Crime:

Deputies use Taser to arrest Florida highway shooting suspect:

6/30/2020

BUSHNELL, Fla. Deputies armed with rifles turned to a Taser to take down a man accused of shooting at cars along I-75 in Florida. The Sumter County Sheriff's Office responded to a call of shots fired on the highway near mile marker 309 on Saturday. Callers saw a man in a Ford truck with a gun shooting at cars. The sheriff's office said the suspect rear-ended a car near Bushnell before wrecking at mile marker 317. He engaged in a standoff with deputies and waved his gun around before throwing it down. But instead of surrendering, deputies said he hopped back into his vehicle and drove away. Deputies said the suspect crashed a second time. As he started to rush deputies pulled out their rifles, but one deputy decided to go with his Taser. The suspect ran toward deputies, did a somersault, and scuffled with one deputy before others managed to get handcuffs on him.

Serial scooter thief caught, faces 18 charges:

6/29/20

Gainesville, Fla. — Police have arrested a serial scooter thief after months at large. Officers arrested 34-year-old Kurtiz Mercy of Interlachen on Thursday. According to the report, Mercy admitted to stealing several scooters. Mercy was filmed on surveillance cameras in several different instances taking scooters from apartment complexes and parking garages. Officers took several of these clips and consulted a Walmart loss prevention officer and several street sources. Every source GPD spoke with said it was Mercy in the videos, according to the report. The Walmart loss prevention officer said he was very familiar with Mercy, as he had several open theft cases from Walmart. Mercy has 15 active cases between GPD and the Department of Justice. He is being held at the Alachua County Jail.

Man wanted for use of counterfeit money:

Gainesville, Fla. — Gainesville police are searching for a man suspected of passing counterfeit money at businesses. Carlos Gonzalez has an active warrant for uttering forged bank notes and petit theft, police say. Gonzalez is tied to more than 10 cases of using fake $100 bills. Gonzalez's tactic is to hand the clerk a real $100 bill, distract them, then switch out the real one for a fake, police say. He usually writes something like "Good is Love" or "Gator Love" on the counterfeit bills. Anyone with information on Gonzalez's whereabouts is asked to contact Detective McCazzio at (352) 393-7611 or mccazziorp@cityofgainesville.org.

Man fires several shots in home during domestic dispute:

Levy County, Fla. — An Otter Creek man was arrested on Monday after deputies say he threatened a woman and fired several shots inside a home. Deputies responded to the home on State Road 24 on Monday. The 911 caller reported that 38-year-old James Rone had threatened a woman in the home with a firearm. The caller told deputies that the woman and two juveniles were hiding inside the home, according to deputies. The caller also stated that Rone was in possession of several firearms and had fired them. After brief negotiations, Rone surrendered to deputies surrounding the home. Detectives located firearms, shell casings and a broken phone at the scene. Minor injuries were reported, but no one was transferred for medical attention, deputies say. Rone is charged with aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, battery and tampering with evidence. Detectives are continuing to investigate the incident.

ACSO partners with Meridian Behavioral Healthcare to provide mental health support:

Alachua County, FL — The Alachua County Sheriff's Office is taking steps to better serve residents in the community and address mental health needs during calls. ACSO partnered with Meridian Behavioral Healthcare to provide immediate on-scene support and intervention that involve people with mental illness or emotional situations. "It only makes good sense to dispatch a mental health worker at the same time to engage that person in the community, lessen the trauma, and often be able to divert from crisis stabilization," said Don Savoie, President of Meridian Behavioral Healthcare. The program follows the lead of the Gainesville Police Department who launched this co-response team with Meridian back in 2018. Last year, that team answered 710 calls. 91% of people who could've been arrested from those calls were diverted. "I truly believe this is the future," said Sergeant Paul Perdue. "This is the face of what law enforcement needs to be doing, diverting folks from jail and making sure also diverting folks from Baker Acts, providing the best services we can to solve problems." Meridian says they plan to extend this program to other counties in North Central Florida.

US officials keep World Health Organization ties:

6/23/2020

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top federal health officials say they continue to deal with the World Health Organization despite President Donald Trump's decision to pull out of the U.N. health agency, which serves as a forum for the global coronavirus response.

Dr. Anthony Fauci of the National Institutes of Health and Dr. Robert Redfield, head of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, told the House Energy and Commerce Committee on Tuesday that they continue to have regular interactions with scientific peers at the WHO.

Trump pulled the U.S. out of the World Health Organization after complaining about its response to the coronavirus and alleged favoritism toward China.

Two Putnam County deputies test positive for COVID-19:

6/23/2020

Putnam County, FL — Two Putnam county deputies have tested positive for COVID-19 within the past week. The sheriff's office says a patrol deputy and a corrections deputy tested positive. The corrections deputy is in the hospital while the patrol deputy is quarantined at home. Sheriff Gator DeLoach says several other deputies have been exposed because of these two positive cases. "There is always an occupational risk with the type of work we do that may be exposed on duty or off," said DeLoach. "We're working with the health department now to make sure that we follow the CDC and the Florida Department of Health guidelines, just to ensure that everyone's safe and to mitigate the risk of exposure to everyone else." The sheriff's office said a deputy tested positive in April but has fully recovered and has returned to work. Besides a now mandatory mask requirement, the sheriff's office say they are making more changes to their policy to make sure all deputies and the public are safe. "We've actually taken a proactive measure and actually issued all of our deputies thermometers, and they're expected to monitor their symptoms and to check their temperatures at least twice a day," said DeLoach.

Fried calls for statewide mask requirement:

6/25/2020

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — With thousands of additional COVID-19 cases being added each day in Florida, Agriculture Commissioner Nikki Fried called Thursday for a statewide requirement that people wear masks in public places. Many local governments have approved mask requirements as the number of cases has surged this month, but Gov. Ron DeSantis has declined to issue a statewide order. Fried, the only Democrat on the state Cabinet, has been highly critical of the Republican governor's handling of the pandemic. In a prepared statement Thursday, Fried described a statewide mask requirement as "common sense" and pointed to other states that have imposed such requirements. "Everybody should be wearing masks," Fried told The News Service of Florida this week. "We know that the masks are not going to stop the spread, but it certainly will slow it down. We also need to reinforce that COVID is not behind us. So, everybody needs to stay vigilant. Everybody needs to continue social distancing." The Florida Department of Health on Thursday, reported an additional 5,004 COVID-19 cases, bringing the total to 114,018. The department also reported 46 additional deaths, bringing the death toll from the disease to 3,327.

Plane crashes into trees shortly after takeoff in Suwannee County:

6/17/2020

Suwannee County, Fla. — Suwannee County Fire Rescue responded to Little River Airport after they received word that a plane had crashed shortly after takeoff. SCFR says the pilot was taking off from the airstrip, but the plane lost lift and crashed into some trees. Responding crews extinguished a small fire. No injuries were reported.

Tropical Storm Dolly forms over Atlantic, expected to weaken:

6/23/2020

MIAMI (AP) — Tropical Storm Dolly formed Tuesday over the northern Atlantic Ocean but was expected to dissipate later in the week, the U.S. National Hurricane Center said. The storm's maximum sustained winds were near 45 mph (75 kph) but weakening is expected during the next day or two as Dolly moves over colder waters, the Hurricane Center said. The storm is expected to become a post-tropical storm Wednesday and then dissipate by early Thursday, forecasters said.

EDUCATION

Alachua County school district drafts 'Return to School' plan:

Alachua County, Fla. — Alachua County Public Schools, with input from health professionals, parents, staff and other school districts, has drafted a return-to-school plan for the upcoming school year. The plan outlines strategies that are dependent on the level of community spreading of COVID-19 -- no spread, minimal/moderate spread and significant spread. The plan offers different ways of learning, including in-person schooling with enhanced precautions, Digital Academy or Alachua eSchool. The Digital Academy would operate like a normally structured school with live lessons following the typical school schedule. Alachua eSchool would also be virtual learning, but would offer more flexibility for schedules. The eSchool currently operates with about 3,000 full-time and part-time students. The school district sent out a survey to parents in which 12,000, or about 36 percent, said they favored a return to in-person learning with extra precautions. About 26 percent were against the idea. More information on all options will be released next Tuesday.

Free food opportunities at Levy County schools every Monday:

6/29/2020

Levy County, Fla. — Levy County School Board has announced food giveaways at some of the county's schools will be happening every Monday from 4 to 6 p.m. Some of the items include fresh produce, breakfast and lunch items, and milk. The following locations will participate in the giveaway each Monday:

- Bronson Middle High School
- Chiefland Elementary School
- Williston Elementary School
- Cedar Key School
- Yankeetown School
- Morriston Baptist Church

Parents and guardians can pick up the food without their child present.

University of Florida reveals reopening plan

6/24/2020

Gainesville, FL — The Florida Board of Governors approved a plan to allow University of Florida students to return to campus. "We know that what we're doing is not going to stop the pandemic," said Steve Orlando, University of Florida spokesperson. "What we've chosen to do is to live with it." UF is implementing the screen, test, protect program. Students will be asked a series of questions about their health once they return to campus. Testing will be available to students but is not mandatory. While on campus, students will be required to wear a mask and social distance. Classes will be a combination of in person and online. Larger, auditorium classes will not be held and each dorm will only sleep two. Officials say the reopening plan can be modified if the COVID-19 situation changes.

