

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST SPRING 2014

The following is a listing of the most significant issues responded to by Stations WSKG/WSQX-FM, Binghamton, along with typical and illustrative programming on these topics for the period April 1, 2014 to June 30, 2014. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority.

Description of Issue	Pgm./ Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program Segment
Government	Morning Edition	6/23/2014	7:06am	2:57	Governor Cuomo and legislative leaders agreed on three major items at the close of the legislative session. But they also left a lot of unfinished business at the table. Lawmakers made the most of the deals that they reached in the final days of the session. Governor Cuomo announced an agreement on package of bills to combat heroin addiction.
Environment	Morning Edition	6/19/2015	7:33am	2:40	Two retirees from the Pennsylvania Department of Health say its employees were silenced on the issue of Marcellus Shale drilling. The two former employees - a community health nurse and a staffer in the Bureau of Epidemiology - say that staff at state health centers and district offices were instructed not to return calls from residents who expressed health concerns about natural gas development.
Agriculture	Morning Edition	6/18/2014	6:33am	:45	Byrne Dairy has entered the booming yogurt business in upstate New York. A new production facility opens this week in Cortland. With the new plant, the central New York dairy icon moves from a milk and ice company to being able to produce yogurt as well as cheese and sour cream. Yogurt, namely Greek-style yogurt, has been a boon for the dairy industry here in recent years, led by Chobani and followed by others.
Education	Morning Edition	6/16/2014	7:06am	:45	A Times Union/Siena College Upstate Education Poll finds that upstate residents are close to evenly split on whether Common Core education standards will be good for students. According to the survey of 874 upstate residents, 50 percent think the new standards will increase student success and 44 percent think they won't.
Arts/Culture	Morning Edition	6/2/2014	7:33am	5:00	On May 24th, 2014, WSKG visited Ithaca Fest to answer a simple question: What would happen if everyone in Ithaca was invited to write one little piece of a poem about Ithaca. Inspired by the festival's mission to 'find the artist in everyone' and 2014's "Rhythm & Rhyme" theme, WSKG turned to festival poet Alex Chertok and asked if he could help set up some boundaries and guidelines for such a poem. Alex suggested we employ the exquisite corpse technique.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

There follows a listing of the most significant issues responded to by stations WSKG-FM, Binghamton, WSQA, Hornell, WSQC-FM, Oneonta, WSQE, Corning, and WSQG-FM, Ithaca, along with typical and illustrative programming on these topics for the period January 1, 2014, to March 31, 2014. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority.

Description of Issue	Pgm./ Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program Segment
Health	All Things Considered	3/26/14	5:45pm	3:15	The New York State Asylum was opened in the mid 1800s. Originally meant to treat alcoholism, it later became a home for the chronically insane. Many patients lived and died in the hospital.
Government	Morning Edition	3/27/14	6:06am	3:59	The state budget is due April 1, but when the deal is finally reached in Albany, average New Yorkers will have had little access to the details of the important items that Governor Cuomo and lawmakers are discussing.
Government	Morning Edition	3/27/14	7:33a	:49	State lawmakers in both the Assembly and the Senate are coming under scrutiny from the FBI. The State Capitol offices of an Assemblyman were raided, and a State Senator gave a tour of her home property in an attempt to debunk accusations.
Economy	Morning Edition	3/26/14	6:06a	:69	Americans United for Change, a progressive advocacy group, stopped in Binghamton on a national bus tour to promote an increase in the minimum wage to 10.10 an hour.
Government	Morning Edition	3/26/14	6:33am	:45	Governor Andrew Cuomo is continuing his public push for government consolidation, using a property tax credit as an incentive. But he admitted yesterday that it's been met with opposition in the state Senate.
Government	Morning Edition	3/26/14	7:06am	3:39	The legislative leaders, following a two hour closed door meeting with Governor Cuomo, seemed in high spirits. Senate Republican Leader Dean Skelos gave his often times rival Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver a hug.
Health	Morning Edition	3/25/14	7:06am	4:15	Heroin is becoming a nationwide epidemic and the Southern Tier is no exception. Deaths from heroin and drugs like it have more than doubled in the past year. Thomas Kimble is a deputy with the Chemung Sheriff Department.
Education	Morning Edition	3/25/14	6:06am	3:03	Education funding advocates, including actress Cynthia Nixon, made a last minute pitch for extra money for schools in the state budget. Meanwhile a new poll finds many New Yorkers think the quality of education in the state is deteriorating.
