. |
| 1/9/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| | | | | San Diego Mayor Todd Gloria is set to deliver the State of the City Address tonight. What we're expecting to hear. Plus, North County farmers now believe they know what killed thousands of bees last fall. But there are still more questions. And cursive writing is returning to classrooms across California. Why some local teachers say it never should have left. |
| 1/10/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| 1/11/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | San Diego Gas and Electric bills are rising as temperatures drop. But, customers aren't paying as much as last year. Plus, the San Diego Union-Tribune canceled its Spanish- language edition. What that means for civic life, especially during an election year. Then, Mother Nature provided high surf as a surf competition kicked off in Oceanside. |
| 1/12/2024 | E 8 6:20 | 28:54:00 | | Inflation is high across the United States, but it's hitting San Diego especially hard. So what's keeping prices up? Plus, a new lawsuit has been filed in the ongoing cross-border sewage problem. KPBS looks at why more legal action could soon follow. And, after nearly 30 years, Architectural Salvage is closing its doors — this weekend, everything must go! |
| 1/12/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | The acting chancellor of the San Diego Community College District reflects on what he |
| | | | | hopes to change once he officially takes leadership on Martin Luther King Day. Plus, KPBS digs into the numbers to find out what Gov. Newsom's budget proposal means for child care funding. And, a new study highlights the risk associated with electric bikes and scooters. |
| 1/15/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | A natice of domalition was recently noted on the Ocean Reach Diar. What have not 2 |
| 1/16/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | A notice of demolition was recently posted on the Ocean Beach Pier. What happens next? Plus, new affordable housing may come to Hillcrest. How a project to revamp an aging DMV field office can benefit a whole neighborhood. And, a county program is aiming to help people living on low-incomes save money and water. |
| | | | | A notice of demolition was recently posted on the Ocean Beach Pier. What happens next? Plus, new affordable housing may come to Hillcrest. How a project to revamp an aging DMV field office can benefit a whole neighborhood. And, a county program is aiming to help people living on low-incomes save money and water. |
| 1/17/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| | | | | Chula Vista's controversial use of drones for law enforcement is now headed to the highest court in the state. Plus, San Diego County says it's at a critical stage in its efforts to care for lost and abandoned animals. And, buying a home is a challenge, especially for first-timers. A new local program is trying to help people with the up-front costs. |
| 1/18/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |

KPBS TV News Q1, 2024

| 1192024 $ 8 6.30 26.51.00 Evening Edition 1122024 $ 8 6.30 26.51.00 Evening Edition 1122024 $ 8 6.30 26.51.00 Evening Edition 11220204 $ 8 6.30 26.51.00 | | | | | TV News Q1, 2024 |
|---|-----------|----------|----------|-----------------|--|
| damage and causing a headache for driver. Plus, the simi additagene optice tarted with the rules of new technology. 1/220204 $ $ $ 8:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/222024 $ $ 8:0:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/222024 $ $ 8:0:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/222024 $ $ 8:0:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Meightontoxis across the county are deamage in Tysues. Flanks, to tartexore with a transpander of the homeleasmes problem. Plus, another astback for tan commune out in the tartexol to a people with read it most. 1/222024 $ $ 8:0:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Homeleasmes problem. Plus, another astback for tan another sum, homeleasmes problem. Plus, another astback for tan commune out in the tartexol to a insemable y is format and the tartexol to a insemable y is format another sum and the tartexol to a insemable y is format another sum and tartexol to a insemable y is format another sum and tartexol to a insemable y is format another sum and tartexol to a insemable y is format anothome and tartexol to a insemable y is format anothe | 1/19/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | strike by faculty and staff. Housing advocates are pushing for a change they say will |
| A state of emergency was announced Monday for San Dego County after a flood warming Whit comes after now that the storm's passed? Plus, the downpoor had it hard south of the tocker, A look af the rescues and damage in Tijuana. Finally, a that the storth of the county and the storth of the tocker, A look after the rescues and damage to Mount Scaley members are used to between California State University leaders and university leaders anduniversing leaders andunity leaders andunity leaders and universi | | | | | damage and causing a headache for drivers. Plus, the rain didn't dampen spirits at two local CSU campuses as faculty join in a statewide strike. What their union is demanding. |