DeSantis says Florida isn't ready for third phase

6/26/20

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Gov. Ron DeSantis said Florida isn't ready for the next phase of his effort to reinvigorate the economy amid the coronavirus pandemic. "We never anticipated necessarily doing anything different in terms of the next phase at this point anyways," DeSantis said Thursday during a bill-signing event in Tampa. "We are where we are. Obviously, South Florida is where they are. I think the main thing is just for folks to look, in May, if you remember end of April, May all the way through, you know coronavirus was relatively quiet in Florida. You had manageable cases. Our positivity rate was 4 or 5 percent consistently." But since the Memorial Day weekend, positive cases have grown, with more than 5,000 reported Thursday to push the state's total to 114,000 cases since March. DeSantis has resisted calls to issue a statewide requirement for people to wear masks but urged people to follow health guidelines, which include social distancing, avoiding crowds, hand washing and wearing masks in public. "I'm confident that people, if you follow guidelines, if you follow the instructions from the local and the state and the federal officials, you know, you can do things in a low-risk way," DeSantis said. After many businesses were shut down or dramatically scaled back at the end of March to prevent spread of the virus, most of the state entered the first phase of DeSantis' reopening plan on May 4, which allowed restaurants and retail stores outside of Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties to operate with outdoor seating and 25 percent indoor capacity. The phase let hospitals and doctors resume providing elective medical procedures. Later, the occupancy limit was bumped to 50 percent, gyms, barber shops and hair salons were allowed to open, and the South Florida counties --- which have been virus hotspots --- were able to take part. In early June, the second phase started in all but South Florida. In part, bars and movie theaters were allowed to operate with limited indoor seating capacity.

US consumer spending up 8.2%, partly erasing record plunge:

6/26/2020

WASHINGTON (AP) — American consumers increased their spending by a sharp 8.2% in May, partly erasing record plunges the previous two months, against the backdrop of an economy that's likely shrinking by its steepest pace on record this quarter. Last month's rebound in consumer spending followed spending drops of 6.6% in March and 12.6% in April, when the viral pandemic shuttered businesses, forced millions of layoffs and sent the economy into a recession. Since then, many businesses have reopened, drawing consumers back into shops and restaurants and restoring some lost jobs. Friday's Commerce Department report showed that Americans stepped up their spending in May despite a 4.2% decline in personal income, which had soared by 10.8% the previous month. Income had jumped in April on the strength of billions of dollars in support through government payments in the form of unemployment aid as well as one-time $1,200 stimulus checks. In May, those stimulus checks were no longer counted as income for most people.

High Court makes it easier for president to remove CFPB head:

6/29/2020

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court is making it easier for the president to fire the head of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. The high court on Monday struck from the law that created the agency restrictions on when the president can remove the bureau's director. The decision doesn't have a big impact on the current head of the agency. Kathy Kraninger, who was nominated to her current post by the president in 2018, had said she believed the president could fire her at any time.

Gainesville bar owners respond to the statewide suspension of alcohol consumption at bars:

6/26/2020

Gainesville, Fla — Governor Ron Desantis announced that alcohol consumption at bars is suspended immediately.

many bars and nightclubs just started reopening at the beginning of this month after being closed since Mid-

March. Bar owners are now worried about the economic blow this announcement could have.

Alex Whelpton with House of Beers said he was a little disappointed when he heard the news. "In the last couple of weeks since re-opening we've been working really hard to make sure everything was a safe environment inside our business for our customers," he said. Whelpton said most of their sales come from alcohol. "Now we are going to have to focus on to-go sales, we'll also be selling to-go food." Whelpton said they will be updating their social media page to keep their guest informed. The owner of Madrinas, TJ Palmieri said the back and forth of being closed and reopening has been tough. "It's been a semi-regular period of adaption for us where, we shifted to to-go sales, and then we did sort of a hybrid model for the last week and a half, and now we're going to selling cocktails to-go again," said Palmieri. Whelpton said although they are disappointed they want to keep in mind that everybody's safety is important. Both bars acknowledged all the support they received from the community, and they understand safety is first.

The Swamp Restaurant closes its doors

Gainesville, FL — One of Gainesville's most iconic restaurants has closed its doors to the community leaving many feeling nostalgic and broken-hearted. The Swamp Restaurant, located in Midtown, has closed. The restaurant opened just over 25 years ago. "When I first built the place, no one would help me with money or anything and they said, it's not gonna work," said Ron DeFilippo, owner of the Swamp restaurant. But it quickly became a staple. Developers bought the property to create student apartments. But the restaurant will not be gone for good. They have plans to open on the first floor of the student apartments in just 18 months.

"I hope we can bring back a better look," said DeFilippo." You can follow along on the Swamp's social media to learn about their reopening.

Starbucks to pause social media ads after campaign calls for Facebook ad boycott:

6/28/2020

Starbucks is the latest company to say it will pause social media ads after a campaign led by civil rights organizations called for an ad boycott of Facebook, saying it doesn't do enough to stop racist and violent content. Starbucks said Sunday that its actions were not part of the "#StopHateforProfit" campaign, but that it is pausing its social ads while talking with civil rights organizations and its media partners about how to stop hate speech online. The coffee chain's announcement follows statements from Unilever, the European consumer-goods giant behind Ben & Jerry's ice cream and Dove soap; Coca-Cola; cellphone company Verizon and outdoors companies like Patagonia, Eddie Bauer and REI; film company Magnolia Pictures; jeans maker Levi's and dozens of smaller companies. Some of the companies will pause ads just on Facebook, while others will refrain from advertising more broadly on social media.

In response to companies halting advertising, Facebook executive Carolyn Everson said earlier this week the social networking platform is committed to purging hateful content from its services. "Our conversations with marketers and civil rights organizations are about how, together, we can be a force for good," said Everson, vice president of Facebook's global business group. Facebook's market value dropped Friday by more than 8%, or about $50 billion, as more companies said they would pause ads. Twitter stock also dropped more than 7% Friday. Sarah Personette, vice president of global client solutions at Twitter, said Friday the company's "mission is to serve the public conversation and ensure Twitter is a place where people can make human connections, seek and receive authentic and credible information, and express themselves freely and safely." She added that Twitter is "respectful of our partners' decisions and will continue to work and communicate closely with them during this

Public Service Announcement List Second Quarter 2020

Poison Control – Poison Helpline - PSA that encourages people to call the Poison Control helpline for any questions or issues with mixing medications, swallowing household cleaners, paint or mushrooms, or being bit by a bug, snake or spider. The helpline is there for any home, work or outdoor questions and is staffed by medical professionals.

Homeland Security – Protect Your Everyday – This PSA shows Americans from every walk of life just doing what they do each and every day. It talks about how sometimes something might happen that does not seem quite right, that it is not paranoia, it is about standing up and protecting our community. All the details add up to make a bigger picture. It encourages viewers, if they see something, to say something.

National Parks Foundation – Parks – A visually exciting PSA showing how our National Parks are everything from natural wonders to historical wonders. Encourages viewers to, get out there, and find your park.

Arbor Day Foundation- Replanting Trees- PSA designed to educate on the importance of continuing to plant trees. This is essential to the well- being of our planet.

Foundation for a Better Life – values.com – A series of kid friendly PSA's which encourage viewers to respect one another and the world around us.

-Everything I Do - “Everything I do, I do it for you.” That enduring lyric performed by Bryan Adams has inspired millions around the world. It holds a message of compassion, commitment...and caring. Enjoy the range of tender and inspiring moments depicted in our newest video—from firemen rescuing a small child to a mother moving heaven and earth just to get everyone off to school. The hope is, in some small way that watching this message will help you recognize your own caring nature and “pass it on”!

-Oliver With a Twist - British orphan Oliver Twist always seems to find a way into our hearts. For this TV commercial, we add our own spin to the famous scene in Oliver's story when he asks for more food at the orphanage. This tale takes on a twist of fate by way of practicing good manners!

-Ballet - There is a special something about successful people. Even when they fail there is an inner strength that keeps them moving forward. Popular books share insights and often delve deep to explain this phenomenon with sports legends, business executives, scientists, inventors, educators and artists. We think you will enjoy a charming but instructional moment in a young ballerina's life with Justin Bieber's” Born to Be Somebody.” This young girl reminds us that underlying every accomplishment in the face of opposition is the all-important trait of Confidence... Pass It On.

Southeastern Guide Dogs- Jackie and Gibson- PSA that introduces future guide dogs as puppies. Tells the viewer how these dogs help give freedom, confidence, and independence to those who need help.

Southeastern Guide Dogs- Puppies with a Purpose- PSA that introduces future guide dogs as puppies. Tells the viewer how these dogs help deliver freedom, confidence, and independence to those who need help.

Southeastern Guide Dogs- One Lucky Puppy – Goes one step further and asks people to donate to help support the guide dog cause.

Salute America's Heroes- Bet on a Vet- This PSA campaign urges employers everywhere to Bet on a Vet by hiring a veteran into their workplace. Campaign sponsored by The Coalition to Salute America's Heroes.

National Volunteer Fire Council- Make Me a Firefighter- With 87% of U.S. communities protected by volunteer firefighters, raising awareness of the need for volunteer fire service personnel is critical to ensuring public safety. The NVFC is asking for your support by airing these PSAs to help get the word out about this need. The PSAs end with a call-to-action to visit www.MakeMeAFirefighter.org, where viewers can learn more, find local volunteer opportunities, and connect directly with their respective local fire department.

World Wildlife Federation- Anything is Possible and Protect Our Earth- There are environmental issues that impact our planet. The only way we can spark change is to work together and truly make a difference. This PSA shows a beautiful array of animals to help educate on conservation efforts.

Make the Connection- US Department of Veterans- Strength over Silence- PSA designed to educate Veterans to reach out for mental health support. Reaching out is a strength not a weakness. There is help for our Vets.