| What comes after now that the storm's passed? Plus, the dompour had hit hard south of the border A lock at the rescues and dampaing in Tijuana. Frankj, et attaitive deal was reached between California State University leaders and unintersity leaders and university leaders and university leaders an | 1/22/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| Likk some time. Plus, marp businesses damaged by Modwalers are finding out hat insurance word rower their costs. What's next for them. And from local farms to tables. How farmers are working hand-h-hand with the county to get more fees hood to people who need it most. 1/24/2024 5 & 6.30 28.51:00 Evening Edition Volunteers are working hand-h-hand with the county to get more fees hood to people who need it most. 1/25/2024 5 & 6.30 28.51:00 Evening Edition Volunteers are out across Sam Diego County to help more a "mapping" of the framework of works are and across Sam Diego County to help more a "mapping" of the framework of works are and across Sam Diego County Supervisor Nathan Fletcher. 1/25/2024 5 & 6.30 28.51:00 Evening Edition Powerful atom in the powerful atom into wordpit termination and on an East County school. How long students could be out of their disastorms. Plus, any dress are and particle works are and across the sam of the sam of the powerful atom of more apartment complex may have bear for good. Plus, are sam of mud and trash were removed from in dates and particle works forg across form or apartment complex may have bear forg across form one partment complex may have bear forg across form one partment complex may have bear forg across form one partment complex may have bear forg across form or apartment complex may have deverable of the short base forg across form or apartment complex may have deverate and bacrowore from has are deverable of base forg across form | 1/23/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | 3 1 1 |
| 1/25/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/25/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/25/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/26/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/26/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/26/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 0 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/2024 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/24 5 & 6 : 30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/2 | 1/24/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | insurance won't cover their costs. What's next for them. And from local farms to tables. How farmers are working hand-in-hand with the county to get more fresh food to people |
| The powerful storm that pummeled our region this week took a toll on an East County school. How long students could be out of their classrooms. Plus, cuty crews are racing against the clock to unclog storm water drains before another round of forecasted rain hits. And a life-saving drug can now be found in vording machines at San Diego jalls. 1/28/2024 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition One week after a record-breaking storm, dozens of people still can't go home. Why neighbors from one apartment complex may have to leave for good. Plus, over 1,400 tons of mud and trash were removed from city stress, but the clangu pion tover. Then, the Grossmont Community College Poil Club takes on teams from big-name universities. 1/28/2024 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/28/204 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/31/24 </td <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td>homelessness problem. Plus, another setback for train commuters, just as lawmakers announce new investments to fight coastal erosion's impact on the tracks. Also, MTS releases the results of an investigation into wrongful termination claims made by a former</td> | | | | | homelessness problem. Plus, another setback for train commuters, just as lawmakers announce new investments to fight coastal erosion's impact on the tracks. Also, MTS releases the results of an investigation into wrongful termination claims made by a former |
| 1/26/2024 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition stis. And a life-saving drug can now be found in vending machines at San Diego jails. 1/26/2024 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition One week after a record-breaking storm, dozens of people still can't go home. Why neighbors from one apartment complex may have to leave for good. Plus, over 1,400 tons of mud and trash were removed from tity streets, but the cleanup into twee. Then, the Grossmont. Community College Polo Club takes on teams from big-name universities. 1/29/2024 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Another round of rain has arrived in San Diego. What the round start sta | 1/25/2024 | 5 & 6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| 1/29/2024 586:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/29/2024 586:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/30/24 586:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/31/24 586:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition <tr< td=""><td>1/26/2024</td><td>5&6:30</td><td>28:51:00</td><td>Evening Edition</td><td>school. How long students could be out of their classrooms. Plus, city crews are racing against the clock to unclog storm water drains before another round of forecasted rain</td></tr<> | 1/26/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | school. How long students could be out of their classrooms. Plus, city crews are racing against the clock to unclog storm water drains before another round of forecasted rain |
| People across San Diego County are preparing for the next round of rain forecast to hit this week. How officials are also helping those who were devastated by the last storm. Plus, the cleanup continues at two San Diego Community College campuses where floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track floodwaters overflowed. And, the city is doing to prepare for the storm. Plus, isn't service north pay to fix or replace their vehicles. Finally, Chuld Vista High School students use their musical talents to take a stand for arts and education. 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Another round of rain has arrived in San Diego County. What it means for people still recovering from last week's historic flooding. Plus, thy prevent what happened last time. And the app used by people seeking asylum at our border is getting better reviews after some updates. 2/1/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The weather is drying out for now, but another storm is brewing. What forecasters are moves across the state. Where can we see the biggest impact? Then, check your maibox, primary election ballots are going out to registered voters. What do you need to know to cast your vote? 2/5/24 5&6:30< | 1/20/2024 | 586.20 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | neighbors from one apartment complex may have to leave for good. Plus, over 1,400 tons of mud and trash were removed from city streets, but the cleanup isn't over. Then, the |
| 1/30/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track 1/30/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition More rain is expected to arrive in San Diego. What the city is doing to prepare for the structure wort pay to fix or replace their vehicles. Finally, Chula Vista High School students use their musical talents to take a stand for arts and education. 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 2/1/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 2/1/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 2/2/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/3/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 2/2/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition | 1/29/2024 | 3&0.30 | 28.51.00 | | this week. How officials are also helping those who were devastated by the last storm. |
| 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/31/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 2/1/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 3/2 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/2/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 3/2 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 1/2/24 | 1/30/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | floodwaters overflowed. And, train service north of Oceanside still isn't back on track |
| Another round of rain has arrived in San Diego County. What it means for people still recovering from last week's historic flooding. Plus, city crews spent several days cleaning out Chollas Creek haed of today's storm. hoping to prevent what happened last time. And the app used by people seeking asylum at our border is getting better reviews after some updates. 2/1/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The weather is drying out for now, but another storm is brewing. What forecasters are predicting about how much rain we could get. Plus, the California State Superintendent visited San Diego County today to check on schools damaged by the recent floods. And could these tiny cabins help solve the homelessness crisis? How county leaders want to use them. 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Millions of Californians are under storm and flash flood warnings as an atmospheric river moves across the state. Where can we see the biggest impact? Then, check your mailbox, primary election ballots are going out to registered voters. What do you need to know to cast your vote? 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The rain keeps coming across San Diego County bringing flood watches and even a rare tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney election. And "Beyond Monet." How immersive exhibits like this one in Del Mar are bringing art to more people. 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arr | | 500.00 | 00.54.00 | | storm. Plus, homes and cars were damaged in last week's flood and many are discovering their insurance won't pay to fix or replace their vehicles. Finally, Chula Vista High School |
| 2/2/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The weather is drying out for now, but another storm is brewing. What forecasters are predicting about how much rain we could get. Plus, the California State Superintendent visited San Diego County today to check on schools damaged by the recent floods. And could these tiny cabins help solve the homelessness crisis? How county leaders want to use them. 2/2/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Millions of Californians are under storm and flash flood warnings as an atmospheric river moves across the state. Where can we see the biggest impact? Then, check your mailbox, primary election ballots are going out to registered voters. What do you need to know to cast your vote? 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The rain keeps coming across San Diego County bringing flood watches and even a rare tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney election. And "Beyond Monet." How immersive exhibits like this one in Del Mar are bringing art to more people. 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, mor on a local Navy SEAL accused of extremism, and the comments made that experts say are associated with a known hate group. 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evenin | 1/31/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | recovering from last week's historic flooding. Plus, city crews spent several days cleaning out Chollas Creek ahead of today's storm hoping to prevent what happened last time. |