Partnership for Drug- Free Kids Campaign- A series of PSAs to help understand the signs of drug use/abuse and the help that is available for those who need it.

-Heroin- Parents realize that their daughter has gone much further with drug experimentation than they ever imagined.

-Mind Your Meds- Make sure that the meds prescribed to you are being safeguarded against abuse.

-Pain Killers- Shows the importance of understanding the meds that you are taking.

-Opiates- A very big problem is the abundance of Opiates and how readily available they are.

-Susan- A mother opens up about her child's drug problem.

Narcanon- Addiction - While many people are affected by alcohol abuse, most don't know where to turn for help. This PSA lets people know that there is help for those in our community who feel like they have no control. Together, we can help individuals gain that control and get their life back.

Teacher Recruitment- I Dare You! - There's tremendous opportunity on the horizon in America's classrooms, with half of our teachers ready to retire over the next decade. Filling their shoes will be challenging, since 9 of 10 top-tier students don't view teaching as a desirable profession. The potential shortfall could hinder our ability to lead the global economy. The human costs could also be enormous, since research shows that students with top teachers earn an average of $50,000 more than their peers over the course of their lifetimes. America urgently needs a pipeline of engaged, energized students who want to teach, particularly African Americans and Hispanics who make up 40% of today's K-12 students. The teacher recruitment PSAs make a compelling case for teaching as an innovative, fulfilling career for those who want to make more of their lives.

Best Friend Animal Society- Featuring SCOOBY Doo. Everyone's favorite fun-loving, crime-solving cartoon canine, would like to suggest that you adopt your next pet and be a hero for homeless cats and dogs. Scooby would like to add: "It's not a mystery: Everyone needs a best friend."

Pediatric ER- R Baby- PSA that reminds all parents the Pediatric ER is very different from an adult ER and to remember to take your children to the experts that know children and can take care of their needs

Social Security Administration: Life's Journey- A PSA which reminds people that Social Security is there through all the phases of their life's journey. Securing today and tomorrow is the message.

Humane Society- Bentley- Each year, 6-8 million dogs and cats will enter shelters and rescue groups, yet only half will be adopted. This leaves millions of healthy and treatable dogs and cats who still need our help to find a home. Millions of Americans will look for a new cat or dog to bring home. This PSA encourages them to find their furry friends at shelters and rescue groups. While not every shelter cat or dog will be a social media star, they all will star as someone's new best friend. Air new PSAs to encourage your community to Start a Story. Adopt today.

US Food and Drug Administration- Safe Use of Acetaminophen- Acetaminophen is an active ingredient found in hundreds of over the counter (OTC) and prescription medicines that are used to relieve pain and fever. It is also combined with other active ingredients in medicines that treat allergy, cough, colds, flu, and sleeplessness. In prescription medicines, acetaminophen is found with other active ingredients to treat moderate to severe pain. Using two or more medicines that contain acetaminophen or using more acetaminophen than directed can cause serious liver damage. The FDA has taken action to improve consumer safety regarding the safe use of acetaminophen. To learn more visit www.fda.gov/otcpaininfo

Poison Control- Make the Call- 2,200,000 poisonings occur annually, with nearly 50% of all exposures involving children younger than age 6. To address this threat, the Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA) continues its Poison Help campaign with the "Make the Call" series of PSAs. The new installment of the campaign aims to reduce poisonings among Medicare and Medicaid audiences. By calling a Poison Help line, hospital visits can be prevented as 68% of calls are controlled by direction provided over the phone. Airing these PSAs can help us further the cause and help raise awareness for when to call the Poison Help line and help eliminate poisonings and the $1.8 billion in medical costs and productivity loss.

National Pediatric Cancer Foundation: PSA on the reality of Pediatric Cancer. Encourages viewers to give the gift of hope to children battling cancer.

City of Hope: City of Hope is a leading research and treatment center for cancer, diabetes and other life-threatening diseases. This PSA illustrates how their scientists are speeding life-saving discoveries to life.

Distracted Driving: While distracted driving from smartphone use is leading to even more car accidents and deaths, Florida remains one of only four states in the U.S. where texting-while-driving is a secondary offense, meaning law enforcement officers can just cite a motorist if they've committed another moving violation. Legislation making way through the Florida Legislature this Session could change that, but in the meantime, NFL legend Brett Favre is taking to the airwaves to warn Floridians of the dangers of such proclivity.

Cystic Fibrosis: This family focused PSA tells the viewer what CF is and what they can do to help research for a cure.

Senior Companions: By helping seniors in their daily live, you can make a friend and a difference. Help make independence a reality by joining Senior Companions.

Smile Train: Smile Train is an international children's charity with a sustainable approach to a single, solvable problem: cleft lip and palate. Millions of children in developing countries with unrepaired clefts live in shame, but more importantly, have difficulty eating, breathing and speaking. Cleft repair surgery is simple, and the transformation is immediate. Our sustainable model provides training and funding to empower local doctors in 85+ developing countries to provide 100%-free cleft repair surgery in their communities. Their message is "You can save a life."

American Academy of Pediatrics: For information on any of the below, visit <https://www.healthychildren.org/>.

- Drowning Prevention: The AAP encourages urges everyone to make water safety a number 1 priority. The AAP has teamed up with Olympic skier, Bode Miller and his wife, Morgan who lost their child to drowning. They share their story in hope that it will help prevent tragedy.

Make- a- Wish Foundation: For children battling a critical illness, a wish is more than just a dream. It can be a turning point in their lives. Wishes can give kids the strength to fight, to get better ... to grow up. And, it can help families focus on the possibilities of tomorrow and not on the challenges of today. This is why wishes need you. Help bring hope and strength to more children battling critical illnesses. They are asking for the public's help to enable them to grant the wish of every eligible child and transform lives one wish at a time.

Kung Fu Panda Fights Extinction: With millions of animals poached worldwide every year, WildAid and the Kung Fu Panda are championing endangered species by raising awareness about wildlife trafficking. In a series of video messages produced by WildAid with DreamWorks Animation, Po, the Kung Fu Panda, proclaims, “when the buying stops, the killing can too,” as he helps defend elephants who are killed for their ivory, rhinos for their horns, lions and tigers for their bones and skins, and pangolins for their scales and meat. He helps remind us that the “big guys” still need our help.

PanCan: PSA dedicated to Pancreatic Cancer Awareness. Quiet Riot’s Frankie Banali’s story is shared about how he was diagnosed and how patient outcomes can be improved.

Leukemia and Lymphoma: Information on what Leukemia and Lymphoma cancers are and how the viewer can help. WWE and the Foundation address the seriousness of these diseases.

What is Good Health – PSA designed to help everyone stay healthy. Informs on correct preventative actions that will keep themselves and others well.

YMCA - PSA to help the YMCA raise awareness of what the Y is currently doing to support communities and what it will do to help them rebuild when this is over and that we need everyone’s support now more than ever.

Kevin Love Foundation – Anxiety - PSA campaign created in partnership with the Kevin Love Fund and Headspace, a global leader in mindfulness and meditation, for those struggling to achieve stability in this time of overwhelming uncertainty. In this new PSA, Kevin Love encourages viewers to seek support and resources, be mindful and visit kevinlovedfund.org/headspace for free content

American Lung Association – COVID 19 Effects - The American Lung Association’s top priority is the public’s health and well-being. Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) is a lung infection, and those with chronic medical conditions are more susceptible to severe symptoms of COVID-19. They are trying to counter the spread of misinformation almost as quickly as the virus itself.

Shriner’s Hospital – Asking people to continue to help fund this organization.

NAMM (National Association of Music Merchants) Foundation – Believe in Music New PSA campaign titled, "Believe in Music. Believe in You." The PSA encourages everyone, especially young people, to make music as a means to bridge connections and positively influence the world.

St. Jude’s Hospital – PSA asking to help St. Jude lead the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases.