| 2/2/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition predicting about how much rain we could get. Plus, the California State Superintendent visited San Diego County today to check on schools damaged by the recent floods. And could these tiny cabins help solve the homelessness crisis? How county leaders want to use them. 2/2/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Millions of Californians are under storm and flash flood warnings as an atmospheric river moves across the state. Where can we see the biggest impact? Then, check your mailbox, primary election ballots are going out to registered voters. What do you need to know to cast your vote? 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The rain keeps coming across San Diego County bringing flood watches and even a rare tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney election. And "Beyond Monet." How immersive exhibits like this one in Del Mar are bringing at to more people. 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, more on a local Navy SEAL accused of extremism, and the comments made that experts say are associated with a known hate group. 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery | 2/1/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition Millions of Californians are under storm and flash flood warnings as an atmospheric river moves across the state. Where can we see the biggest impact? Then, check your mailbox, primary election ballots are going out to registered voters. What do you need to know to cast your vote? 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The rain keeps coming across San Diego County bringing flood watches and even a rare tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney election. And "Beyond Monet." How immersive exhibits like this one in Del Mar are bringing art to more people. 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, more on a local Navy SEAL accused of extremism, and the comments made that experts say are associated with a known hate group. 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery mission. An update on the deadly crash of a helicopter that was on its way to Miramar. It's going to be a long recovery for those most affected by last month's flooding. We'll look at some of the help small businesses are getting in San Diego. And, a celebration of life is in the wo | 0/0/04 | 586.20 | 00.54.00 | Evoning Falther | predicting about how much rain we could get. Plus, the California State Superintendent visited San Diego County today to check on schools damaged by the recent floods. And could these tiny cabins help solve the homelessness crisis? How county leaders want to |
| 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition moves across the state. Where can we see the biggest impact? Then, check your mailbox, primary election ballots are going out to registered voters. What do you need to know to cast your vote? 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The rain keeps coming across San Diego County bringing flood watches and even a rare tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney election. And "Beyond Monet." How immersive exhibits like this one in Del Mar are 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition bringing art to more people. 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, more on a local Navy SEAL accused of extremism, and the comments made that experts say are associated with a known hate group. 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery mission. An update on the deadly crash of a helicopter that was on its way to Miramar. It's going to be a long recover for those most affected by last month's flooding. We'll look at some of the help small businesses are getting in San Diego. And, a celebration of life is in the works. Details on | 2/2/24 | 300:30 | 28:51:00 | | |
| 2/5/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition know to cast your vote? 1 The rain keeps coming across San Diego County bringing flood watches and even a rare tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney election. And "Beyond Monet." How immersive exhibits like this one in Del Mar are bringing art to more people. 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, more on a local Navy SEAL accused of extremism, and the comments made that experts say are associated with a known hate group. 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery mission. An update on the deadly crash of a helicopter that was on its way to Miramar. It's going to be a long recover for those most affected by last month's flooding. We'll look at some of the help small businesses are getting in San Diego. And, a celebration of life is in the works. Details on | | | | | |
| 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The rain keeps coming across San Diego County bringing flood watches and even a rare tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney election. And "Beyond Monet." How immersive exhibits like this one in Del Mar are bringing art to more people. 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, more on a local Navy SEAL accused of extremism, and the comments made that experts say are associated with a known hate group. 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery mission. An update on the deadly crash of a helicopter that was on its way to Miramar. It's going to be a long recover for those most affected by last month's flooding. We'll look at some of the help small businesses are getting in San Diego. And, a celebration of life is in the works. Details on | 2/5/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| 2/6/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition bringing art to more people. A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, more on a local Navy SEAL accused of extremism, and the comments made that experts say are associated with a known hate group. 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery mission. An update on the deadly crash of a helicopter that was on its way to Miramar. It's going to be a long recover for those most affected by last month's flooding. We'll look at some of the help small businesses are getting in San Diego. And, a celebration of life is in the works. Details on | | | | | tornado warning. Plus, we're taking a closer look at what's on the ballot this March. Why restoring the public's trust in government is a key issue in the Chula Vista City Attorney |