48 HOURS

04/04/20 48 HOURS: “Reuschel vs. Reuschel” - a report on the trial of Mike Reuschel for the attempted murder of his wife, Sue Reuschel. On February 3, 2018, police in Gainesville, Florida responded to a home invasion at the home of Mike and Sue Reuschel. According to Mike, an intruder entered the home and stabbed Sue, though Detective David Visconti did not find evidence consistent with that. After waking up from emergency surgery, Sue revealed there was no intruder and claimed Mike was the assailant; he was arrested for attempted murder. Mike’s daughter, Caroline, asserted Sue fabricated her story and recalled Sue being a heavy drinker, who exerted control over Mike’s behavior and was jealous of her. Surprisingly, Sue took an active role in planning Caroline’s wedding and paid for an expensive wedding dress. At her wedding, Caroline noticed a scar on Mike’s face and he revealed that Sue had been physically abusive for years. Sue was arrested for domestic battery in November 2017, a fact that only came out during Mike’s trial. According to Sue, Mike revealed that Caroline’s wedding went over budget by $150,000, which led to an argument that became physical. Afterwards, Sue agreed to move to a condo they owned and get counseling for anger and drinking problems. In February 2018, Sue returned to Gainesville to attempt a reconciliation. At dinner, a text from Caroline led to a fight. Mike and Sue drove home separately, with Sue sending Mike angry texts the whole way, including ones asking for a divorce. Sue stated that she was in the guest room when Mike came in, got on top on her and stabbed her in the stomach, cut her fingers, and slashed her wrists. He then laid in the bed next to her until she agreed to the story about an intruder. In Mike’s version of events, he entered the guest room to find Sue holding a knife and in an ensuing struggle, the knife entered her stomach without him realizing; they then laid in bed and discussed future vacation plans. Mike further claimed Sue cut her own wrists and came up with the intruder story for fear she would be arrested. Defense expert Michael Berkand testified the blood splatter around the bed was consistent with Mike’s statements. Prosecutors contested Berkland’s testimony and his credibility; they pointed to his fear of losing half of his fortune in a divorce as motive. After a four hours of deliberation, the jury returned with a guilty verdict on all counts. Mike received additional charges after a jailhouse informant claimed he tried to hire a hitman to kill Sue. After family and colleagues testified at his hearing, Mike was sentenced to 30 years in prison. On-screen text graphic: The murder-for-hire charges against Mike Reuschel were dropped. Interviewed: Caroline Reuschel, Mike’s daughter; Detective David Visconti, Gainesville Police Department; Didi Hoffman, Mike’s first wife; David Byron, trial co-prosecutor; Sean Brewer, trial co-prosecutor; Michael Berkland, blood stain pattern analyst; Mike Reuschel (by phone). 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Surviving Ted Bundy” – Karen Kleiner, Karen Chandler, and Cheryl Thomas, all attacked by serial killer Ted Bundy, tell their stories and their subsequent road to recovery. In the early morning hours of January 15th, 1978, Karen Kleiner was awakened by the slamming of her bedroom door, just before a man struck her with an object. He attacked her roommate Karen Chandler, after he noticed her stirring. Alarmed by the return of a Chi Omega sorority sister to the house on the Florida State University (FSU) campus, the man fled. The two women were taken to the emergency room and when they awoke, learned that the man had murdered and sexually assaulted two of their sorority sisters. Sheriff Ken Katsaris found bite marks on the deceased victims and was informed of another attack six blocks away, this time on Cheryl Thomas. He also received word from Colorado authorities about an escaped criminal in the area, Ted Bundy. Weeks later, another possible victim came to light, 12-year-old Kimberly Leach. On February 15th, Ted Bundy was arrested in a stolen car and immediately became a suspect. While none of the victims could positively identify Bundy, a Chi Omega sister saw his profile the night of the attacks and positively identified him from a lineup. Sheriff Katsaris obtained a warrant for a mold of Bundy’s teeth, which experts matched to the bite marks. During the trial, Bundy took an active role in his defense, deposing witnesses and serving on his own defense team for the FSU trial. On July 24th, after seven hours of deliberation, Bundy was found guilty on all counts and sentenced to death. He would subsequently be found guilty for Kimberly Leach’s death and given a second death sentence. Bundy appealed through the 1980s and after exhausting all appeals, offered information on more victims, in exchange for his sentence to be changed. He was executed January 24th 1989. On-screen text graphic: Ted Bundy confessed to at least thirty murders. But it is believed he may have killed over a hundred women in at least six states. Interviewed: Ken Katsaris, former Leon County sheriff; Karen Chandler, victim; Kathy Kleiner, victim; Cheryl Thomas, victim; Tony Cimino, Kathy’s friend; Larry Simpson, former Leon County assistant state attorney; Michael DeShields, Kathy’s son; Scott Rubin, Kathy’s second husband. 48 HOURS: “Crosley Green’s Hard Time” – an update to “Last Chance for Freedom” (OAD: 05/30/15; updated 08/19/17), which was a follow-up to both “Reasonable Doubt” (OAD: 11/01/99); and its retitled rebroadcast, which included an update: “Impossible Mission” (OAD: 07/10/00). This update continues the report on Crosley Green, who remains in a Florida prison. Despite his claims of innocence, Green was convicted and sentenced to death in 1990 for the April 1989 murder of Charles “Chip” Flynn in a Titusville, Florida orange grove. Green, along with the help of lawyers and private investigators, has spent decades trying to prove his innocence. At the time of the murder, Green was a small-time drug dealer who said he was two miles away when Flynn was killed. Green was arrested after Flynn’s former girlfriend, Kim Hallock, told police that she and Flynn had been carjacked by a black man with a gun and driven to a remote orange grove. Flynn was killed, but Hallock escaped. She identified Green from a photo lineup. Green’s nine state appeals are exhausted, but his current attorneys Keith Harrison, Bob Rhoad and Jeane Thomas, along with an original private investigator Joe Moura (now a 48 HOURS consultant) have one last hope, federal court. They believe they have enough evidence to prove that the conviction is part of a distinct pattern and practice of government misconduct in Brevard County. Three other men, Bill Dillion, Juan Ramos, and Wilton Dedge have had their convictions overturned; two of them were also prosecuted by Christopher White. Green’s attorneys believe that what makes this case different is a mountain of evidence that demonstrates Crosley Green is actually innocent. At the heart of their case are notes from Assistant State’s Attorney Christopher White’s meeting with officers Mark Rixey and Diane Clarke (who spoke to 48 HOURS for the first time for the 05/30/15 broadcast). Green’s lawyer says that their notes say they think the girl (former girlfriend Kim Hallock) killed Flynn. In June 2017, the 11th Circuit Federal Court of Appeals said it would allow Green’s attorneys to argue in person why his case should not have been dismissed. The Florida Attorney General’s Office continues to fight to uphold Crosley Green’s conviction, claiming Green failed to meet a filing deadline for his appeal. UPDATE: In July 2018, a federal judge ruled that withholding prosecutor notes from Green’s defense violated his right to a fair trial. His conviction was overturned and a new trial was ordered. The state of Florida appealed. On March 12, 2020, the Federal Appeals Court in Jacksonville heard from Green’s defense team and state attorneys. On-screen text graphic: 48 Hours will continue to follow Crosley Green’s case. Interviewed: Crossley Green; Keith Harrison and Jeane Thomas, Green’s attorneys; Diane Clarke and Mark Rixey, Brevard County officers; David Stroup, Chip’s friend; Christopher White, prosecutor; Charles Flynn, Chip’s father; Tim Curtis, who sold the car to Chip; Lisa DiMeo, criminologist; Sheila Green, Crosley’s sister; Kenneth Nunn, University of Florida law professor; O’Connor Green, Crosley’s brother; Degrah Green, Crosley’s sister; Shuma Green, Crosley’s son; Shirley Green, Crosley’s sister. (See also: “Reasonable Doubt”, OAD: 11/01/99; its retitled rebroadcast, which included an update: “Impossible Mission”, OAD: 07/10/00; and 48 HOURS: “Last Chance for Freedom”, a follow-up to both prior broadcasts, OAD: 05/30/15 - an updated rebroadcast aired on 08/19/17.) 04/25/20

48 HOURS: “The Murder of Haley Anderson” – a report on the murder of Binghamton University nursing student Haley Anderson by fellow nursing student Orlando Tercero. In early March 2018, Haley Anderson’s friends were concerned after she didn’t show up to a friend’s poetry reading. They tracked her iPhone to Tercero’s apartment, where her friend Josie Artin climbed through the window and found her body in Tercero’s bedroom. Footage from surveillance cameras around the home showed Anderson entering with Tercero on March 8th, but never leaving. Investigators believed Tercero attempted suicide, based on a tie hung in a doorway and a note he left, in which they believed Tercero admitted to killing Anderson. Tercero was seen leaving the home one last time before driving to New York’s JFK airport, where he boarded a flight to Nicaragua. Four days later, his mother drove him to a hospital after another failed suicide attempt, where he was arrested by Nicaraguan authorities. Because of Tercero’s dual citizenship, he was not extradited to the United States. In October 2019, he was tried for the crime of “femicide”; the Broome County District Attorney’s office aided the prosecution. Tercero’s attorney presented a temporary insanity defense, with a court appointed psychologist as his only witness. After a 90-minute recess, the judge declared Tercero guilty. Two weeks later, he was sentenced to 30 years in prison. On February 4, 2020, Tercero appeared in appeals court, where his attorney argued for a new psychological evaluation, to be conducted by a forensic psychologist. Magistrates quickly denied the request. Additionally, the defense argued that because Tercero was indicted in the U.S. for second-degree murder, the court was obligated to adhere to the lighter sentencing guidelines associated with it. On March 10, 2020, the appellate court denied that part of the appeal as well. On-screen text graphic: Tonight’s 48 Hours is dedicated to Ana Real. Interviewed: Josie Artin, Haley’s friend; Karen Anderson, Haley’s mother; Kevin Ocampo, Haley’s boyfriend; Jesse Bua, Tercero’s friend and roommate; Sydney Matuszak, Haley’s friend; Lieutenant Cory Minor, Binghamton Police; Steve Cornwell, former Broome County (New York) district attorney; Daniel Urcuyo, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); Juan David Aleman, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); Ashley Lopez, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); Estephanie Moroney, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); and an unidentified female friend of Tercero, who asked to remain anonymous (in Nicaragua). 05/02/20 48 HOURS: “What Ever Happened to Mary Day?” – a report on the search to find a young girl who was last seen in 1981. In 2002, Sherrie Calgaro filed a police report about her sister Mary Day, who went missing in 1981 at the age of 13. Sherrie had been adopted by a foster family, while Mary and their middle sister Kathy, returned to their mother Charlotte and her new husband, William Houle. Mary was last seen at the Houle home in Seaside, California. William accused Mary of poisoning his dog, which led to a physical altercation. Charlotte and William claimed that Mary ran away, but they never filed a police report -- allegedly so they could continue claiming the Social Security checks Mary was receiving because of her deceased father. In March 2003, authorities canvassed the former home of the Houles with cadaver dogs, all of which focused on one spot in the backyard. After digging, police found the decaying sneaker of a young girl, but no body. A month later, Detective Joe Bertaina interviewed Charlotte and William after locating them in Kansas. William recalled the altercation with Mary and admitted to striking her. He claimed he could not have killed her, but admitted to feeling “possessed” at the time and that the “demon” inside him could have. Detective Bertaina and Police Chief Steve Cercone took this as a confession, but the district attorney was not ready to bring charges. In November of that year, a routine traffic stop in Phoenix, Arizona, turned up a woman claiming to be Mary Day. Authorities performed a DNA test on “Phoenix Mary” and confirmed she was Charlotte Houle’s daughter. The police closed the case and Sherrie invited Mary to move in with her, but she soon began to question if this woman was her sister. Sherrie noticed Mary often went by the name “Monica Devereaux” and had a peculiar accent. Mary also sent an email to Detective Bertaina saying she had been lying about who she was. Despite this, the case remained closed. However, in 2008 Chief Cercone was informed that an unrelated investigation at Fort Ord had resulted in cadaver dogs focusing on a second home the Houles had lived in. Once again, police were unable to find a body. Chief Cercone hired private investigator Mark Clark to look into the case. Clark’s theory was that the Houles murdered Mary in 1981 and that “Phoenix Mary” was a previously unknown daughter of Charlotte’s that they enticed to impersonate Mary with the promise of money. In 2017, acting Police Chief Judy Veloz had further testing conducted that showed “Phoenix Mary’s” DNA matched Charlotte as well as the birth father. She further concluded that that gaps in Mary’s memory were due to a traumatic life and alcoholism. Her report closed the investigation. On-screen text graphic: Mary Day died nine days after Judy Veloz interviewed her. There was no funeral. Interviewed: Detective Joe Bertaina, police officer; Steve Cercone, former police chief; Sherrie Calgaro, Mary’s sister; Kathy Pires, Mary’s sister; Mark Clark, private investigator; Judy Veloz, acting police chief; Shaun Moore, CEO, Trueface. (C: Maureen Maher – P: Chuck Stevenson)

05/09/20 48 HOURS: “Tracking the Murders of Israel Keyes” – a report on the capture and interrogation of a confessed serial killer and the search for more of his victims. On the evening of February 1, 2012 in Anchorage, Alaska, Samantha Koenig went missing from her job at a roadside coffee stand. Security footage showed what appeared to be an individual with a gun leading her away. Three weeks later, her boyfriend would receive text messages, which led to law enforcement finding a picture of Samantha and a ransom demand attached to a bulletin board at a local park. Samantha’s father deposited some of the ransom money in her account. A masked man was caught on camera making a withdrawal with Samantha’s ATM card, but police were unable to reach him in time. Subsequent withdrawals would occur a week later in New Mexico and Arizona; on March 13, a Texas state trooper would spot the car seen in ATM surveillance footage. A search of it would produce Samantha’s ID, ATM card, a gun, and the disguise seen in the Anchorage ATM footage. The driver was Israel Keyes; he was arrested and extradited to Alaska. Keyes was willing to give law enforcement information on his crimes, but asked for the promise of the death penalty and certain “treats,” such as a cigar, candy or Starbucks coffee, over the course of the investigation. Keyes confessed to chaining Samantha up in his shed, sexually assaulting her, and eventually killing her and dumping her body in a lake. Over seven months of interviews, U.S. attorneys would eventually get him to reveal his part in the deaths of Bill and Lorraine Currier of Vermont in 2011, a woman in Bend, Oregon in the late 1990s, and an individual in Washington State in 2005 or 2006. He also revealed the existence of “kill caches” of guns and ammunition he buried around the country. Though he did not take responsibility, he is also suspected in the death of Deborah Feldman in Upstate New York. Keyes committed suicide December 1, 2012. Based on drawings of skulls found in his cell and his travels through the U.S. and Canada, FBI agents believe there are more victims yet to be discovered. On-screen text graphic: If you have information about the Israel Keyes case, call the FBI at 1-800-CALL-FBI. Interviewed: Michelle Tasker, Samantha’s friend; Jolene Goeden, FBI special agent; Katherine Nelson, FBI special agent; Frank Russo, Anchorage assistant U.S. attorney; Ted Halla, FBI special agent; Colleen Sanders, FBI special agent; John Smith, Keyes’s former associate; Dezarae Smith, Keyes’s former associate; Sherri Odegaard, mother of possible Keyes victim; Eric Jonson, Keyes’s former coworker. 05/16/20 48 HOURS: “The Disappearance of Kelly Dwyer” (9:00 - 10:00p) – In October 2013, Kelly Dwyer vanished after a night out in Milwaukee. After failing to report for work on October 12th, concerned co-workers attempted to call and check her social media accounts. Investigators learned Dwyer’s phone was dead, her social media accounts down, and debit card unused. Dwyer was last seen on October 10th, entering her boyfriend Kris Zocco’s apartment. Zocco told investigators he and Dwyer engaged in drug use, sex, and then both passed out. Zocco says Dwyer left his apartment the next morning around 9am, though security footage shows otherwise. After finding drugs in his apartment, Zocco was arrested for drug possession. While in custody, the police obtained a warrant for his cell phone and found disturbing pictures of Dwyer and video of Zocco engaged in a sex act where Dwyer appears to be in distress. Although considered a person of interest, Zocco could still only be charged with drug possession. On a second search of his apartment, a police cadaver dog alerted them to odor of decomposing human remains. In a spare bedroom, the police found a hard drive containing child pornography and were able to arrest him again. Zocco was convicted of possession of child pornography, plead guilty to additional drug charges, and was sentenced 19 years. A year and a half after Dwyer vanished, her remains were discovered by a local man on a deserted road about 45 miles west of Milwaukee. Five years after Dwyer vanished, Zocco went on trial and was charged with first-degree reckless homicide, hiding a corpse, and strangulation and suffocation. After nine days of testimony, Zocco was found guilty on all charges and sentenced to thirty-one years in addition to his 19 year sentence. Original on-screen text graphic: Kris Zocco will be eligible for release in 2065. He will be 90 years old. Zocco plans to appeal his homicide conviction. On-screen text graphic for 05/16/20 rebroadcast: Kris Zocco will be eligible for release in 2065. He will be 90 years old. Interviewed: Sara Hill, Milwaukee Assistant District Attorney; Chanell Royston, Dwyer’s friend; Ryan Hader, Dwyer’s yoga instructor; Joyce Frye, Kris Zocco’s mother; Det. Katherine Spano, Milwaukee police; Det. Tammy Tramel-McClain, Milwaukee police; Det. Erik Gulbrandson, Milwaukee police; Craig Mastantuono and Rebecca Coffee, Kris Zocco’s defense attorneys. 05/16/20 48 HOURS: “The Missing Children of Lori Vallow Daybell” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on two missing children and the mother who refuses to speak about their whereabouts. In 2015, Lori Vallow met Charles Vallow, who would become her fourth husband. The two quickly fell in love and married, creating a family with Tylee Ryan, Lori’s daughter from a previous marriage, and the recently adopted JJ Vallow, Charles’ sister’s grandson. After living in Hawaii, the family moved to Arizona in 2017, where Lori began paying less attention to the children, leading to a rift in the family. In early 2019, Lori left for two months to see author and podcaster Chad Daybell in Rexburg, Idaho. Charles filed for divorce, citing murder threats from Lori and her becoming involved in extreme religious beliefs, which included her leading a small group of survivors following the apocalypse. On July 11, 2019, Charles arrived at Lori’s home to take JJ to school. An hour later, he was shot and killed by Lori’s brother Alex Cox, who claimed self-defense. Two months later, Lori moved her and the children to Rexburg. In early October 2019, Lori reportedly began preparation to marry Chad, however he was still married. Weeks later, Chad’s wife Tammy unexpectedly died; no autopsy was performed. Two weeks later, Lori and Chad married in Hawaii. In November 2019, Rexburg police performed a welfare check at the prompting of JJ’s grandparents, Kay and Larry Woodcock. Lori claimed the children were with a friend in Arizona, however when Arizona authorities followed up on this, they found out it was a lie. Rexburg police returned to execute a search warrant and discovered Lori and Chad had left town. It was eventually discovered they were on an extended honeymoon in Hawaii. On January 25, 2020, Lori was ordered to produce Tylee and JJ to Idaho authorities. She did not and was arrested. On March 5, 2020, she was extradited back to Idaho and charged with child abandonment. In April 2020, authorities began looking into Lori and Chad’s possible involvement in Tammy Daybell’s death. In May 2020, Lori asked a judge to reduce her million-dollar bond. Her request was denied. The FBI has turned its attention to Yellowstone National Park, where the last photo of Tylee from September 2019 was taken. On-screen text graphic: If you have any information about Tylee and JJ, contact Rexburg Police (208) 359-3000. 05/23/20 48 HOURS: “The Case Against Brooke Skylar Richardson” – In April 2017, Brooke Skylar Richardson, who suffered from an eating disorder, learned she was pregnant and told no one. Then, on May 7, 2017, less than 48 hours after her high school prom, she gave birth to a daughter in her home, still telling no one. In July 2017, she visited an OB-GYN, told the doctors her baby was stillborn, and that she buried the body in the backyard of the family home. The doctors notified authorities and Richardson was interrogated by police without a lawyer. She was charged with a number of counts, including aggravated murder, which carries a mandatory life sentence. Richardson’s parents open up about their daughter, the lasting impact of the incredible attention the case generated, and they address her eating disorder and the impact that may have had on how she hid the pregnancy. The Richardson’s maintain a false statement was coerced by police. While on trial, no one expected a quick verdict; but after just four hours of deliberation, Richardson was sentenced. She was found not guilty on almost all charges, excepting gross abuse of a corpse. The family feels not taking the plea was the right decision. Though she initially faced life in prison, the judge sentenced Richardson to three years of probation. Original on-screen text graphic: Following the verdict, Annabelle’s remains were returned to the Richardson family. She was laid to rest in a private ceremony this week. On-screen text graphic for 5/23/20 rebroadcast: Following the verdict, Annabelle’s remains were returned to the Richardson family. She was laid to rest in a private ceremony. Includes interviews with Scott and Kim Richardson, Brooke Richardson’s parents; Lieutenant John Faine; defense attorney Charlie M. Rittgers; Dr. Susan Brown, the assistant Warren County Coroner; obstetrician Dr. John White; clinical psychologist Dr. Stuart Bassman; and District Attorney David Fornshell. 05/30/20 48 HOURS: “The Hollywood Ripper” (9:00 – 10:00p) and “The Hollywood Ripper on Trial” (10:00 – 11:00p) – a two-part report on the investigation of Michael Gargiulo, the serial killer known as “The Hollywood Ripper.” 48 HOURS has been working on the case since the summer of 2008, airing its first account in 2011; this broadcast contains footage from previously aired editions. Includes: (1) “The Hollywood Ripper” – details on the murders of four women, all linked to Michael Gargiulo. In 1993, Tricia Pacaccio was murdered on the doorstep of her family’s Glenview, Illinois home; Gargiulo was a 17-year-old high school student living around the corner. He eventually headed to Los Angeles, California to try and become an actor. In 2001, 22-year-old fashion student Ashley Ellerin was stabbed 47 times, the very night she was supposed to attend a party with actor Ashton Kutcher. In 2005, El Monte resident Maria Bruno, a mother of four, was also killed, and in 2008, Michelle Murphy was attacked in her apartment in Santa Monica, but survived. Gargiulo lived near all of his victims. Blood evidence and DNA, which had been filed in the National Database by Cook County, Illinois authorities, led investigators to Gargiulo and he was arrested and charged for his California crimes. After the 2011 broadcast of 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Boy Next Door”, two key witnesses, Temer Leary and Anthony DiLorenzo, came forward with evidence which when coupled with the DNA evidence, allowed authorities to charge Gargiulo for the Pacaccio murder in Illinois. (2) “The Hollywood Ripper on Trial” – it has taken Michael Gargiulo longer to go to trial than any other inmate in the history of the L.A. County Jail, nearly eleven years. The trial began on May 2, 2019 and included testimony from survivor Michelle Murphy, actor Ashton Kutcher, Gargiulo’s former best friend Mirko Hoffman, Anthony DiLorenzo, and Pacaccio family members. After three months, he was found guilty on all counts. It is now up to Illinois officials in Cook County to try Gargiulo for the murder of Tricia Pacaccio. Original on-screen text graphic: The penalty phase of Michael Gargiulo’s Los Angeles trial is scheduled to begin on October 7, 2019. He will be sentenced to either the death penalty or life in prison. Cook County officials intend to try Gargiulo in Illinois for the murder of Tricia Pacaccio. On-screen text graphic for 05/30/20 rebroadcast: Michael Gargiulo’s sentencing has been delayed. Interviewed: Rick, Diane and Doug Pacaccio, Tricia’s father, mother and brother; Karen Jones, friend of Tricia’s; Ray Salihovich, Illinois police officer; Justin Peterson, Chris Duran and Jennifer Disisto, friends of Ashley Ellerin; Tom Small, Los Angeles Police Department homicide detective; Temple Brown, Los Angeles filmmaker; Scott Olsen, friend of Michael Gargiulo; Jack Reed and Mark Baldwin, Cook County sheriff’s detectives; Mark Lillienfeld, homicide detective with the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department; Richard Lewis, Santa Monica Police Sergeant; Jack Blakey, head of cold case prosecutions for the Cook County state’s attorney; Temer Leary and Anthony DiLorenzo, Gargiulo’s former co-workers who contacted 48 HOURS; Mary Fulginiti, former federal prosecutor, 48 HOURS consultant; Kris Mohandie, forensic psychologist, 48 HOURS consultant; and Nathan Lents, forensic expert, John Jay College of Criminal Justice. 60 MINUTES