| 2/7/24 5&6:30 28:51:00 Evening Edition are associated with a known hate group. The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery mission. An update on the deadly crash of a helicopter that was on its way to Miramar. It's going to be a long recover for those most affected by last month's flooding. We'll look at some of the help small businesses are getting in San Diego. And, a celebration of life is in the works. Details on | 2/6/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | bringing art to more people. A military helicopter is found in remote East County after failing to arrive at miramar. Now the search is on for its missing crew. Twenty-four hours after a tornado warning in San Diego, forecasters tell us what went into their decision to make such a rare call. And, more |
| | 2/7/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | are associated with a known hate group. The search for marines lost in East County is now a recovery mission. An update on the deadly crash of a helicopter that was on its way to Miramar. It's going to be a long recovery for those most affected by last month's flooding. We'll look at some of the help small |
| | 2/8/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | businesses are getting in San Diego. And, a celebration of life is in the works. Details on the Padres' plans to honor their late team owner, Peter Seidler. |

| | | | | KPBS TV News Q1, 2024 |
|----------|--------|----------|-----------------|--|
| 2/9/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | Many homes were damaged in the historic storm that hit San Diego in January. Now, a group of tenants displaced by the floods is suing. Plus, snow in county mountains is a boon for tourism. KPBS looks at how businesses in Julian are preparing for the weekend's crowds. And Lunar New Year celebrations begin Saturday. Learn the "Lion Dance" tradition — what it means and how to perform it |
| 2/12/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | People who lost everything during the recent flood are planning to sue. Why their lawyers say it's not just about the money. Plus, San Diego's new pavement improvement plan directs the least money to southeast neighborhoods, where street conditions are among the worst. And, making sure students can eat free and nutritious school lunches. |
| | | | | The sewage crisis at the border may severely affect our coastline and beyond. What a new report reveals about the risks to the public's health. Plus, a power struggle over San Diego utilities. Why a group want to fire SDG&E while opponents argue that it's not worth the cost. Then, a labor of love. How a local couple keeps their small business and |
| 2/13/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | relationship strong. Federal financial aid delays are causing anxiety for students trying to decide where they will go to college — and how they will pay for it. Plus, three San Diego City Council |
| 2/14/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | members are running unopposed this primary season. What are the top priorities for their districts? And the Birch Aquarium is recreating the experience of diving into a kelp forest. Affordable housing is coming to a neighborhood where lower-income families have long been priced-out. Plus, San Diego scientists looking into why it's harder for some people to |
| 2/15/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | lose weight have discovered one reason that could lead to future treatments. And this year Museum Month is going beyond county lines. How it's celebrating history and culture on both sides of the border. The county's migrant welcome center is closing its doors. What happens next? Plus, |
| 2/16/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | nearly one month after historic floods damaged homes, a group of volunteers is helping families pick up the pieces to rebuild. And from school safety to new technology, a look at what's happening at the national education conference here in San Diego. Chula Vista City Council Member who is facing fraud charges resigned their seat. Plus, |
| 2/19/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | more rain is in the forecast. How much are we expecting as an another atmospheric river hits California? Then, KPBS continues coverage on the upcoming primary election. Who is in the running for San Diego Mayor? |
| | | | | President Joe Biden issued a declaration related to recent Califonria storms nearly one month after flooding devastated parts of San Diego. Plus, the primary election is two weeks away. How the resignation of a Chula Vista councilmember is shaking up the race. |
| 2/20/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | Then, an elementary student is raising money for flood victims one bracelet at a time. One day before the county's migrant welcome center is set to close organizations are scrambling to come up with a plan to help asylum seekers. Plus, the primary election is less than two weeks away. What's on top of voters' minds as they prepare to cast their ballots. And a local VA clinic is marking 10 years of helping veterans get their lives back |