- 06/07/20 “Nation in Crisis” – an interview with Sherrilyn Ifill, president of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund. She explains the context of George Floyd’s murder within America’s history of racial injustice, and discusses the national response. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Graham Messick)
- “A Long Siege” – a report on the attempted reopening of businesses in San Antonio, Texas, after closures due to COVID-19. Many small businesses face new challenges created by health restrictions, while PPP (Paycheck Protection Program) loans near their end date. Includes interviews with Elizabeth Johnson, Zanel Pizarro, Geronimo Lopez, and Jackie Galvan, whose businesses have all been impacted by the shutdown; and Ron Nirenberg, mayor of San Antonio. (See also: “The State of Texas”, OAD: 05/03/20) (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)
- “Failure To Protect” – a report on Oklahoma’s failure to protect law, which punishes people who have been judged as having enabled child abuse. With mothers often facing harsher sentences than their abusive partners, many feel the law is sexist. Includes interviews with Toni Hall, who went to jail under failure to protect; Megan Lambert, an Oklahoman lawyer for the American Civil Liberties Union; Emily Redman, a district attorney who has prosecuted failure to protect cases; and Kevin Sitt, Oklahoma’s Republican governor. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Guy Campanile, Lucy Hatcher)
- 06/07/20 60 MINUTES PRESENTS (8:00 – 8:30p)
- “The Lost Music” – a profile of Francesco Lotoro, the Italian composer and pianist who has worked 30 years to recover, catalog, and perform music written during the Holocaust – including works written and performed secretly in Nazi concentration camps. Lotoro converted to Judaism after gravitating towards the religion from a young age. At the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp, inmate orchestras were set up by the Nazis for their entertainment. The main function of the Auschwitz Camp Orchestra was to play marches and concerts. As an entire generation of musicians and artists were imprisoned or killed, Lotoro feels the course of European music would have differed drastically with their influence. He has catalogued over 8,000 pieces of music, which range from symphonies to tunes scribbled on discarded paper. Lotoro collects, arranges, and sometimes completes the works with great care. He argues the point of connection between life and death, in a place like a concentration camp, is music. Prisoners felt the music allowed them a sense of dignity, which Lotoro continues to work to preserve. Includes interviews with Bret Werb, music curator at the U.S. Holocaust Museum; Anita Lasker-Wallfisch, Holocaust survivor and former Auschwitz women’s orchestra member; Waldemar Kropinski, son of composer Jozef Kropinski; and Christoph Kulisiewicz, son of composer Aleksander Kulisiewicz. (See also: “The Music of Auschwitz”, OAD: 04/16/78) (C: Jon Wertheim – P: Katherine Davis) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 12/15/19 on 60 MINUTES)
- 06/14/20 “The College Test” – a report on how American universities are addressing ongoing coronavirus concerns. Many schools hope to open in the fall before the predicted second wave of the virus, though uncertain financial conditions threaten some students’ ability to continue their educations. Includes interviews with Kevin Guskiewicz, chancellor of the University of North Carolina; Dr. Myron Cohen, director of UNC’s institute for global health and infectious diseases; Reeves Moseley, UNC’s student body president; Katherine Rowe, president of the University of North Carolina; John King, CEO and president of The Education Trust; and Katherine Trejo, a college student. (C: John Dickerson – P: Draggan Mihailovich)
- “Exhume The Truth” – a report on the 1921 Greenwood Massacre in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The racist massacre of a prosperous black community resulted in the deaths of an estimated 300 African Americans. Though few people outside the Tulsa community are aware of the massacre, historians look to exhume what are believed to be mass graves in an effort to shed light on the tragic event. Includes interviews with John W. Franklin, whose grandfather was a resident of Greenwood; Reverend Robert Turner, reverend of Vernon AME Church; Damario Solomon-Simmons, a Tulsa attorney; G.T. Bynum, mayor of Tulsa; Scott Hammerstedt, a senior researcher at the Oklahoma Archeological Survey; and Phoebe Stubblefield, University of Florida forensic anthropologist. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)
- “Three Empty Chairs” – a report on The Merit Systems Protection Board. The MSPB reviews employment disputes regarding civil service workers, including arguments over discrimination and whistleblowing. With an insufficient number of board members, the government’s lack of accountability is called into question. Includes interviews with Jim Eisenmann, former general counsel and executive director of the MSPB; Debra Roth, an attorney; Rick Bright, a whistleblower; Chris Marcus, who worked for the VA; and Senate Republican Majority Leader Mitch McConnell. (See also: “Whistleblower”, OAD: 05/17/20) (C: Norah O’Donnell – P: Keith Sharman, Alex J. Diamond)
- “Ender” – a preview of “60 in 6”, an original news program produced for the mobile app Quibi. This week’s launch features Wesley Lowery reporting from Minneapolis and includes an interview with George Floyd’s brother Philonise. (C: John Dickerson)

- 06/14/20 60 MINUTES PRESENTS: “A 60 MINUTES Wildlife Tour” (8:00 – 9:00p)
“Great White” – a report on great white sharks and their movement closer to U.S. coasts. The correlation between increased sightings and attacks on people is examined, along with common misconceptions about the animal. Whitaker follows scientists on an exhibition to explore the intricacies of tracking sharks. Includes interviews with Dr. Greg Skomal, chief shark scientist for the Massachusetts Department on Marine Fisheries; Wayne Davis, a pilot for the Atlantic White Shark Conservancy; researcher Megan Winton; Chris Fischer, founder of the research ship Ocearch; Oearch chief scientist Bob Hueter; and Oearch Fishing Master Brett McBride. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Rome Hartman) (OAD: 09/29/19 on 60 MINUTES)
“The Wolves of Yellowstone” – a report on the reintroduction of wolves to Yellowstone Park and its environs by the U.S. Park Service. Though initially met with skepticisms, the wolves have had unforeseen and positive impacts on everything from tourism to the park’s ecological system. Includes interviews with: Doug Smith, Yellowstone wolf research program; Glen Mai, retired FBI agent; Kathy Lombard retired cop; Rick McIntyre park service employee; Randy Newberg, Montana hunter; Erik Kalsta, Montana rancher. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Rome Hartman, Sara Kuzmarov) (OAD: 12/23/18 on 60 MINUTES)
- 06/21/20 “The Chief” – an interview with Minneapolis Police Chief Medaria Arradondo. Though Arradondo took action against the officers involved in the killing of George Floyd, many question the department’s handling of the murder in addition to its history of dealing with racism. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Sarah Koch)
“The Opioid Playbook” – a report on corrupt sales tactics used to encourage doctors to prescribe opioids. Law enforcement is punishing many pharmaceutical executives and doctors for engaging in bribery and other unethical tactics as incentives for prescribing the drugs. Includes interviews with Greg Tremaglio, senior special agent of the undercover arm of the FDA’s DC Office of Criminal Investigations; Alec Burlakoff, former Vice President of Sales of Insys Therapeutics; and Fred Wyshak, Nathaniel Yeager, and David Lazarus, federal prosecutors in Boston. (See also: “The Whistleblower”, OAD: 10/15/17; “Too Big To Prosecute”, OAD: 12/17/17; “The Rockford File” OAD: 05/06/18; “Saving a Generation”, OAD: 05/13/18; “Inside the Epidemic”, OAD: 09/30/18; “Taking Aim at Opioids”, OAD: 12/16/18; and “The Label”, OAD: 02/24/19) (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Sam Hornblower) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
Update: “Targeting the Truth” (OAD: 11/10/19)
- 06/28/20 “Voting During the Pandemic” – a report on the impact COVID-19 is having on voting. With the presidential primary months away, many officials hope to offer ways to vote while keeping social distancing protocol in mind. Includes interviews with Tony Evers, Governor of Wisconsin; Justin Clark, senior counsel for President Donald Trump’s campaign; Neil Albrecht, head of Milwaukee’s election commission; Sherrilyn Ifill, president of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund; Marc Elias, the Democratic party’s lead attorney on voting rights; and Beverly Clarno, Oregon’s secretary of state. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman, Ali Rawaf)
“The Wild West of Testing” – a report on the inaccurate spread of data due to invalid coronavirus antibody tests. Federal officials knew of the tests’ inaccuracies; their ethics are now being called into question as the nation expects a second wave of the virus. Includes interviews with Robert Castaneda, who owns two emergency clinics in Laredo, Texas; Dr. Hector Gonzalez, former director of health in Laredo; Dr. Alex Marson, an immunology researcher at the University of California, San Francisco; Dr. Patrick Hsu, an assistant professor of bioengineering at UC Berkeley; Dr. Margaret Hamburg, former FDA commissioner; and Representative Raja Krishnamoorthi, a Democratic Congressman from Illinois. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Oriana Zill de Granados, Emily Gordon)
“Probiotics” – a report on probiotics. Probiotics are manufactured to replicate the bacteria we already have in our gut microbiome. Though recommended by some doctors, many scientists say the benefits are unproven and unclear. Includes interviews with Dr. Jeff Gordon, a researcher of the microbiome at Washington University in St. Louis; Dr. Patricia Hibberd, an infectious disease specialist and a professor of medicine at Boston University; Dr. Dan Merenstein, a professor of family medicine at Georgetown University; Eran Elinav and Eran Segal, professors at Israel’s Weizmann Institute of Science; and Dr. Frank Greer, professor emeritus of pediatrics at the University of Wisconsin. 06/06/20