| 2/21/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | on track. It's been one month since historic flooding devastated San Diego neighborhoods. We check in on people and businesses still dealing with the aftermath. Plus, libraries across the country are increasingly being targeted by people who want to control what others read. How a local librarian is fighting back. And it's billed as a "Bug Banquet." From |
| 2/22/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | scorpions to grubs what's on the menu at this unique dinner. Hundreds of migrants are once again being dropped off on San Diego streets, leaving nonprofits scrambling to help them find their way. Plus, teachers at an East County |
| 2/23/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | elementary school damaged in last month's floods are getting ready to welcome students back to the classroom. And the story behind a comic book character known as "tamale guy" making his debut at a Chicano arts festival this weekend. |
| 0/00/04 | 500.00 | 00.54.00 | | There's now a place for small business owners to go for help as they work to recover from January's historic storms. Plus, California is joining a suit to block two grocery store chains from merging and why the state attorney general calls it a rotten deal for shoppers. Also, how climate change may be erasing progress made over the past several decades to attorney be an |
| 2/26/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | Clean up air pollution. People who were impacted by January's historic storms are getting some relief when it comes to filing their taxes. Who is eligible for extended deadlines. Plus, early voting is underway in San Diego County. What the turnout has been so far, one week from election day. And a food truck is offering high school students real world lessons in cooking and |
| 2/27/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | running a business. A former Chula Vista City councilmember pled guilty to felony charges. What happens next under the plea agreement? Plus, San Diego County Supervisors approved a long- term plan for migrant services. But there's no funding to put that plan into action. Finally, a |
| 2/28/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | North County city is working to create an equity policy as it considers new types of cannabis-related businesses. Gov. Gavin Newsom kicked off a "Get Out the Vote" weekend in San Diego. Why is he |
| | 500.00 | | | urging Californians to approve Prop.1 and who are against it? Plus, a North County city is adopting a controversial policy on homelessness. What it's implementing instead of a "housing first" model. Finally, healing through poetry. How the art form is being used to |
| 2/29/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | promote positive mental health. FEMA is setting up shop in San Diego County. We learn about what help is being offered to flood victims at two Disaster Relief Centers. Plus, Friday marks the beginning of Women's History Month. KPBS takes a look at the hurdles women still face in trying to |
| 3/1/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | break through corporate "glass ceilings." And the Carlsbad Flower Fields are now open — a colorful sign that spring is almost here. |

KPBS

| | | | | TV News Q1, 2024 San Diego Unified is facing a budget shortfall, leading to difficult decisions. Which |
|-----------|--------|----------|-----------------|--|
| 3/4/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | programs and positions could be on the chopping block. Plus, a new shelter is now welcoming unhoused North County residents. The different approaches to homelessness in the region. And, John Lennon the artist. Where you can see the legendary musician's artwork on display here in San Diego for a limited time. |
| 01412024 | 000.00 | 20.01.00 | | Super Tuesday is upon us. What's at stake as voters in several states, including |
| | | | | California, go to the polls. Plus, Motor Voter Laws were created with hopes to make voter registration easier and lead to higher voter turnout. But have those hopes become reality? |
| 3/5/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | Finally, Salk scientists have developed a way to grow human tissue in the lab for testing. Thousands of protesters gathered at UC San Diego in support of Gaza. Plus, voting is |
| | | | | over, but the ballot counting continues. A look at the latest results from the Super Tuesda Primary Election. Then, there's a new place to enjoy the outdoors with your family and |
| 3/6/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | friends. President Biden delivers the State of the Union Address. What issues are San Diegans |
| | | | | hoping to hear? Plus, pollution is bad for our health, the environment and our wallets. How much money could new regulations save? Then, the movement that turned the 163 |
| 3/7/24 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | freeway through Balboa Park into a pedestrian-friendly parkway for a day It's International Women's Day. How people here in San Diego are using the day to raise |
| | | | | awareness about women's issues. Plus, as the recovery process from January's historic storms continues. There is also work happening to address the flood's impact on people's health. And, What would you do with $500 a month, no strings attached? What happened |
| 3/8/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | to families involved in a monthly cash payment pilot program. A South Bay lawmaker proposes a new solution to stem the flow of cross-border pollution |
| 3/11/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | Plus, a KPBS investigation finds that a local credit union has made millions of dollars when Marines run out of money. Finally, four decades after leaving San Diego for L.A., the Clippers' "Minor League" team is moving back to San Diego County. |
| 0/11/2021 | | 20.01.00 | Evening Edition | The county is extending help to people who were forced out of their homes by January's devastating floods. Plus, state lawmakers from San Diego want to reign in the California Coastal Commission. Then, the story of a club where all are welcome is providing a place |
| 3/12/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | for women to run together, free of judgment. The clock could be running out on TikTok. The ultimatum the social media app faces if a |
| 242/2024 | 580.00 | 00.51.00 | | bill passed by the House of Representatives is signed into law. Plus, everyone agrees tha San Diego needs more affordable housing. The problem is not everyone agrees on where it should be built. And local students are getting a fresh perspective thanks to a new pair |
| 3/13/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | of glasses. Owning a homeowner's insurance in San Diego County is about to get more expensive. |
| | | | | Plus, 7% of American adults have long-COVID. A wristband health monitor could help people manage their symptoms. Finally, new advances in technology are helping local researchers track rattlesnakes in the wild. |
| 3/14/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | |
| 3/15/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | San Diego is working to build more housing quickly. What are city leaders doing to speed up the process? Plus, people who live near Sports Park in Del Mar have long complained about traffic, noise and pollution. Now the controversy could be settled in court. Finally, local college students with unreliable transportation can get free taxi rides to class. |
| | | | | The Supreme Court ruled in a case involving a local school district. How it helped establish a new "test" for lawsuits in the age of social media. Plus, you could be in for some sticker shock when you open your utility bill. Why SDG&E is raising rates this month. And the countdown to March Madness is on. Where SDSU is ranked headed into the tournament, and what fans think about the team's chances. |
| 3/18/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | , |
| 3/19/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | What is San Diego County and the state doing to fight against wage theft? Plus, high-tech options that the water authority uses to maintain its pipelines to keep taps flowing. Finally it takes a village to raise a child, many parents in San Diego are wondering "where's my village?" |
| | | |   | Thousands of UC employees are mounting picket lines across the state, including in San Diego. Plus, the years-long "Fat Leonard" Navy corruption case is nearing an end, but it faced another delay. Then, time is running out to fund a program that provides diapers to |
| 3/20/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | low-income families across the county. San Diego will have a new chief of police soon. Plus, how Apple is accused of monopolizing the smartphone market. Finally, construction of a new border wall |
| 3/21/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | threatened to destroy hundreds of murals on the Tijuana side. But activists found a way to save some of them. |
| | | | | It's been two months since floods devastated parts of San Diego. How families and small businesses are working to recover what they lost in the historic storm. Plus, while more cities take a "law and order" approach to homelessness, one South Bay city is trying |
| 3/22/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | something different. And a local high school is new to robotics but already on the way to competing in a national championship. |
| | | | | Congress passed a spending bill over the weekend, ending threats of a government shutdown. We will look at what is in the budget for San Diego. Plus, when it comes to childcare, infant care is the toughest to find. KPBS has an in-depth look at the challenges for in a purpose the bit of wild super block at the challenges. |
| 3/25/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | facing new parents. Also, the history behind wildflowers blooming along local freeways, and why they might not be as "wild" as some may think. |
| | | | | Teachers and other faculty members are rallying against layoffs at the San Diego Unified School board meeting. Plus, the Supreme Court considers whether to restrict access to a abortion medication nationwide. Then, KPBS digs into the numbers to find out why last |
| 3/26/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | year was one of the deadliest for migrants crossing the border. |

KPBS

| | | | | TV News Q1, 2024 |
|-----------|--------|----------|-----------------|--|
| 3/27/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | A potential new design for Ocean Beach Pier will be revealed in April. Plus, the city of San Diego is updating its blueprint for housing growth and development. Then, a North County organization is giving LGBTQ+ youth with nowhere to go a place to call home. |
| 3/28/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | Fans gather at Petco Park for the Padres home opener. However, they're not the only team San Diegans are cheering on. Plus, high school students are taking a stand against pollution in the South Bay. Then, Balboa Theatre celebrates its centennial anniversary. |
| 3/29/2024 | 5&6:30 | 28:51:00 | Evening Edition | A storm is expected to bring rain, wind and snow to San Diego County this weekend. Plus, California fast-food workers are getting a raise. What does the new minimum wage mean for San Diego's economy? Then, a local restaurant is sharing their culture with customers through traditional coffee ceremonies. |

KPBS