48 HOURS: “good cop / bad cop” - On April 9, 2015, 28-year-old single mother Heather Bogle was last seen leaving the parking lot after working the night shift at the Whirlpool Corporation in Clyde, Ohio. The day after her disappearance, Heather’s car was located with her body inside the trunk. The cause of death was two shots to the back, penetrating her vital organs. Heather’s hair and fingernails were cut to prevent DNA detection. Sean O’Connell, the lead investigator into Heather’s murder, pursued three innocent people of color: single mother Keyona Bor, Omar Satchel, and Kayree Jeffery – all while the real killer walked free. For over two months, O’Connell tried to push his theory that Keyona, Omar, and Kayree worked together in killing Heather, but DNA found under Heather’s cuticle didn’t match. O’Connell omitted all DNA findings in his reports in seeking an indictment. The Bogle file was turned over to the State Bureau of Investigations and it was discovered O’Connell was attempting to indict innocent people for murder. The Sandusky County Prosecutor opened a criminal investigation which led to O’Connell being charged with misleading a public official and destroying, concealing, and tampering with evidence. The new sheriff of Sandusky County, Chris Hilton, took over the Bogle investigation. After using GPS technology, investigators found an electronic trail of coordinates showing Heather’s exact movement after leaving work. The phone GPS placed Heather in the trailer home of fellow Whirlpool employee, Daniel Myers. Investigators questioned Daniel, who claimed he didn’t know Heather well and declined to provide a DNA sample. The authorities returned with a warrant to collect Myer’s DNA and received confirmation it was a match for DNA found under Heather’s cuticle. Myer’s was arrested and charged with the murder of Heather Bogle. Upon searching his trailer, the police realized they were dealing with a violent sexual predator. Six years prior to Bogle’s murder, Leigh Ann Sluder, Daniels’ ex-girlfriend and mother of his son was found dead by a single gunshot to her chest; authorities in that case ruled it a suicide. Leigh Ann’s sister, Loriann, believes Daniel murdered her sister and is hoping for justice through another victim’s case. Before prosecutors could begin Myer’s trial, they had to publicly discredit the original investigator’s findings. The day before his trial was to start, Sean O’Connell finally admitted to a mistake and plead guilty to one felony count of tampering with evidence by omitting the DNA results which excluded his three suspects and was sentenced to two years in state prison. After failed suicide attempts to delay the start of his trial, Daniel Myer’s plead guilty to Heather Bogle’s murder and was sent to prison for life with no chance of parole. Epilogue: It’s still not over in Sandusky County. After we finished reporting on this story, Prosecutor Tim Braun was accused of sexual harassment by at least four women who worked with him. A special prosecutor has been assigned to investigate. No conclusions have been reached. No charges have been filed. (Epilogue not included in the 06/06/20 rebroadcast.) Interviewed: Chris Hilton, sheriff, Sandusky County, Ohio; Sean O’Connell, lead investigator of the Heather Bogle investigation; Tim Braun, prosecutor, Sandusky County, Ohio; Matt Westerhold, managing editor, Sandusky Register; Keyona Bor, suspect; and Leigh Ann Sluder’s sister Loriann Hayley. 48 HOURS: “Defending DJ” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report about Danroy “DJ” Henry and the dedication and struggles his family endured trying to restore their son’s reputation after he was shot dead in Pleasantville, New York, by police officer Aaron Hess in 2010. This event triggered a seven-year journey for the family as they searched for answers about what really happened. During a night out with his teammates, a fight broke out among other restaurant patrons and police were called to the scene. DJ and his friends decided to leave. They were waiting in his car in a fire lane prior to their departure. Police approached the vehicle and told DJ he should move; his friends said DJ started to slowly move away. The police claim that DJ tried to mow officers down with his car when Officer Hess approached and that was how Officer Hess ended up on the hood of the car, shooting his weapon and fatally injuring DJ as he sat behind the wheel. The police claimed Officer Hess shot because he feared for his life. DJ’s friends painted a far different version of the incident. Witnesses agreed, also saying that medical attention was slow to respond. The Henry family vowed to learn the truth – even if it was bad. They wanted to know what happened to their son and filed a lawsuit. Four years after the shooting, the family was still hopeful. In 2016, the Henry family accepted the decision in a wrongful death suit against the Village of Pleasantville and Aaron Hess and were awarded $6 million. In 2017, they settled a wrongful death suit with the town of Mount Pleasant for an undisclosed amount and something more valuable to them: a public apology. Seven years after DJ’s death, they cleared his name. No criminal charges were brought in the case. Today, Aaron Hess works in private security. The Henry family has founded the DJ Henry Dream Foundation to honor their son’s memory. On-screen text graphic: Chief Louis Alagno retired in 2013. In 2015, New York State law changed. Police shootings of unarmed civilians are now automatically assigned to a special prosecutor. 48 HOURS: “Who Wanted Howard Pilmar Dead?” (10:00 – 11:00p) – In March 1996, Howard Pilmar, a successful businessman, was found murdered in the headquarters of his office supply and coffee shop in New York City. Howard’s body was found in a large pool of blood on the fourth floor offices of King Office Supply; he was stabbed over forty times. There was no sign of a forced entry and nothing was taken from his wallet. Investigators couldn’t figure out who would have a motive. During the early stages of the investigation, police questioned Evan Wald, Howards’ brother-in-law; they noticed cuts on his left hand and that he was asking questions about the security system at King Office Supply. Police then looked at Roslyn, Howard’s wife, who inherited more than $1 million in life insurance, real estate holdings, plus the family business that was started by Howard’s father. Roslyn worked as a dental assistant and bookkeeper for sixteen years; police discovered she embezzled hundreds of thousands of dollars from her former employer, Dr. Stanley Weinstock. Roslyn was under pressure to pay back the stolen money, and almost fifteen thousand dollars to New York State in back taxes. The police continued to investigate without cooperation from Roslyn. The NYPD put posters up asking the public for help in solving this case. The posters kept disappearing and through surveillance footage it was discovered that Evan and his sister Janna were tearing down the posters. A year after the murder, Roslyn was arrested for embezzlement and plead guilty; she was given probation after paying back the money. In 1999, Evan Wald was ordered to submit a blood sample. Evan Wald’s blood was a match to a blood drop found near Howard’s body. This was still not enough for prosecutors, so the case remained unsolved. Manhattan prosecutors spent four years reviewing evidence and searching for new witnesses. On August 15, 2017, Roslyn Pilmar and Evan Wald were arrested for the murder of Howard Pilmar. Twenty-three years later, Roslyn and Evan were found guilty of second-degree murder; in July 2019, they were both sentenced to twenty-five years to life. On-screen text graphic: Roslyn Pilmar and Evan Wald are appealing the verdicts. Interviewed: Carol Pilmar, Howard’s stepmother; Frank Pilmar, Howard’s father; Ron Tucker, King Office Supply salesman; Roger Parrino, Midtown South detective; Janna Wald, Roslyn Pilmar and Evan Wald’s sister; Rhonda Pilmar Cooper and Heather Pilmar, Howards’ sister’s; Neal Klein, Dr. Stanley Weinstock’s accountant; Daniel Gotlin, Evan Wald’s attorney; Sam Talkin, Roslyn Pilmar’s attorney; and Sam Resnicow and Ryan Smith, jurors, Pilmar-Wald trial. 48 HOURS: “Cold-Blooded Killer” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about Mike Williams, a missing Florida man who was believed to have been eaten by alligators in December 2000, and his mother’s belief that something sinister happened. Williams, a successful real estate appraiser, left home to go duck hunting on Lake Seminole on his sixth wedding anniversary. When he did not return home, his wife Denise started looking for him. A massive search ensued. It ended after 44 days with Williams listed as “still missing.” People wondered if he had run off. After six months, his waders, hunting license and a flashlight were discovered at the lake and another explanation was offered: he was eaten by alligators. Mike’s mother, Cheryl Williams, always believed there was more to the story. For nine years, she wrote to the governor of Florida urging him to re-open the case. She even contacted wildlife experts, who told her that alligators do not feed in cold winter months. In the meantime, Denise Williams moved on with her life, cashed in life insurance policies and completely cut off contact with Mike’s mother. She eventually married Mike’s best friend Brian Winchester. Seven years later, the re-opened investigation led to suspicions that both Cheryl and Brian were involved, but police could do nothing because they were married to each other. Soon after, their marriage disintegrated. Police saw an opportunity when Brian cracked after assaulting and kidnapping Denise, to which he pleaded guilty and cut a deal with prosecutors: he finally admitted to killing Mike Williams. Brian revealed the location of the body, with the understanding he that would not be charged with murder. He said it was all Denise’s idea -- she was not willing to be divorced, but wanted to be with Brian. She was arrested and charged with murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Denise Williams is scheduled to stand trial for the murder of her husband on December 10, 2018. Mike and Denise’s daughter is nineteen and in college. She is said to be close with Denise’s sisters. 12/22/18 Update: The trial began in December 2018. The prosecution’s star witness, Brian Winchester, admitted he killed Mike Williams. Defense attorney Ethan Way was so confident the state had no hard evidence that he did not want the jury to consider any charges less than murder one. The jury took eight hours to reach a verdict: Denise Williams was guilty on all counts. Mike Williams’ mother can now lay her son to rest. On-screen text graphic for the 12/22/18 updated rebroadcast: Denise Williams is scheduled to be sentenced in February. She is facing life in prison. Brian Winchester will be eligible for release in 2033. He will be 63-years-old. On-screen text graphic for the 06/20/20 rebroadcast: Denise Williams was sentenced to life in prison. 48 HOURS: “Maria Spencer’s Vow to Kill” (10:00 – 11:00p) – The story of Frank Spencer, a beloved businessman who was shot twice and found in his Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania home, in July 2012. After not hearing from Frank, Joe Yodock became concerned and decided to check on his friend. Once Yodock arrived at the home, he found his friend’s body. Due to their tumultuous relationship, friends of Frank immediately suspected his ex-wife Maria Spencer. Frank had filed for divorce in 2006 and tried unsuccessfully to co-parent with Maria. In 2008, after a fight with Frank’s mother at her daughter’s school, Maria was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct, harassment, and child endangerment. After pleading guilty, Maria repeatedly made open threats to kill Frank. Frank documented the threats but didn’t pursue them with authorities. In 2009, while going through divorce proceedings, Frank began a relationship with Julie Dent. Maria continued and shifted her harassment towards Julie. The situation became more alarming after Maria’s father, Rocco Franklin, was released from prison. After a break-in at Frank’s junkyard, many believed Maria and Rocco were to blame. Both were interviewed, but ultimately the district attorney felt there was not enough evidence to prosecute. Maria continued to harass Frank and Julie and, suspiciously, Frank’s mother’s house was set on fire. Friends couldn’t locate Frank and feared he was inside the home. Though it was rumored Maria was seen by friends smiling at the scene, but the fire was ruled undetermined. Months later, another incident involving fire took place; this time, it was ruled an arson. In 2012, Frank and Maria Spencer’s divorce was published in the local paper. The next day he was dead. Authorities investigated the murder scene, finding DNA evidence belonging to Maria and other clues they thought may implicate Rocco. After checking security cameras, police found footage of his truck driving away moments after his murder. Frank’s truck was found in 27 miles away from his house – just five miles from where Maria was currently living. Two months after the murder, authorities spoke with Maria and Rocco. While Maria refused and Rocco agreed, but Rocco tried to sell a ridiculous story in an attempt to seem inculpable. In 2013, the district attorney convened a grand jury and questioned both suspects. Maria was charged with Frank’s murder, 12 counts of perjury, and dozens of other crimes. A warrant was issued and in July 2014 and she was arrested. A warrant was issued for Rocco Franklin, but he fled to South America before he could be arrested. After a nine-day trial in the fall of 2015, Maria Spencer was found guilty on all counts: for murdering Frank Spencer and for the two arsons, the burglary, 12 counts of perjury, conspiracy, and terroristic threats. She was sentenced to life without parole plus 50 years. In 2017, after fighting extradition from South America for a year-and-a-half, Rocco finally returned to the United States to stand trial. In 2018, he was convicted of Frank’s murder, the burglary, and the arson at Frank’s mother’s house. He was sentenced to life plus 45 years. On-screen text graphic: After Maria’s arrest, Frankie and Cyrus Spencer were raised by Maria’s sister. Frank’s dog Mutley is alive and well. He lives with Frank’s mother. Interviewed: Joe and Katie Yodock, Paul Sicilano, Ron Romig, Derk and Deanna Reed, friends of Frank Spencer; Tom Leipold, Maria Spencer’s divorce attorney and former Assistant District Attorney; Sgt. 06/27/20 48 HOURS: “The Twisted Case of Angie Dodge” - an updated and retitled rebroadcast on the 1996 death of Angie Dodge; the unusual circumstances in which Michael Usry, Jr., a filmmaker and producer of a short film about a brutal death, became a suspect in the case; and the approach police took to try to find a DNA match through the Ancestry.com database. In 1996, Idaho Falls teenager Angie Dodge was brutally murdered. The killer left behind semen, which police tested against the DNA of men she knew. While Christopher Tapp’s DNA did not match, after 28 hours of interrogation over 23 days, Tapp confessed to being present when she was killed and stated one of the participants was a man named Mike. Tapp was convicted of killing Dodge, but the case remained open because his DNA was not a match. In 2014, police searched a public database which had been bought by Ancestry.com, hoping to find a match through familial searching; though unorthodox, the same method had been used to capture the Golden State Killer in California. The partial match first led to the anonymous donor, Michael Usry, Sr. and secondly to his son, Michael Usry, Jr. Despite the close DNA match and the matching first name, Usry Jr. had nothing to do with the death and was officially cleared. Usry Jr. decided to make a documentary and was joined by Angie’s mother, Carol Dodge. They believed Tapp was innocent and their work led to an eventual review of the case, which resulted in Tapp being able to accept a plea deal; he was released from prison after twenty years. UPDATE: On May 16, 2019, Chief Bryce Johnson announced the arrest of Brian Dripps, who had lived across the street from Angie Dodge at the time of her murder. Christopher Tapp has been fully exonerated. Original on-screen text graphic: Carol Dodge met with detectives this week and continues to push them to find her daughter’s killer. Chris Tapp says he has many job offers since his release last month and is happy to be weighing his options. On-screen text graphic for the 12/16/17 rebroadcast: Shortly after being released, Chris Tapp was married. After a fight with his wife, he was arrested and charged with misdemeanor domestic battery. The Couple reconciled. Chris Tapp is now awaiting trial. Idaho Falls police say the investigation into Angie Dodge’s murder is ongoing. On-screen text graphic for the 06/16/18 updated rebroadcast: Idaho Falls police say the investigation into Angie Dodge’s murder is ongoing. On-screen text graphic for the 11/09/19 updated and retitled rebroadcast: Brian Dripps has pleaded not guilty and is in custody awaiting trial.
